Eight Hundred Officers Meet to Discuss Lessons of Pacific "Battle"

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

[Copyright, 1925, by the Chicago Tribune]

HONOLULU, May 1.—The Pacific war game has added fuel to the flames of the controversy raging over the question of whether the development of aircraft has rendered battleships obsolete. The conflicting claims of protagonists of airplanes and battleships, respectively, were brought to the fore with fresh evidence and arguments when 800 high officers of the Army and Navy began today a five-day discussion of the results of the recent sham battle over the possession of the Hawaiian Islands and the lessons taught.

On one hand were the disciples of Gen. Billy Mitchell, asserting that the airplanes of the Black forces defending the islands had theoretically sunk or seriously damaged many, if not all the battleships of the Blue, attacking fleet. Opposed to them were the naval officers, contending that no Black airplanes had fulfilled the conditions for successful bombing of airships and in every instance the planes attacking the capital ships were either driven off or brought down, theoretically by the fighting planes and antiaircraft guns.

MIDDLE STAND TAKEN

Occupying conservative middle ground were such officers as Admiral Coontz, commander-in-chief of the United States Fleet, and Maj.-Gen. Hines, chief of the Army General Staff, who maintain the superiority of air to surface craft has not been established up to date, and under the circumstances the safest course for the nation is in seeking the highest development of all weapons in the air, on the surface, and beneath the surface.

Those who maintain that battleships still remain the backbone of the Navy assert that their claims are vindicated by the developments in the course of the Blue navy's attack on the Hawaiian archipelago. Gen. Mitchell has portrayed war in the future as chiefly a battle in the air. The air forces of the opposing powers would meet first and fight it out, after which the victorious airmen could sink the enemy surface navy at leisure. With this picture in mind, the Blue commanders expected the fleet to be met by a cloud of

PRISON FEUD KILLS TWO

San Quentin Race War Renewed

Pair Stabbed to Death While at Work in Jute Mill; Guard is Tripled

Warden Fears Pitched Battle Between American and Mexican Prisoners

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—Two more convicts were stabbed to death today in San Quentin, bringing the death toll to three in the prison's renewed outbreak of race warfare. Another man was severely cut.

Prison officials, immediately after the two killings, clamped down the prison lid with strictest possible disciplinary measures and put double and triple guard forces on patrol in a desperate effort to avert a wholesale race battle that would involve hundreds of prisoners.

The prison is absolutely closed to visitors, and all entertainments and religious meetings that would ordinarily bring a number of convicts together have been summarily called off.

TODAY'S CASUALTIES

Today's casualties were as follows:

Killed: Mike Gomez, 18, Mexican. Was serving three-year term from Los Angeles; sentenced September, 1923.

Frank Williams, 23, American. Serving life term from Stanislaus county for murder. Sentenced June, 1922.

Wounded: Marian Rube, 25, Indian. Stabbed about the head and face. Rube was partner of Lawrence Mahach, the young Indian slain at the prison Thursday, and like him had been serving a 25-year term for robbery from Humboldt county.

These casualties added to those of Thursday, when Mahach was slain and his assailant, Andreas Gomez, Mexican, shot by a guard, bring the total for the two days of race fighting to three killed and two wounded.

EXPECT MORE TROUBLE

Prison officials today were frank to admit that they expect more fighting, and probably more deaths. Despite extraordinary precautions, they point out, conditions in the jute mill, where today's two killings occurred, are such that it will be almost impossible to prevent a murder by sudden attack.

Both of today's killings were accomplished despite double guard in the jute mill and despite the fact that those guards were keeping a keen watch in expectation of trouble following Thursday's mur-

DENIES AIR RELIC HURT IN TRYOUTS

Custodian Defends Tests of Langley Plane in Face of Wright's Charges

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, May 1.—A flat and formal denial of the charge of Orville Wright that the Langley airplane in the custody of the National Museum here was "mutilated" was made today by Dr. Charles D. Walcott, secretary of the Smithsonian Institution.

In entering his denial, Dr. Walcott made public a copy of a letter he wrote on October 10, 1921, to Col. W. Lockwood Marsh, secretary of the Royal Aeronautical Society, London, with reference to a paper by Griffith Brewer, an Englishman in which the assertion had been made that the experiments conducted in 1914 at Hammondsport, N. Y., showed that the original Langley machine could not have flown with a man on board.

Dr. Walcott also reiterated his declaration that he had the Langley plane tested "out of sheer interest in aviation," and had not, as Mr. Wright charges, permitted it to be taken out and "mutilated" for the "purpose of private parties to a patent litigation."

Iron Hindenburg Shaft Succumbs to Ignoble Fate

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

BERLIN, May 1.—The "Iron Hindenburg," the gigantic statue into which patriotic Germans hammered nails at so much a nail during the raising of war funds—has succumbed to an ignoble fate, it now develops.

After the revolution, the directors of the Tiergarten, where the 110-foot statue was erected, requested its removal. The patriotic society which was responsible for its erection was unable to furnish the funds for moving it away and the Tiergarten authorities then offered it to any museum willing to pay transportation charges, but there were no takers.

A Berlin architect finally bought the statue for one gold mark, sold the body as old wood and removed the head to a storage house, intending to present it later to some public body as a historic relic. During the Kapp revolt special police guards were stationed around the storage house to protect the head.

But the architect's negotiations with the patriotic societies were dragged out so long that fungus growths destroyed what remained of the famous statue.

BORIS'S LIFE AGAIN SOUGHT

Guard Officers Frustrate Attempt to Blow Up the Bulgarian Royal Palace; Bombing Trial Starts

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

SOFIA, May 1.—Another attempt to assassinate King Boris was frustrated today by officers of the guard who discovered a subterranean passage filled with an explosive which they believed was intended to blow up the royal palace.

The organ of the Peasants' party has published an emphatic denial that the party has been an accomplice in the recently attempted assassinations. The Peasants' party condemns all similar criminal measures, the statement continued.

According to the Peasants' party journal, all plots such as those upon the life of King Boris, are instigated by persons financed from Moscow.

The Sofia police announced today that they had discovered a printing press operated secretly by Communists in a dentist's office.

Representatives of the local press and foreign correspondents were permitted to be present at the opening of the court-martial today of the persons charged with responsibility for the bomb outrage in the Svetl Kral Cathedral on April 16 in which a large number of persons were killed or injured.

The court which is sitting in the artillery barracks, is composed of three lieutenant-colonels, who are acting as judges, a captain, who is acting as public prosecutor and two captains who are taking charge of the case for the two defendants, Sarcristan Freedman of the cathedral and Petrini, the Communist leader. The prisoners appeared calm and collected.

The reading of the indictments lasted until noon.

RED SCORES SOVIET RULE IN MOSCOW

American Radical Assails Triumvirate in Power as Usurpers and Tyrants

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

LONDON, May 1.—Max Eastman, an American radical who recently came out of Russia, has started a campaign here against the present Russian government which he characterizes as the world's greatest tyranny. The first sheets of his book "Since Lenin Died" have just been made public and in them he attacks the triumvirate now ruling Russia. He says this trio have betrayed the revolution brought about by Lenin and established themselves in power as autocrats.

Eastman says that Lenin offered Leon Trotzky, Minister of War, who was removed, the post of head of the government when he first fell ill and when he was dying he wrote a letter to the Communist party designating Trotzky as his successor. Lenin specifically demanded the removal of Stalin and warned the Communist party against Zieninov and Kaminev, the other members of the triumvirate.

The letter was suppressed by the triumvirate who opened a fierce war on Trotzky and who have eliminated all traces of democracy in the Russian government, establishing a self-perpetuating bureaucracy. Trotzky, Mr. Eastman declares, is defending Lenin's policies with his back to the wall.

LASH TO CURB CRIME

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

TORONTO, May 1.—Chief of Police Dickson believes that the lash alone will put an end to the latest outbreak of crime which has baffled the police. The annual report of the Toronto Police Department shows that there was actually less crime during 1924 than in the year previous, but in the last few months there has been revival of burglaries, many of them featured by gunplay. This also is true of other parts of Ontario, where the robbing of banks and gasoline stations continues, together with street hold-ups and the like.

Company Heads Accused Under Securities Act

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

OAKLAND, May 1.—Warrants charging violation of the State Corporate Securities Act were sworn out here today against Edward L. Hebern, president, and J. A. Wright, vice-president of the Hebern Electric Code Company, which owns a factory here valued at $250,000.

The company sold stock in a machine which was to be utilized for the transmission and receiving of telegraph code messages, but, according to the charge against it, did not live up to its promises regarding dividend and other returns to the stockholders. Hebern said that large orders which he had every reason to believe would materialize, failed to do so.

ST. LOUIS TO KEEP UP GAMBLING CRUSADE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

ST. LOUIS, May 1. — Serving notice that raids would be frequent, Chief of Police Gerk announced today that further vigorous efforts would be made to suppress sorse-race betting here. He said vagrancy charges would be filed against the 117 persons arrested in bookmaking establishments yesterday, if warrants for gambling offenses under the State law were refused.

REDS HELD IN BOUNDS

May-Day Riots Prevented

All New York Police on Duty to Prevent Outbreaks of Communists

European Celebrations Fail to Produce Usual Clashes Marking Occasion

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, May 1. — Virtually the entire personnel of the police department, 10,700 men, uniformed and in plain clothes, were on duty today to prevent May Day outbreaks.

Half of the uniformed force was assigned to definite posts and half was distributed among the various precincts, to act as reserves in the event of isolated demonstrations. All had orders to remain on duty forty-eight hours.

Business in the financial district was carried on under the protection of a double force of detectives, many of them assigned to specific spots of vantage from which to watch the entrance to banks.

Squads were distributed among the many public buildings — the City Hall, postoffices, courts and prisons — and bluecoats in augmented force paced before the residences of the wealthiest on Fifth, Park and Madison avenues.

Determined to prevent violence in any form, the police broke up ten Communist meetings last night, arrested six persons distributing revolutionary literature and stationed themselves about the congregating places of known inflammatory societies to preserve the utmost order.

Two men were ejected from the City Hall during the day. One, unidentified, was put out of the building when he insisted upon addressing the Mayor after a meeting of the Board of Estimates. The other man, who said he was Mark Stern, a mechanical draftsman, was ejected after he demanded an interview with the Mayor, saying that he had been unemployed for several weeks and wanted the Mayor to get him a job.

Of those arrested, two were women — Sarah Lerer and Lillie Sarnoff. Miss Lerer was charged with littering the streets with leaflets urging a general strike. Miss Sarnoff was charged with annoying pedestrians in distributing similar pamphlets.

MAY DAY SHOWS FAILURE OF MOSCOW PROPAGANDA

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

LONDON, May 1.—The usual Red rule of riot and disorder abdicated this May Day throughout Europe. Never before so emphatically has the propaganda of Moscow centered on the chosen day of its greatest expression each year. Everywhere constitutional authority slipped quietly and firmly into gear and functioned without challenge throughout an uneventful day. There are no lists of dead, no millions of smoking properties.

This May Day throughout Europe has been a conservative trade unionists day. In virtually every country all work ceased and demonstrations, parades and meetings were held. In the countries where the revolutionaries were trying to make something like their old showings police preparations prevented outbreaks.

DAY EXCEPTIONALLY PEACEFUL IN AMERICA

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, May 1. — The day of preparing for possible radical demonstrations in the United States on May Day has passed, in the opinion of Department of Justice officials.

Tips from various parts of the United States and abroad which in former years led the department to take extraordinary precautions against May Day activities of agitators and plotters, were conspicuous by their absence this year, not a single warning of possible disorder being received.

In London the only celebrations were by 2000 or 3000 left-wing Socialists and Communists, who marched in a parade to Hyde Park, arriving bedraggled from heavy rain showers, where they listened while orators orated.

Then they tried to march to the Bulgarian Legation to demand freedom for political prisoners, but they were turned aside by the police without any trouble. A feature of the parade was a number of vans filled with women and children wearing red rosettes.

In the House of Commons this afternoon David Kirkwood, leader of the Black Clyde gang of leftwingers, celebrated by fiery oratory against the "brass-faced" Tories. The occasion was debate on a labor bill for the legislative establishment of the forty-eight-hour week. Mr. Kirkwood declared it was impossible to provide a decent living for workers while the country was paying $5,000,000,000 for war debts.

"My solution is to repudiate that debt immediately," he said. "There is no other way out of it."

The statement was received by a few Labor cheers and many Tory and Liberal cheers, while the bulk of the Laborites were silent and angry. The bill was defeated, 272 to 128.

UNBROKEN CALM FORECAST IN GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS

White House Assures Nation No Upheavals in Policy or in Anything Else Impend

BY ROBERT B. ARMSTRONG
"Times" Staff Correspondent
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

WASHINGTON, May 1.—So far as President Coolidge is now able to look into the future and so far as his intentions are concerned, nothing is going to happen in the government at Washington between now and the assembling of Congress in December that need give an anxious moment to the American people.

Business need not fear or expect the government to take action in any direction that will have an adverse effect on commerce, trade or industry, and no legitimate undertaking is threatened. It is the desire of the administration that the business men of the country abandon any fears they may have had about radical action on anything.

In fact, the President believes that it will be to the advantage of the country if the American people for the remainder of the year would think as little as possible about the Federal government. They will be best served by giving their full attention to the conduct of their own private business.

This almost revolutionary doctrine fell from the lips of a spokesman for the President at the White House today. It is entirely out of keeping with preconceived notions of the attitude of public men and political office holders. Some notable figures in recent American history have deemed that day lost which has not seen their names and their performances with the government machinery exploited on the first pages of newspapers. The public official who pleads to have the limelight turned away from Washington and from him is something new.

NOTHING SPECTACULAR

The President caused it to be known that the country during the ensuing months need not look to Washington to see what is being done that might have far-reaching consequences. The business of the government is going to be carried on just as efficiently and as thoroughly as the President and his subordinates can find possible, but the White House message today plainly warns the people to look for nothing spectacular at the national capital.

The President has exhibited a sympathetic understanding of the problems and tasks of the newsgatherers stationed at Washington and they well know that he will continue to be as helpful as possible to them in obtaining such actual news as may develop but they were plainly given to understand today that they need not look for any extraordinary happenings. The message they heard and which they, by implication, were requested to transmit to the public included a notice to business that conditions at Washington may be regarded as settled, that uncertainties are removed and that business may proceed without those hazards of changes in law or policy that affect investments and constructive effort.

COOLIDGE TO LEAVE

The President proposes to get away from Washington for a stay at his ancestral home in Vermont, and, perhaps, visits to other New England points, just as soon as he can. It is certain, however, that he will be held here until the end of June. The semiannual government budget meeting is scheduled for June 22 and he proposes to be present. Thereafter he will get away as soon as pending business can be cleared up.

In going to Vermont from Washington, the President will travel by train. On this journey, because of the number of White House employees who must go along, a special car and, perhaps, a special train, will be engaged.

GOLD BASIS ON PROGRAM OF CAILLAUX

Finance Minister Also Urges Balanced Budget for France

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

PARIS, May 1.—Explaining his recent statements that France must seek ways and means for returning to a gold standard, Finance Minister Caillaux today told correspondents that the gold standard was one of the necessary elements of the French financial program.

He said his proposals were divided into three categories, the first of which was a permanent and absolute balanced budget, so that there could be no fear anywhere of a deficit in French finances. He asked to be excused from detailing the rest of the program.

The gravity of the situation arising from the heavy obligations coming due this year has been greatly exaggerated, he said.

Kidnaped Girl Pleads for Man Taken by Posse

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

MIDDLEBURY (Vt.) May 1. — Trailed to his hiding place with 11-year-old Lucille Chatterton in an abandoned barn in South Brookfield, by a German police dog, Earl Woodward, farm hand and former convict, for whom a State-wide search has been conducted for a week by 1000 armed men, is tonight in a cell in Addison County Jail.

Under the same roof in the care of the matron is the girl he took from her home. The girl pleaded for him after both were found in the haymow of the barn to which they had fled in the storm and darkness of the night. Physicians who examined her on orders of Atty.-Gen. Archibald, reported that she had not been harmed and her story bore out in large measure that told by Woodward. He said he took her away to save her from her father's brutality and an environment harmful to her.

Woodward was arraigned before Municipal Judge A. W. Dickson, and after counsel had been assigned to him he was held until tomorrow for a hearing. The court has no jurisdiction in the crime of kidnaping with which Woodward is charged, and he will be bound over to await the sitting of County Court next month.

ARGENTINE GOLD HOAR REACHES LARGE TOTAL

JOHN D., JR., AIDS TEMPLE

Offer to Invest $250,000 in Methodist Project Assures Success of New York Venture

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, May 1.—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., a Baptist, today agreed to invest $250,000 in the Broadway Temple, a skyscraper project of the Methodist Episcopal church provided the remainder of the bonds to be sold to complete the project be disposed of by June 1.

The structure, a combination skyscraper-church, apartment house and business building, is to cost $4,000,000.

PROMISE ASSURES SUCCESS

Leaders in the project said that the financier's promise of investment assured success, as only $400,000 worth of bonds remained to be sold. Announcement of Mr. Rockefeller's investment was made at a bankers' club luncheon to whose chairman he made known his proposal in a letter in which he said that the Broadway Temple gives promise of being a real contribution to the solution of the problem of the city church.

"Not only will the structure dominate the surrounding buildings as religion should dominate all human activities," Mr. Rockefeller wrote, "but this type of structure, because convertible entirely into business uses if necessary, renders far safer, in these days of constantly changing city life, the large investment involved. Another feature is that the building is to be financed largely on bond and mortgage with an assured return in interest, instead of through direct gifts."

MORE BONDS SOLD

When the luncheon started there remained $400,000 worth of bonds to be sold, but after Mr. Rockefeller's letter had been read, business men present pledged themselves to purchase $100,000 worth.

Broadway Temple is designed to be twenty-three stories, surmounted by a tower on which will be a revolving cross, to be illuminated at night. It will be erected at Broadway and One Hundred and Seventy-third streets, on the highest elevation in Manhattan, and its lighted cross will be visible throughout the greater city.

The institute unanimously elected Charles E. Hughes to fill a vacancy on its council and the delegates late today were guests of President and Mrs. Coolidge at the White House.

Word From Mexican Capital Tells Activities

Coast to Kansas City Link to be Completed

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

MEXICO CITY, May 1.—Work on the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient Railroad on the stretch between Marques and Ojinaga, in the State of Chihuahua, will be resumed soon according to authorized information. With the arrival here of Juan F. Trevino, manager of the Chihuahua division of the road, renewed activity towards resuming work has been initiated.

When the gap is finished the Chihuahua region will be in direct connection with the Middle West, with Kansas City as the northern terminal of the line.

The Marques-Ojinaga stretch runs over a distance of 125 kilometers. Material for construction work, including ten carloads of rails, already has arrived in Chihuahua City. Another twenty-nine cars are at El Paso ready for immediate shipment. Thirty kilometers running from Marques north have already been graded and the only work to be done is placement of the rails.

Recently a meeting was held at the Ministry of Communications and Public Works between Assistant Secretary Eduardo Ortiz, representing the company, Delbert James Haff, consulting attorney in Mexico, Manuel Calero, legal representative, and Juan F. Trevino, manager of the Chihuahua division.

Details for the building of the northern stretch were discussed, as well as plans of the company to begin work on the uncompleted southern section to connect up the present northern terminal of the port of Topolobampo division, across the Sierra Madre to the southern terminal of the northern division. When both gaps are completed there will be a direct route from Topolobampo on the Pacific Coast to Kansas City, with the gateway across the border at Ojinaga.

New El Segundo Sewer Issue is Given Approval

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

EL SEGUNDO, May 1.—Voters of El Segundo today approved a $375,000 bond issue to build a trunk line sewer to connect with the Los Angeles outfall sewer at Hyperion. The vote was 414 to 99. The sewer also will serve the 160-acre industrial tract recently acquired by the Santa Fe railroad.

Voters also approved the annexation to the city of 100 acres belonging to the Standard Oil Company adjoining the city.

Governor Signs Bill to Prohibit Throwing Lighted Cigarettes in Forests

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SACRAMENTO, May 1.—Declaring that the legislation "is the best ever enacted to prevent forest fires," Gov. Richardson today signed Senate bill No. 562 making radical changes in the law giving the State Forester power to protect California's forests from destruction by fire.

The new law regulates the burning of timber and forest cover, increases the authority of the State Forester in controlling fires in forest areas and prohibits the throwing of lighted cigars, cigarettes and matches from a moving vehicle. Violation of the law is made a misdemeanor.

"Senate bill 562 is the best piece of legislation ever enacted to prevent forest fires," the Governor said. The bill prohibits the burning of timber, slash, brush or forest cover or grass between May 15, and October 31 without a written permit from the State Forester. The investigations of the State Forester and the State Board of Forestry show that cigarettes, particularly of the tailor-made variety, are the largest facior in starting forest and other fires. The bill prohibits the throwing of lighted cigarettes or cigars or other flaming substances which cause a fire or to throw from a moving vehicle any lighted cigarette or cigar.

"This drastic legislation to control the reckless cigarette smoker will, if properly enforced, reduce forest and other fires at least one-half. This advanced piece of legislation should have the support of all good citizens in its enforcement. The cigarette is even more deadly as an actual fire menace than the inflammable yellow journal."

PACIFIC BATTLE CRITIQUE OPENS

Black airplanes as it came within 100 miles of the island Sunday morning.

Nearer and nearer steamed the Blue armada in that day of brilliant sunlight, and circled Oahu Island within twenty miles, but not a single Black plane appeared until the fleet was five miles offshore after dark, when the effectiveness of the planes was reduced to a vanishing point.

NOT A SHIP SUNK

The umpires ruled that not a single battleship was theoretically sunk or seriously damaged by bombing planes at any time up to Monday noon, when the war game was called off with the Blue victorious and in possession of the islands.

The only Blue battleship disabled was the Wyoming, but credit for that achievement goes not to the aircraft, but to submarines. The Wyoming was torpedoed Saturday morning while covering the landing of the Blue air forces at Molokai, and the umpires decided the theoretical damage was such as to reduce its speed to twelve knots. Sunday forenoon the Wyoming was again torpedoed off the west coast of Oahu. The umpires decided it was not sunk, but further disabled so as to reduce its speed to six knots.

Aircraft enthusiasts contend that all the country needs for effective defense is enough planes and aircraft carriers to enable the projection of an air offensive from land. The Blue est, however, found it impractible to launch an air attack on the islands from the aircraft carrier Langley and Admiral Robinson decided it was necessary to have a land base for the air force and seized Molokai Island for that purpose.

Mrs. Coolidge Kisses Children Who Bring Posies

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Two bashful boys and a little girl slipped into the White House grounds today, placed a May-Day basket of flowers and candy at the front door of Mrs. Coolidge's home, then scampered away to hide behind pillars of the portico.

A moment later the wife of the President came out, threw up her hands in surprise and asked:

"Who left this beautiful basket?"

The giggling of the children betrayed them and Mrs. Coolidge took each one in her arms to kiss them and thank them for their gift.

The children, each about 6 years of age, were James Owens, William Smith and Peggy Kahn. The ceremony was a feature of the National Child Health Day, proclaimed by President Coolidge, which is being observed today.

Mexican Miners Demand $3 Day More in Strike

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NOGALES (Ariz.) May 1.—Four thousand Mexican miners employed at the Bolee copper mine, Santa Rosalie, Lower California, went on strike yesterday, according to advices received here today. The strikers are demanding an increase in pay from $2 to $4 a day, improved living quarters and new drainage water and a lighting system, the report says. It adds that the manager of the mine has gone to Mexico City to confer with President Calles and the French Ambassador concerning the situation. The mine is owned by a French Company. Troops have been sent to Santa Rosalia, the dispatches say.

USES PHILIPPINE SUGAR

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

GALVESTON (Tex.) May 1.—An experiment in importing raw sugar from the Philippines is being made by the Imperial Sugar Company for its refinery at Sugarland. The first cargo of 30,000 bags left Manila for Galveston April 26.—This shipment will be followed by others at regular intervals during the next several months, it is stated. Heretofore the Imperial Sugar Company has been obtaining its raw sugar exclusively from Cuba.

GASOLINE TAX RECEIPTS GAIN

Revenue for First Quarter Increased $120,302

State Board Expects Total of $15,700,000 for Year

New Motor Registrations to Augment Income

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SACRAMENTO, May 1.—Gasoline taxes to be collected by the State in 1925, will total $15,700,000, an increase of $1,073,475 over 1924 collections, according to an estimate made public today by the State Board of Equalization.

For the first three months of 1925, the revenue from the 2-cent per gallon tax totaled $3,449,077.39, a gain of $120,302 over the receipts from the first quarter of 1924. The gasoline consumed by motor vehicles in the three months of this year totaled 172,449,369.5 gallons, an increase over the same period in 1924, of 3 1-2 per cent.

The four large oil companies of the State show comparative deliveries for January, February and March as follows:

	1924 Gallons	1925 Gallons
Standard	44,536,752	47,804,063
Shell	33,327,481	34,776,000
Union	30,293,724	18,504,025
Associated	19,551,137	19,361,930

The statement issued by the Board of Equalization declared that the 6,015,109 gallons increase in the amount of gasoline used by motor vehicles during the first quarter is relatively small when compared to the increase in the automobile registration in California.

Half of the money derived from the 2-cent gasoline tax goes to the State and half to the counties and is used exclusively for repair and maintenance of the State highways.

TWO ARE KILLED IN SAN QUENTIN

der of Mahach. Neither assailant in today's trouble had been found.

The first man killed today was Gomez. Above the clatter and roaring of the jute mill machinery, a scream suddenly resounded as a knife was plunged into the young Mexican's abdomen. Before guards could rush to him, his attacker had dodged around a big spinning wheel and taken his place among a group of other prisoners. None of these would admit he knew who had stabbed Gomez.

The wounded man was carried to the prison hospital. There surgeons found that his skull had been crushed, too. He died within an hour.

Warden Frank J. Smith at once ordered a search of all men in the jute mill. The word spread among the prisoners, and when the search was made, not a weapon was found on a convict. But concealed in many places in the mill, guards found rudely-fashioned knives and blackjacks. More than a score of deadly weapons were collected.

ATTACK REPEATED

Then, a few hours later, while excited guards maintained a doubly keen lookout, the whole horrible affair was repeated. Again the screams; again the wounded man; again the refusal of the prisoners to tell who did the stabbing.

Frank Williams lay on the floor, bleeding from a knife wound in the back and another in the chest. He died in the prison hospital at 3 o'clock.

After the attack on Williams, Rube, the Indian, was found with knife wounds on his head and face. He says he cannot identify the man who inflicted them.

All the stabbing and fighting are the renewal of the prison warfare between Mexican convicts and Americans.

The few Indian prisoners in the institution have taken their stand with the latter. In the two days' warfare that has marked the reopening of hostilities the Mexicans have had one killed and one wounded, while the other side has lost two by death and one by wounds.

CRUDE WEAPONS

The outbreak of fighting followed close on the heels of the release of several men from the prison dungeon, where they had been held since the last rioting several months ago.

The weapons the guards have found in their search are crudely fashioned from whatever materials the prisoners can filch. Every imaginable weapon that can be made with cast-off material is to be found in the collection. There is every evidence that prisoners are arming themselves in preparation for some great battle at which they hope to settle the question of supremacy in the race feud.

In the mess halls, where hundreds of convicts gather at mealtime, triple guards, rifles at fire position, kept watch tonight. In the mills and in the prison yards similar precautions were maintained. The guards on the walls never took their eyes from the men at work below them.

No picture shows, no outdoor entertainments, no ball games, no religious services will be held until the present trouble has been crushed, Warden Smith announced today. No affair that will unnecessarily bring the men together is to be allowed.

Rites Today in Montecito for Milo M. Potter

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SANTA BARBARA, May 1.—Funeral services for Milo M. Potter, wealthy Los Angeles and Santa Barbara hotel man, will be conducted from All Saints'-by-the-Sea Episcopal Church in Montecito at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. At 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon services will be conducted in Rosedale Cemetery, Los Angeles. The body will be cremated.

The Coroner's jury this morning found that death was accidental. Investigation disclosed that the top rung of the ladder to the top of his water tank gave way as he was climbing to look into the tank and that he fell backward, being almost instantly killed.

RECORD CHECK COMPLETES DODGE SALE

Dillon Hands Slip for $146,000,000 to Detroit Man

Huge Deal is Consummated

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, May 1.—A check for $146,000,000, the largest ever drawn in a commercial transaction, changed hands today in the office of the Central Union Trust Company of New York, completing the transfer of the Dodge Brothers automobile properties to a banking group headed by Dillon, Read & Co.

Clarence Dillon, head of the banking firm, formally presented the huge check to Charles P. Spicer, vice-president of the Detroit Trust Company, representing the old Dodge Brothers company.

Drawn on the Central Union Trust Company the check was made payable to "Dodge Brothers," the designation of the old company. It will be cleared through the New York Clearinghouse tomorrow. The fund, it is understood, will be left on deposit in New York and drawn out as needed by the beneficiaries of the Dodge estate.

CHARGE RUM TRADED FOR ARMY GOODS

Federal Authorities Find Liquor in Raid on Store of Secondhand Dealer

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—The mystery of reported disappearance of supplies from a local army post, said to have extended over several months, was believed by Federal authorities to be partly solved today with the arrest of Joseph Laurenti, a secondhand goods dealer.

Acting on the tip that Laurenti was adding to his stock of army blankets, shoes, shirts, socks and other articles by accepting those goods from soldiers in exchange for designated quantities of a potent and sparkling beverage, officers swooped down on the Laurenti establishment early today. In addition to a considerable supply of army goods, the raiders reported finding some 400 gallons of home-brewed wine.

Laurenti was arrested on a liquor charge and was released on $1000 bond. The Department of Justice is investigating the case to determine if there are grounds for an additional charge of accepting stolen property.

BEADS USED TO CONCEAL DRUG DOSES

Find in String Bought Here by Hotel Guest is Being Investigated

Detective Lieutenants Post and Hull yesterday were investigating the discovery of a small amount of opium in a carved bead of a string bought at a local importer's store by Miss Florence Humphreys, a guest at the Biltmore.

The narcotic was disclosed when Miss Humphreys broke one of the beads. She communicated with the jeweler, who notified police.

Detectives Post and Hull are of the opinion that the beads were made in China to supply the dope trade and that one of the strings was inadvertantly released in ordinary commercial channels.

GUANO INDUSTRY IN PERU IS HIT BY RAINS

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

LIMA (Peru) May 1.—An announcement this morning from the company administrating the Peruvian guano industry states that recent coastal rains have caused heavy damage, 35,000 tons of guano being washed into the sea, while the remaining deposits have been heavily saturated with moisture, causing a loss to the valuable nitrogen content. It is believed this will result in a decrease of 75 per cent during the next guano season. Hundreds of thousands of fledglings starved to death on coastal islands when they were abandoned by their parent birds, which sought food and fish elsewhere.

CANADA HOUSE VOTES FOR BOUNDARY PACT

BREAKS JAIL AT WILL

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

PRESCOTT (Ariz.) May 1.—Felipe Rosa has taken a new record in five escapes in a single year from Arizona officers. Now he is reported missing from the State Industrial School at Fort Grant, and is believed to have started for California. On one of his excursions he got as far as Clarkdale. He said he had tired of a school menu of hot cakes and beans.

POLICE PREVENT RED OUTBREAKS

ings outside the limits of Paris—just beyond the fortifications—were sparsely attended and there was little excitement. At noon the sun came out and except for a couple of showers it was fine the rest of the afternoon. But the only evidence that it was May Day was the absence of taxicabs.

An observer might have noted that additional policemen were on duty, especially in the important points in the downtown and opera district, but there was not a single trace of troops which were carefully hidden about the City Hall ready for the scene in case of trouble.

The prefecture of police had a couple of hundred big motor trucks in the court yard ready to gallop reserves wherever trouble threatened and overhead all day airplanes droned back and forth with observers spotting the crowds to spy out any gatherings and then wireless the fact to the prefecture.

Most shops were open but little business was done and more than half the average personnel took the day off and went to the country.

RECORD PARADES MARK JAPANESE MAY-DAY FETE

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

TOGIO May 1. — The first of May Day following the granting of universal manhood suffrage and the recognition of soviet Russia, was marked by record parades in Tokio, Osaka and Nagoya in which women participated for the first time. In Tokio 5000 police were called out to handle the 50,000 paraders. The police confiscated all banners that were not white and they quickly checked incendiary songs.

At Osaka the Communist unions which were recently expelled from the labor federation, dropped their factionalism to march alongside the unionists. There were few uniformed police about, the authorities placing the laborites on their honor not to commit any breaches of the law. The Tokio police yesterday imprisoned many Korean leaders, including several students who had planned various excesses for May Day, including flooding the country with Red literature. The literature was confiscated. Warnings have been sent to Korea where probably stern measures will be taken. There was a series of minor Communistic disturbances at Seoul last week.

BOOKINGS OF ORPHEUM TO WEST COAST

One Hundred Houses of Theater Chain to Present Vaudeville Acts

Institution of Orpheum circuit bookings in more than 100 houses of the West Coast Theaters, Inc., throughout the State, will be inaugurated immediately, according to an announcement yesterday by Sol Lesser, secretary of the West Coast organization. This plan, considered by theatrical men the most expansive advance made on the Coast in many years, will be excepted only in West Coast theaters of Los Angeles, San Francisco and Oakland, where Orpheum houses will have the first bookings.

In connection with West Coast Theaters' expansion program announced at the close of last year, A. M. Bowles, general manager of the organization, stated yesterday that the contract on the $350,000 Manchester Theater Building being erected by the Southside Theaters, Inc., for the West Coast and R. B. Grunauer, at Manchester avenue and Moneta, had been awarded to William G. Reed, local contractor.

Winnipeg Wheat Soars at Report on States' Drop

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WINNIPEG (Man.) May 1.—Extremely bullish private estimates on the United States winter wheat crop sent values soaring in a sensational manner on all markets here today.

Winnipeg May wheat showed early strength and on a steady wave of buying, principally by local interests, prices advanced to a maximum gain of 8 1-4 cents from Thursday's final quotations, near-by futures touching $1.70.

ENVOY GIVES UP PASS TO RIDE, WALKS

American Ambassador to Mexico Disdains Car While Labor Celebrates

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

MEXICO CITY, May 1.—United States Ambassador Sheffield today demonstrated to the Mexican Regional Confederation of Labor that he was not dependent on its favor and that he would not accept the privilege of riding in his automobile while everyone else was forced to walk.

Today being May Day, the confederation had called all its members out to celebrate. Chauffeurs of private machines, including the one employed by the Ambassador, had been called from their work. But as a special concession to his rank Mr. Sheffield was given a pass permitting him to drive through the streets of the city. The pass was given by the confederation to only a few persons, these being high government officials.

Mr. Sheffield, however, disdained the use of the pass. He walked with the rest of the residents while the laborers and artisans celebrated.

FOUR DIE IN SEA CRASH DURING FOG

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

HALIFAX, May 1.—In a dense fog off the coast of Nova Scotia Thursday night the steamer Clackamas rammed the schooner Cape D'Or. The wife of Capt. Wilkie of the rammed vessel and three members of the crew were drowned. Four survivors of the Cape D'Or and the body of Mrs. Wilkie were picked up by boats from the Clackamas. The schooner sank in three minutes. The Clackamas came into port today slightly damaged. The Clackamas immediately after the collision sent out S.O.S. calls which were picked up by the Zeeland of the Red Star line and the United Fruit steamer San Gil. Both ships sought to reach the Clackamas but were unable to locate her owing to the fog.

First reports were that the Clackamas, a 2292-ton ship owned by Pendelton Brothers of New York, and her crew of twenty-five men were in great peril but her captain was able to make repairs and bring his ship into harbor unassisted. The steamer sailed from Newport News with a cargo of coal for Halifax.

SUSPECT IN SLAYING IS ARRESTED

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SANTA BARBARA, May 1.—A posse tonight at Salinas cornered and arrested Ciriaco Lomiho, Filipino, suspected of the murder of Andres Barletta, the discovery of whose body near Upland Wednesday solved his mysterious disappearance five months ago.

The search for Lomiho was led by Sheriffs Shay, Ross and Taylor of San Bernardino, Santa Barbara and San Luis Obispo counties, to a mountain hiding place where the suspect was last seen.

Lomiho, according to Sheriff Ross, lured Barletta, a Filipino student, to Los Angeles November 1, 1924, by a fictitious letter purporting to come from Barletta's Japanese sweetheart, suggesting that they elope. Barletta is said to have taken $800 in cash with him. Lomiho returned several days later and was jailed on suspicion for several days until he was released.

LOCAL GIRL HIKER ROBBED

Miss Nell Walker Victim of Pickpockets at Covington, Ky., After Walking 6000 Miles

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

COVINGTON (Ky.) May 1.—After visiting many capital cities in the United States and those of Cuba and Mexico unmolested in her tour around the world Miss Nell Walker, woman hiker of Los Angeles, had her pocket picked in the Dixie terminal at Covington.

The robbery occurred, she said, when she passed through the terminal to board a Covington car to go to the home of Miss Phillis Ruttle, where she is spending a few days before undertaking the next lap of her journey to New York where she will board a steamer for Europe.

Miss Walker has been on the road two years during which she has covered approximately 6000 miles, mostly on foot. She plans to hike through Europe and then go home by way of Australia and Honolulu thus encircling the globe.

She wears knickers, a mannish silk shirt, strap hat with turned-down brim and heavy walking boots with thick woolen stockings.

Across her back is slung a knapsack, the contents of which weigh fifteen pounds, a raincoat and camera. Residents of the rural districts stare at her and appear to fear her. In the city the knickers occasion the stares, especially from the men, she said. Poor health and a desire to see the world prompted her to start on her hike, she said. When she returns to Los Angeles she plans to write a book of her experiences.

Date Fixed for Inauguration of Von Hindenburg

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

BERLIN, May 1.—Paul Von Hindenburg, field marshal for the former Kaiser and second President of Germany, will be inaugurated the 13th inst., in a simple ceremony at the Reichstag, Councillor Meissner, former adviser to the late President Ebert, returned to Berlin after a conference with Gen. Von Hindenburg yesterday, and today announced Gen. Von Hindenburg's wishes that the inauguration be as simple as President Coolidge's had been. Germany is calling in Art Minister Redslob to outline the artistic side of the inauguration.

Political circles are beginning to feel freer because every politician returning from Hanover is of the conviction that "Gen. Von Hindenburg does not want to change anything. He is for Chancellor Luther's policy."

SUNSHINE GIRL TO BE SET FREE

Dorothy Anderson, Held in Faked Fire Death Episode, Still True to Love Vow

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

FOND DU LAC (Wis.) May 1.—Dorothy Anderson, "the sunshine girl," whose sweetheart, Edward J. Sallstad, was recently released from the Green Bay Reformatory, will be given her freedom from the Industrial Home for Women at Taycheedah some time this month. It seemed certain today following statements issued by officials at the institution and by members of the State Board of Control.

When Sallstad and the "sunshine girl" were parted two years ago to go to their separate prisons, they exchanged pledges of "lover forever." Dorothy Anderson talks continually of her love for Sallstad. This had led friends and others interested in her case to believe that she will marry Sallstad as soon as she is released.

No story has ever held public attention in Wisconsin like that of Sallstad's. The story started with the burning of a cottage in 1920, the finding of the charred remains of a man in the ruins, believed to be those of Sallstad, the three fights by Mrs. Sallstad for $10,000 of insurance that her husband had taken out, and finally the discovery in 1923, that Sallstad and Miss Anderson had "planted" a corpse from a neighboring cemetery in the cottage and set it on fire to satisfy the general public and authorities that Sallstad had burned to death.

Killer of Wife, Held Insane, is Now at Liberty

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

CHICAGO, May 1.—John Peter Schmitz who, on December 21, 1921, stabbed his wife to death and cut off her head, is at liberty.

When he was tried for the crime his lawyers managed to convince the jury that Schmitz was insane, and he was sent to an asylum for the insane at Chester, Ill. Later he escaped from the asylum, but seven months later was arrested in Chicago. He was working as a machinist at the time. He was taken back to the asylum, and yesterday he obtained his release on a writ of habeas corpus, based on the claim that Schmitz is no longer insane or "suffering from hallucinations," the point that was stressed in enabling him to escape the gallows.

The State opposed the plan to set him free, saying his mother and a brother had been released from asylums after they had been declared sane, but that both later were locked up as too dangerous to be at liberty. The court held, however, that Schmitz could not be denied his freedom on the chance that he would again "suffer hallucinations."

HUGE RUSS MINE CONCESSION LET

Angeleno Negotiates Deal for London Company

New York Bankers to Have Share in Enterprise

Covers 1,500,000 Acres Rich in Precious Metals

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]
MOSCOW, May 1.—The contract closed by the soviet government with Lena Goldfields, Ltd., a London corporation, yesterday, covers the exploitation of 1,500,000 acres of gold, silver, copper and lead bearing areas in the districts of Lena, Altai and Sissert, in Siberia, and is the most important concession ever granted by the soviet.

It is understood that important New York banking and mining interests will participate in the operations of the company. If the contract runs to the end of its term of fifty years, it will involve a turnover of many hundreds of millions of dollars.

Lena Goldfields, Ltd., embraces also the interests of Russian Mining Corporation, Ltd., the Altai Mines, Ltd., and Sissert Company, which, with the Lena Goldfields Company, were operating the mines covered by the present concession before the revolution.

RICH PROPERTIES

The company's engineers estimated that in the sections of the properties already prospected there are $150,000,000 worth of fully developed metals, while in the unprospected areas there is said to be a much greater amount.

In the Altai district alone, which covers 13,000 square miles, there is declared to be 2,000,000 tons of ore with an average recoverable content of silver, copper and lead of $50 a ton. The Sissert mines, the largest in Europe or Asia, cover 1,250,000 acres, and yield an average of $100 worth of gold, silver and copper per ton.

The Lena Goldfield, a placer property, embraces about 150,000 acres and is estimated to produce from 50 cents to one dollar's worth of gold for every yard of gravel moved in dredging and about $10 per yard for underground work.

IRON AND TIMBER

The Sissert is also rich in iron and timber, which the heads of the concern will exploit. In addition, the coal mines in the Kuznetsk basin and the anthracite mines in the Urals are to be worked by the company.

Under the terms of the contract, the soviet government turns over to the company many steamships, steel barges and tugs for transportation on the Lena river. The contract provides that 6 per cent in cash or kind of the total production is to be paid to the government by the company during the first five years of the contract. The company agrees to install several million dollars worth of modern equipment which will be largely of American manufacture.

IS ANGELENO

The concession was negotiated by Walter Lyman Brown, of Los Angeles, formerly European director of the American Relief Administration; Alexander Maloszemoff of Oakland, Calif., formerly chief engineer of the Lena properties, and Major Frederick W. D. Gwynne of Landon.

Mr. Brown said the company was confident that the enterprise would prove highly profitable both to itself and to the soviet government. The government, he remarked, had accorded him and his associates all possible co-operation, courtesy and consideration.

"Russia has always been short of copper, zinc and lead," Mr. Brown continued, "and it is highly in the interest of the government that our enterprise should be successful. Our company, however, will not be obliged to depend upon a purely Russian market for its sales of these metals, but is free to sell them at a profit in the British and American markets."

Walter Lyman Brown of Los Angeles is a practical mining engineer of experience in Alaska and South Africa. He was graduated from the Los Angeles High School and from the University of California, school of mining engineering.

Mr. Brown was appointed to succeed Mr. Hoover in charge of American relief in Europe late in 1921, and was in charge of the negotiations with the Russian government that resulted in the entrance of American relief workers in the famine districts of that country. Mr. Brown also worked under Mr. Hoover in Belgian relief.

CONTRACT IN LINE WITH SOVIET POLICY

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
WASHINGTON, May 1.—Award of the Lena goldfields concession to a London corporation is in line with the soviet government's policy to increase gold production, the Russian information bureau announced today, declaring the Lena gold resources should be about $1,000,000,000.

On the basis of a survey made in 1911, Siberia's gold reserves were estimated at $6,250,000,000. The soviet union last year mined $20,000,000 in gold, or 40 per cent as much as the American production, with more than one-quarter of it coming from the Lena fields. Siberian production could be increased to about $200,000,000 annually, it war estimated, if present hand-mining methods were supplanted by modern machinery.

Nazimova Asks to be Citizen of United States

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
NEW YORK, May 1.—Alla Nazimova, legitimate and motion-picture actress, applied for citizenship papers at the naturalization bureau in the Federal Building just before sailing for Europe last week, it was learned today. Miss Nazimova took unusual precautions to avoid publicity at the time she appeared at the naturalization bureau, officials explained, and at her urgent request her application was not formally recorded until today. She gave her age as 45 years, her birth place as Yalta, Russia. She renounced allegiance to the soviet government and said she resided in Port Chester, N. Y.

NATION'S CRIME CODE INDICTED

Investigators Give Report to Law Institute

Trials Called Contests to Confuse Truths

Court Procedure Held Too Slow, Unwieldly

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
WASHINGTON, May 1.—Criminal trials in this country are no longer investigations to ascertain the truth, but contests between lawyers seeking to confuse the issues. Our police departments and peace officers are inadequate and inefficient. They fail to apprehend those who have committed crimes of serious nature. Our criminal procedure is unwieldy, uncertain, cumbersome and slow. Too many chances for delay are afforded wealthy lawbreakers.

More are escaping conviction and punishment here than in Canada and England.

This is the gist of an indictment drawn against the present code of criminal procedure in the form of a report submitted today at the third annual meeting of the American Law Institute by a committee headed by ex-Gov. Herbert S. Hadley of Missouri.

The committee concludes with the recommendation that the institute take up a restatement of the substantive law of crimes. It does not urge a restatement of criminal procedure, but its reformation by adoption in every State of a uniform model code.

Those attending the institute were received this afternoon by President and Mrs. Coolidge. At the annual dinner, to be held tomorrow evening, an address will be delivered by Atty.-Gen. Sargent.

PRESIDENT'S FATHER HAS SLOW HEART

Examination Shows That Poor Circulation in Organ's Muscles Retards Pulse

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
BOSTON, May 1.—A condition known as "heart block," sometimes found with advancing age, was discovered by physicians who examined Col. John C. Coolidge, father of the President, at the Massachusetts General Hospital today. A brief report signed by the examining physicians, Drs. Paul D. White and Arthur L. Chute, was issued this afternoon.

Earlier in the day it was announced that a full report on the condition of Col. Coolidge would not be available until the data of the examination had been studied. The signed statement said:

"Col. Coolidge, examined this morning at Massachusetts General Hospital, showed a slow pulse, varying from thirty-eight to fifty-six per minute, result of defective circulation in the heart muscles. This condition is called 'heart block' and is sometimes found with advancing age."

Col. Coolidge and his personal physician, Dr. Albert M. Cram of Bridgewater, Vt., left this afternoon for the Coolidge home at Plymouth, Vt. The colonel, who is 80 years of age, made light of the incident of going to the hospital, and said he was feeling fine.

"I'm just going out to look for something," he remarked as he left his hotel for the hospital.

COOLIDGE IS SHOWN HOW TO CALL DOG

First Lady's Whistle Brings White House Pet Back When President Fails

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
WASHINGTON, May 1.—Mrs. Coolidge today gave the President a lesson in training dogs.

Returning from his daily walk, the President found the two White House dogs, Paul Pry, the airedale, and Rob Roy, the white collie, at the front door waiting for Mrs. Coolidge. He decided to give them a frolic in the front yard.

After a brief romp he called them in. Rob Roy returned dutifully to the portico, but Paul Pry headed for Pennsylvania avenue.

Secret service men promptly gave chase, while the President whistled vainly. At this point Mrs. Coolidge arrived and just as the two secret service men succeeded in heading the dog around he caught the familiar whistle of Mrs. Coolidge.

With a leap Paul Pry set forth on a mad gallop to the White House portico. There he received a reprimand from Mrs. Coolidge for his mischief, but the President preferred not to hear all of it and went inside.

Parade Marks Boys' Week in San Francisco

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—The "kid is king" in San Francisco today. It was "big day" in the annual Boys' Week.

Jack Hall, boy superintendent of schools, had the last laugh on his teacher by declaring all public and parochial schools closed for half a day. The kids celebrated by putting on one of the biggest and most colorful parades ever seen in San Francisco.

The boys paraded in all manner of costumes from the yellow-sashed make-up of a Spanish Don to the olive drab of the Boy Scout. Bands and drum corps failed to make enough harmony to satisfy the boys, so they sang and yelled as they marched.

The parade was reviewed at the Civic Center by Boy Mayor David J. McDaniel and by James Rolph, Jr., who is content to act as Mayor when the boys are not on the job.

MOTOR EXPORTS IN NEW RECORD

March Shipment of Passenger Cars Shows Gain

Canada Comes to Fore in Spite of Tariff Changes

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
WASHINGTON, May 1.—A remarkable record has been made in automotive exports from the United States in March, according to the automotive division of the Department of Commerce. Not only did this apply in the case of passenger cars which accounted for the unprecedented figure of 23,265—an increase of 47.2 per cent over the previous record month of April, 1924, but with equal striking force in the matter of truck exports which totaled 4728.

Canada also came to the fore in sympathetic parallel with the result that she just managed to top her previous high spot in the export of passenger cars, which was in March, 1924. Although this increase amounted to only an inappreciable .28 per cent it should not be forgotten that in March, 1924, Canada still enjoyed her preferential arrangement with the United Kingdom under the McKenna duties whereas March, 1925, found her on the same footing with the other countries including the United States, France and Italy. It is only in the case of Canadian truck shipments that any backward movement is evident among the major automotive items.

American foreign assemblies likewise felt the urge of foreign demand with the result that another record was created. When to the new figure of 15,433 covering all reported foreign assemblies of passenger cars and trucks is added the combined United States and Canadian March exports amounting to 35,566, the resultant total of approximately 51,000 cannot fail to impress.

March production although lagging behind that of the corresponding month in 1924 showed an extremely healthy gain over each of the two preceding months of 1925.

PRESIDENT IS OPPOSED TO HAZING

Purpose of College Not Aided by Horseplay, He Declares

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
WASHINGTON, May 1.—Rough hazing of college fraternity freshmen is frowned upon by President Coolidge. In joining today as a charter member of a fraternity composed of fathers who are members of Phi Gamma Delta and whose sons are of the same fraternity, the President expressed his disfavor for present-day methods of training freshmen.

He believes college freshmen have enough to do if they attend to their studies without acceding to the demands of seniors for shoe shines and other service. In the case of his own son, John, a student at Amherst, Mr. Coolidge takes the position that the boy is in a college for a definite purpose which cannot be aided materially by horseplay. No complaint or intimation of such tactics, however, has come from young Coolidge.

The new organization is known as Fiji Sires and Sons. Mr. Coolidge was the first to sign the roll of six charter members.

The other charter members were guests of the President and Mrs. Coolidge at luncheon.

Governor Busy Putting Names on Diploma Grist

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
SACRAMENTO, May 1. — Gov. Richardson today announced that he is laboriously signing the 2600 diplomas for the graduates of the University of California, in spite of the fact that President W. W. Campbell of the university has had the Governor's gigantic signature printed on the "sheepskins."

In a statement the Governor said:

"It is laborious to sign these diplomas, and it interferes with other important work, but I feel the graduates are entitled to real signatures." He added that "a diploma with printed signature will be of little value in future years, as there will be a suspicion of its genuineness."

RESTORES FOSSIL OF PREHISTORIC LIZARD

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
SAN ANTONIO (Tex.) May 1.—Almost complete fossil remains of a prehistoric monster of the reptile or lizard type has been found on the farm of Walter Minor three miles from Ore City, in Upshur county, by Thor Warner, San Antonio geologist.

While doing research work along a creek bed in Upshur county Mr. Warner discovered a vertebra protruding from the bank. Excavation followed and resulted in recovering twenty-seven pieces. These were put together as they were taken from the embankment. The reptile was shown to be eight feet long. It resembles the Gila monster in a general way and is estimated that it weighed when alive about 300 to 400 pounds.

PROTEST SUNDAY TRADE

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
TUCSON (Ariz.) May 1.—Strong protest is being made by white merchants against the practice of Chinese storekeepers of remaining open on Sundays. The practice is listed as unfair competition. There are about seventy Chinese stores in the city.

HUNT'S ROAD PLAN BLOCKED

Legislators' Refusal to Finance Day Labor Work Expected to Halt Highway Construction

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
PHOENIX, May 1.—Retrenchment is being forced on the State administration by the refusal of the recent Legislature to finance the State Highway Department according to the wishes of the Governor.

Reduction is announced of the force at headquarters of the Highway Department, where seventy-seven individuals were in the pay of the State a short time ago, while very little construction work was being done by the field divisions.

Declaration made that the State will lose $1,700,000 in Federal funds, if matching of State funds is not provided, appears to excite slight interest among legislators interrogated. It merely is observed that provision of State moneys would mean that much more taxation and that much more money to be spent by the State machine.

Reference also is made to asserted waste by the Highway Department in refusal to accept contracts for highway work that construction, at vastly greater cost, might be done by day labor, directed by the Governor's personal and political associates.

Suggestion that the counties turn over a part of their shares of the highway funds for expenditure by the State Highway Department also appears to have been received with inattention. In the event of a special Legislative session, the antiadministration majority in both houses undoubtedly will refuse to vote the desired support to the administration plans.

So it is probable that highway extension in Arizona will be almost at a standstill for the next year or more and that the State administration will do little more than maintain the roads now in being. Still worse conditions may result if the gasoline tax and the 10-cent property tax levy for the roads be found inoperative, something that may occur soon after July 1, when the collection of a set sum of $1,550,000 has been accomplished.

IMPERIAL VALLEY'S ONION SEASON OPEN

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
BRAWLEY, May 1.—Imperial Valley's first carload of onions for this season has been shipped from Brawley, consigned to a Los Angeles firm. It is estimated the valley will ship at least fifty carloads of onions. Tomatoes are being shipped to the Los Angeles and San Francisco markets. The tomato crop is expected to reach 500 or 600 cars.

Demented Man Makes Meal on Razor Blades

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
DENVER, May 1.—Swallowing safety razor blades was the means of suicide adopted by John Wenes, 69 years of age, in his home at 2242 Stout street Tuesday, city surgeons who removed him to the General Hospital were told.

He is said to have locked himself in a room while temporarily insane and gulped down at least one blade and possibly more before other occupants of the house, summoned by Wenes's daughter, Mrs. Mary Thomas, broke down the door. He was bleeding profusely from deep cuts on the lips.

Surgeons prepared at once to make an X-ray examination at the General Hospital. If it is found he managed to swallow the blades, it is said an operation would be performed immediately, with good chance of saving his life.

ARGUE ON RAIL CHARTER TEXT

Principals in Land Hearing Seek Original Meaning

Word "Agricultural" Now Presents Problem

Grants to Northern Pacific Are Investigated

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The Congressional commission investigating land grants to the Northern Pacific Railway Company today took up a discussion of the meaning that Congress intended to place on the word "agricultural" in the company's charter, which was granted in 1864.

Representative Raker, Democrat, California, made the suggestion that the company had received timber lands in lieu of lands returned to the government, and asked if the company's charter did not require it to confine lieu selections to agricultural lands.

Chairman Sinnott then had read the part of the charter dealing with lieu land selections, and asked A. W. Patterson, attorney for the Interior Department, what construction the department had placed upon the word "agricultural." Mr. Patterson testified that the word meant any lands other than mineral lands, but explained that the interpretation of this word depended upon other provisions of the act and that in other instances it had been construed differently.

This discussion developed during the testimony of D. F. McGowan, attorney for the Forest Service, regarding selections made by the company for acreage returned to the government as mineral land.

James B. Kerr, counsel for the company, cited several court decisions, which, he said, showed that the action of the department in granting title to land had been held as final in determining the classification of the lands.

BUDDHA OF TIBET GIVES PEACE PLEA

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SHANGHAI, May 1.—Panchon Lama, the living Buddha of Tibet, at a reception given in his honor today made an address on universal peace, stating:

"Since reaching Chinese soil I have been praying night and day for the welfare of the Chinese people and for the permanent peace of the Chinese nation. It is my desire that all people shall believe in Yin Kog, or cause and effect. Only those performing good deeds can expect good results and the sooner the people realize the importance of virtue, the earlier will come universal peace and the elimination of bodily pains."

The Buddha, who is styled the superhuman prelate of Tibet, spent the day in Shanghai attending theatrical performances in his honor. He also visited delegations from Buddhist bodies in East China.

Former Wife of Accused Kluxer Seeks Property

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

INDIANAPOLIS, May 1.—Attachment and garnishment of all property owned by D. C. Stephenson, former Klan leader, is sought in two writs filed in Superior Court here today on behalf of Mrs. Nettie Stephenson Brehm of Poteau, Okla.

Mrs. Brehm recently filed suit asking a $17,000 judgment based on the allegation that she formerly was Stephenson's wife and that this amount is due for the support of Florence Catherine Stephenson, 9 years of age, daughter of Stephenson.

Stephenson, Earl Klinck and Earl Gentry are in jail charged with murdering Miss Madge Oberholtzer, 28, of this city.

The three are to be arraigned Monday.

COMPLAINT DENIED IN COPPER MERGER

VIOLATIO OF CLAYTON ACT CHARGE DISMISSED BY TRADE BOARD

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The Federal Trade Commission has dismissed an application for a complaint against the Kennecott Copper Corporation in which it was charged with having acquired the stock of the Utah Copper Company in violation of the Clayton Act.

Dismissal of the application became known tonight through publication of a dissent from the action by Commissioners Thompson and Nugman, which stated that the majority of the commission had based its refusal to issue the complaint on an opinion by the commission's chief counsel that the purchase of the Utah company's stock by the Kennecott corporation had "not been used to bring about a substantial lessening of competition."

The dissenting statement recited that in December, 1924, the Kennecott Corporation acquired 74 per cent of the outstanding stock of the Utah company and stated that the two concerns sold 20 per cent of the copper used in the United States.

Regardless whether the intention of the Kennecott company was to reduce competition, it asserted the actual effect of the transaction tended toward monopoly and therefore the commission should have issued the complaint.

SHEPHERD NET TIGHTENS

Witness Tells of Hearing Detective Caution Poison Suspect to "Stick to One Story"

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

CHICAGO, May 1.—William Darling Shepherd was definitely linked with the mysterious activities of the Jones detective agency today as a crowd, lured by the promise of sensational evidence, jammed the room in which a Coroner's jury resumed its postponed inquiry into the death of William Nelson McClintock. Shepherd, under indictment and waiting trial on the charge that he murdered Billy McClintock, was not present, nor were William Scott Stewart and W. W. O'Brien, his attorneys.

Disclosures were made early in the investigation of the death of Billy McClintock that important witnesses for the prosecution were being subjected to intimidation. One of the alleged intimidators, when arrested, claimed to be an operative of the Jones agency.

There was a hint that two witnesses from Iowa were to give important testimony regarding Mrs. Emma Nelson McClintock's death. In the meantime Dr. William D. McNally, Coroner's chemist, contributed his bit to the melodrama with an admission on the witness stand that chemical analysis, while it showed no poison in lethal dosage, did not prove that Dr. Olson had not been poisoned. He repeated the information already embodied in his report to the Coroner that mercury in large quantities had been found in the vitals of Mrs. McClintock.

Gladys Roberts, formerly employed by the Jones detective agency was the principal witness of the morning session. She testified that she had seen Shepherd in the office of John E. Jones and that she had heard Jones caution him against "telling too many stories."

"Stick to one story," she quoted Jones as saying. "Stick to one story and they'll never get you."

Scarcely less sensational was the testimony of Mrs. Louise Olson, widow of Dr. Oscar Olson, who asserted that she was threatened with bodily harm if she went to the State's Attorney's office to aid in the prosecution of Shepherd. Mrs. Olson added that an apparent effort to kidnap her was made by a man in a large limousine.

This man, she said, came to her home late one evening and said he had been told by Judge Harry Olson to take her to his office. Becoming suspicious, Mrs. Olson testified, she called the Judge and he told her he had sent no such message. She declined to leave her home and the man departed.

The widow did not know this man, but the Roberts girl had testified that Jones used a large limousine when shadowing, and the inference drawn was that the same car was the one parked in front of Mrs. Olson's apartment. Search for Jones was immediately intensified as a result of the disclosures of Miss Roberts, who has been acting in the interests of those seeking to convict Shepherd for the murder of young McClintock, his millionaire ward.

BALLOONS TAKE AIR IN RACE

Stiff Breeze Carries Four Aeronauts to Southeast in National Elimination Contest

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

ST. JOSEPH (Mo.) May 1.—Five balloonists tonight were traveling southeastward across the United States in the national elimination balloon race. Four of them were contesting for the honor of representing the United States in the international races. The fifth was in a pilot balloon that led the way for the others.

A sixth pilot, Raymond E. O'Neill, saw his hopes of representing his country in the international event blasted early in the afternoon when the net about his balloon, the S-16 of the Army, was torn.

The first of the contesting balloons, the army balloon S-14, piloted by Lieut. William J. Flood and his aide, Lieut. Haynie McCormick, took off at 5:55 p.m. and sailed away to the southeast before a stiff breeze.

The Goodyear III, flown by W. T. Van Orman, with C. K. Wollan as aide, got away ten minutes later. Van Orman won last year's race.

Capt. H. E. Honeywell, veteran aeronaut, and his aide, Harry Preston, soared away in the St. Joseph at 6:42 p.m.

Tribute was paid by officials of the race to the nerve of W. C. Naylor, aide to Herbert V. Thaden, who was overcome by gas shortly before his balloon, the Detroit, was to start.

Naylor was revived by a pulmotor and insisted on accompanying Thaden against the advice of physicians.

LEAVES AMBULANCE

The nervy aide was lifted from an ambulance and placed in the basket just before Thaden took off on the flight at 6:58 o'clock. Physicians declared that the trip might result in pneumonia since his lungs were in a weakened condition from the gas.

The start of the race was delayed by a strong wind from the northwest that hampered inflation early in the afternoon, and the gas was turned off for more than one hour. Pilots said damage might be done to the big bags if inflated in the heavy wind. They swayed back and forth, sometimes nearly touching the ground.

It was not until 5:47 p.m. that the pilot balloon, in charge of Maj. Maurice Smith of Kansas City, took off to lead the way for the contestants. He had been scheduled to depart at 5:10 p.m.

ARMY MAN BARRED

Maj. Smith was refused permission to compete in the race with the other balloons by Maj. A. R. Lambert of St. Louis, the referee. Maj. Lambert said he noted the advice of Maj.-Gen. Patrick, chief of the Army Air Service, who was here to see the start of the race. The pilot balloon is less than half as large as the other balloons and was filled entirely with hydrogen gas. The contention was that it would not be a fair competition since the larger balloons were filled with 60 per cent of water gas, which does not have the lifting power of hydrogen. The contest committee of the National Aeronautic Association yesterday granted Maj. Smith permission to compete in the race.

PASS MISSOURI TOWN

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

LIBERTY (Mo.) May 1.—Three of the balloons in the national elimination balloon race passed over here at 5:45 p.m. tonight. They were comparatively close together and were drifting in a southeasterly direction at a high altitude.

MOTOR MEN HEAR COOLIDGE

President Questions Superior Efficiency of Cities in Talk to Auto Club Secretaries

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Discussing transportation problems, particularly those of increasingly congested cities, President Coolidge declared in an address to secretaries of automobile clubs in conference here today, that instead of using new transit facilities to end overcrowding the people seem determined to crowd themselves more than ever.

As a result, he contended, there is need for "concerned, fundamental and courageous consideration of all the questions involved," which, he added, "reach a hundred times deeper than the mere superficial problem of getting streams of motor cars moved through city streets."

The President urged the 150 motor-club secretaries who had gathered at the south portico of the White House to hear his greeting to take the "broadest and most inclusive view" of the problems confronting them. These, he said, include "the physical configuration of our cities, the direction of the mighty currents of the nation's commerce, and the continent-wide distribution of population and industry."

Declaring that in planning the layout of cities years ago, it was impossible to foresee the "transportation revolution," Mr. Coolidge said that some recent studies of engineers and sociologists "have led to doubts whether the superior efficiency of the very great cities as business, industrial and cultural centers can be taken altogether for granted."

"They have advantages," he added, "but they also have disadvantages, and the disadvantages seem to be multiplying fastest."

Dodges Sued by Former Director for Half Million

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

DETROIT, May 1.—Suit for $500,000 was filed against the Dodge estate here late today by Howard A. Bloomer, a local attorney and former chairman of the board of directors of the Dodge Motor Company. Mr. Bloomer left the city as soon as the papers had been accepted by the County Clerk.

Mr. Bloomer is administrator of the estates of Horace E. and John F. Dodge, but severed his connection with the Dodge company more than a year ago.

State is Charged for Phone Calls of Boss McCabe

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SACRAMENTO, May 1.—Gov. Richardson today received a bill from the telephone company for nine calls made by Alex McCabe, Senator Johnson's lieutenant in California, from the Lieutenant-Governor's office in the Capitol.

The Governor forwarded the bill to Lieut.-Gov. Young at Berkeley for his approval.

In commenting on the matter, the Governor said: "I have always known that this notorious boss has plenty of nerve, but did not suppose he had nerve enough to telephone nine times from the Capitol and try to switch the charges to the State. It is interesting to note that all these calls were made from Station No. 83, located in the Lieutenant-Governor's office on the second floor of the Capitol Building."

Los Angeles to Fly Today if Weather Fair

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

LAKEHURST (N. J.) May 1.—If the early-morning sun indicates tomorrow will bring fair weather the Los Angeles will get off on its delayed trip to Porto Rico, Capt. George W. Steele, commander of the aircraft, said today.

The big ship will be kept at the mooring mast overnight. It had been planned to leave today, but the intermittent showers and the increased weight that came from the rain-soaked envelope forced the commander to delay once more.

Pasadena to Oppose Pacific Electric Boost on Tracks in Crown City Streets

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, May 1.—The city of Pasadena will put up a strenuous fight to keep the Pacific Electric Railway Company from gaining its request from the Railroad Commission to have fares in Pasadena raised from six to eight cents, it was declared today by C. W. Koiner, City Manager. Every possible means of combating the rise will be resorted to, it is said, and as a last resort the city might undertake to run a municipal system of buses.

The Pacific Electric officials have announced that their books show a deficit of $162,000 for the operating of the Pasadena system during the past year. They ask for a 2-cent rise on all lines in the city.

City Manager Koiner will ask that a survey be made to determine the valuation of the equipment used in the Pasadena service. This survey will be entered into jointly by the city and the Railroad Commission, it is said.

Two years ago the citizens of Pasadena voted on the question of establishing a system of city-owned buses. The bond issue was bitterly fought by the Pacific Electric interests, and the issue lost by a narrow margin. It was one of the most hotly contested elections the city ever experienced.

At present the Pacific Electric is operating the busses under an ordinance permit. The system has been overexpanded, it is said, and there are now but three ways to remedy the situation. Either the raise must be granted, or several of the nonpaying lines eliminated, or the city must run its own busses, experts declare.

Searching Kern River for Body of Frank Davis

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

BAKERSFIELD, May 1. — More than seventy men are patrolling and searching the Kern River in the Kern Canyon near the highway camp for the body of Frank Davis, aged 26, an employee of the California Highway Commission, who was drowned late yesterday afternoon while attempting to swim the torrent. The river was unusually high and the current carried the man away before his companions could offer any assistance.

Mr. Davis was doing engineering work and offered to swim the river at a point about six miles from the mouth of the canyon, in order that a rod might be placed on the opposite bank to complete the survey being made. According to fellow-workers, Mr. Davis's body was swept away in the swirling waters and over a series of rapids which made efforts to offer assistance futile.

The river was patrolled all night in hopes that the body might be recovered.

Young Davis was not a convict and had been in the employ of the Highway Commission for four years.

RESEDA SCRUB HENS LAY MONSTER EGGS

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

RESEDA, May 1.—J. K. Myers of Reseda has two scrub hens of part Plymouth Rock and Rhode Island Red breed, that he values higher than any of his pedigreed stock. Myers was in town today exhibiting two eggs, each laid by the scrub hens. The eggs are almost as large as goose eggs, weighing a trifle over a quarter of a pound apiece. Myers states that he cannot account for the laying of the monster eggs. He says the chickens are ordinary scrub hens, but that ever since they left the pullet age they have been laying eggs weighing four to the pound. The eggs were seen by several Reseda citizens and weighed to verify Myers's statement.

FEED WAREHOUSE IN VAN NUYS HAS BLAZE

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

VAN NUYS, May 1.—The local fire department at 12:45 p.m. today was called to the Fernando Valley Feed and Fuel Company, where warehouse No. 4 on Bessemer street was found to be ablaze. The fire appeared to have broken out among a quantity of bales of hay, which the firemen dragged from the building to save other contents. The blaze was soon gotten under control, with damage estimated at about $100, covered by insurance. Origin of the fire is undetermined. This warehouse and others adjoining contain valuable feedstuffs. But for the prompt work of the local firemen a large blaze might have occurred.

CLAIMS TITLE FOR FIRST "COTS" OF YEAR

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

BRAWLEY, May 1.—Chris Westgaard of Brawley claims to have grown and shipped the first ripe apricots in the United States this season. He sent fifty crates of the fruit to Los Angeles and San Francisco markets this week and reports indicate excellent prices brought. The fruit is asserted to be sweeter and of better color this year than for several seasons.

LETTUCE IN FIELD TO BE FREE SUNDAY

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

VAN NUYS, May 1.—There is so much lettuce at Van Nuys and in the Van Nuys vicinity that planters are going to give it away as a means of advertising the community, and to show what can be done in this section in the matter of growing lettuce. At Balboa avenue and Vanowen street is one patch of eighty acres, belonging to W. J. Petit, who offers to give it to Los Angeles people if they will come out Sunday in their autos and pick over the field.

On Sunday most of the real estate offices in town will be open. Any of these firms will direct Los Angeles visitors or any other tourists to the lettuce field. The lettuce is in fine condition and visitors may have all they want. All they have to do is to come to Van Nuys, go to the lettuce patch and take what they want. No conditions are attached to the gift. Van Nuys simply has more lettuce than it knows what to do with under present market conditions, and rather than see it rot in the fields is willing to give it away to anybody who will come out and get it.

MAN IN HOSPITAL IDENTIFIES ROBBERS

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

KINDER ACQUITTED

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

HANFORD, May 1. — Louis A. Kinder, who has been on trial for the murder of L. A. Broderick, was acquitted by a jury in the Superior Court here today. The jury had the case under consideration since yesterday afternoon. Kinder's defense was that he killed Broderick in defending the honor of his home.

IRRIGATION OFFICES TO BE MOVED

Imperial Taxpayers' Fight Against Action of Directors in Court Lost

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

EL CENTRO, May 1.—Imperial irrigation district directors will be permitted to remove the general offices and shops of the district from Calexico to Imperial through a decision today by Superior Judge F. M. Jamison of Modoc county. The court denied the petition of William Brandenberg, a Calexico taxpayer, for an injunction preventing the removal of the offices and shops. The hearing of the evidence and the arguments of counsel occupied five days.

Brandenberg asserted that the move ordered by three of the irrigation directors over the protests of the other two would cost the district taxpayers nearly $125,000 and also alleged that the adoption of the resolution providing for the removal was a sort of political trade and to serve the interests of the three directors.

Judge Jamison said Brandenberg had failed to prove his assertions and dissolved a temporary injunction granted several weeks ago. Nearly $50,000 had been expended by the district in purchase of new buildings and grounds at Imperial in preparation for establishing the offices and shops there up to the time the injunction was obtained by Brandenberg.

Following the court's decision today irrigation district officials announced that work would be rushed on the new buildings at Imperial in order to house the offices and shops the coming summer.

MELONS FOR COOLIDGE

Imperial Growers Send President First Pick of Season

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

EL CENTRO, May 1.—President Coolidge is expected to have for breakfast next Monday ripe cantaloupes from Imperial. A crate of four large ripe melons was dispatched to the President by air mail and according to present schedules they are expected to arrive at the capital the fourth day.

Imperial Valley cantaloupe growers co-operated in gathering the first ripe standard melons in the United States for the President. The postage paid on the crate of melons for the trip to the capital was $32.88, or $8.22 for each melon.

PASTOR'S CAR USED BY GANG OF ROBBERS

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, May 1.—The hold-up men who robbed a Standard Oil service station in Alhambra last night, used a car belonging to Rev. Bradford Leavitt, pastor of the Union Liberal Church of this city, it was learned by the police today. Rev. Leavitt parked his car on Colorado street early in the evening. It was gone when he returned. F. E. Thelback, operator of the Alhambra service station, obtained the number of the car the bandits used to rob his station. It tallied with that of the Pasadena pastor's.

HOFFMAN SENTENCED WHEN APPEAL FAILS

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

EL CENTRO, May 1.—D. B. Hoffman, Rockwood rancher, today heard Superior Judge Cole for the second time sentence him to a term of from ten years to life in San Quentin penitentiary, following Hoffman's conviction of the slaying of Jack Schaeffer of Pomona. Judge Cole denied Hoffman's application for a new trial. Hoffman was sentenced to a similar term following conviction in November, 1923, but appealed and obtained a new trial. He has remained in the Imperial County Jail since his arrest, May 30, 1923.

BAKER TAKES STAND AGAIN

Tells of Week-end Trip in Dead Man's Auto

In Two Hours' Denial of State's Evidence

Jury to Get Winn Murder Case Today

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SAN BERNARDINO, May 1.—Although weak after his collapse in the courtroom yesterday Harry Baker the accused slayer of James Winn, a taxi driver, went on the witness stand today to deny the State's circumstantial evidence.

Uninterrupted by his attorneys Baker talked for more than two hours retracing his flight from the city on the night of November 25, 1924, when Winn was slain. Baker said he left San Bernardino with Harry Kirk, his accused accomplice, who has escaped arrest, in an automobile which he later learned was Winn's car.

Baker said he accepted an invitation from Kirk to go on a week-end trip to Tia Juana. In Tia Juana he said Kirk struck him over the head and left him to die. The blood from his wound was the blood that stained his shirt sleeves, he said, in answer to the testimony of Prof. A. R. Maas of the University of Southern California, who yesterday testified for the State that blood stains were discernible on the shirt sleeves under a microscope, although the sleeves had been washed.

Baker also said that Kirk hired Winn to drive him to the Doyle ranch on the night of the slaying, near where Winn's body was found three days later. In San Diego Kirk told Baker, the prisoner testified, that he was afraid to return to San Bernardino because he "had beat h— out of a guy up there."

State witnesses had previously traced Baker's flight from the city with Kirk testifying that Baker registered under assumed names in Santa Ana, where Winn's blood spattered car was found and in San Diego.

Baker collapsed yesterday as Dist.-Atty. Johnson started to read a written statement by Baker in which was virtually the same story Baker told on the witness stand today.

As Baker lay stricken on the courtroom floor Mrs. W. E. Bennett, a nurse and sister-in-law of Winn worked over him, probably saving his life. Baker was later revived by a physician and taken in an ambulance to the General Hospital, where it was announced that he suffered a severe nervous collapse.

Baker was wan and drawn today and during the afternoon court was adjourned thirty minutes to permit him to rest. The case will go to the jury tomorrow.

OPERATOR ESCAPES AS POLICE RAID STILL

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

GLENDALE, May 1.—Raiding the premises of J. L. Bolson, 126 North Cedar street, the police yesterday seized a still that was warm when the officers entered the house, and they also took eleven gallons of liquor and seven pints. Bolson is believed to have had some intimation of the arrival of the raiding party and to have halted the work on the still just before the police reached his home. Bolson is said to have been a former member of the Glendale police force, severing his connection with the force about two and a half years ago.

COLORED WOMEN OF VALLEY END SESSION

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

HANFORD, May 1.—The third reciprocity meeting of the Federation of Colored Women's Clubs of the San Joaquin Valley, in this city, has adjourned after a very interesting session presided over by Mrs. Pearl Lowery Winters, past president. A large amount of business was transacted, including consideration of plans for the entertainment of delegates to the State federation meeting in Bakersfield in July. Indorsement was made of State officers from the central section of the State. At the meeting here there were fifteen delegates present from the Fresno and Bakersfield clubs.

BAKERSFIELD CRIME RECORDS DECREASE

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

BAKERSFIELD, May 1.—More care used in the observance of city parking rules by autoists, fewer cases of violations of the State and national prohibition laws, and a general decrease in crime throughout Bakersfield during the last thirty days has decreased the number of arrests made by the police department by 294 when the 595 arrests of March are compared with April's record of only 301. City traffic-ordinance violators this month numbered 179, according to police records, in contrast to 401 cases reported for the month previous.

LYONS TO DEVOTE TIME TO BUSINESS

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

GLENDALE, May 1.—George J. Lyons, a director of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, who was named to fill one of the appointive vacancies after the election of last November, last night tendered his resignation to the board of directors, to take effect at once. Mr. Lyons, who has been active in Chamber of Commerce and other civic work, states that his own business demands a greater degree of his attention.

BURBANK TAKES PRIZES

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

GLENDALE, May 1.—The competing dramatic teams from Burbank High School last night carried off the honors in the two events scheduled for the Glendale District Eisteddfod program at the Glendale-Avenue School, taking the verdict in the contest for presenting a scene from Shakespeare and for the one-act play, defeating the Glendale High School players.

Since the Eisteddfod opened on Monday night Burbank singers and musicians have captured the high-school band contest, tied for honors in the choral-club contest, won the soprano-solo contest and the elementary-school orchestra event, adding two more victories last night in the dramatic contests.

Burbank also captured a banner last night for presenting a group of high-school girls in a dance number.

In the competition for baritone soloists Glen R. Dolberg, Glendale photographer, was awarded first place; Milford C. Jackson, second, and Myron Carman, third.

To offset the victories of Burbank, the Glendale artists from the high school were awarded all the first and second places in the art exhibit of the Eisteddfod.

TODAY IS BIG DAY AT INGLEWOOD EISTEDDFOD

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

INGLEWOOD, May 1.—Tomorrow will be the big day in the bay cities Eisteddfod, with programs beginning at 10:30 a.m. at the Inglewood Woman's Club. The morning will be given over to various contests in piano numbers in classes under 12 years of age, under 14 years and under 16.

The drama section of the Eisteddfod during the afternoon, beginning at 1:30 o'clock, will present "Followers," by Inglewood Union High students, under the direction of Miss Hazel Rose Lawrence; "The Place of Dreams," given by the drama section of the Inglewood Woman's Club, direction of Mrs. M. A. Hood, and "Allison's Lad," given by Redondo Union High students, under the direction of Gladys Coblentz. There will also be a number of piano, violin and men's chorus numbers.

The evening, which will conclude the Eisteddfod here, includes vocal competition in solo work, including sopranos, mezzo-sopranos, contraltos and baritones. There will also be municipal-band competition, marking the first appearance of the Inglewood Municipal Band in its new uniforms.

This afternoon El Segundo grammar-school orchestras, Inglewood grammar-school orchestra, the boys' bands from Santa Monica, Beverly Hills and Redondo competed, and in the evening high-school orchestras from Inglewood, Sawtelle, Compton and Redondo completed, as well as choruses from Inglewood, Santa Monica and Compton Rotary and Lions' clubs, and music by the American Legion of this city. Boy Scouts and Camp Fire Girls of Santa Monica also competed in choral numbers, while tenors, contralto and dramatic-soprano soloists vied for honors. Tomorrow night, following the final program, awards will be announced and this will be followed by a grand ball in the clubhouse.

An adjustable steel truss to support automobiles undergoing repairs takes the place of the customary wooden horse and blocking.

FRUIT CROP AT POMONA ABOVE PAR

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

POMONA, May 1.—More than $17,000,000 is the total for the present season the citrus industry is bringing Pomona Valley through its four fruit exchanges, it was learned today from month-end figures obtained from the San Antonio, Ontario-Cucamonga, Laverne and San Dimas houses.

Including lemons and Valencia oranges with the navels, season for which closed Thursday, 8564 cars of citrus fruit will be shipped by rail from this district. Tons of fruit have gone to local markets by truck, and figures for this amount are not obtainable, and were not included.

Exceeding previous years during which growers were under severe handicap financially, the season is the first since 1920 that has resulted in prosperity for local ranchers.

Shipping 2402 cars and with 1100 yet to go, the San Antonio exchange leads all others in amount of fruit handled.

"Our returns will exceed $6,000,000," Manager Knox said today. "While we had anticipated a bumper crop, figuring returns to be $5,500,000, actual shipments and net profits greatly exceeded our predictions."

A normal year for the San Antonio exchange was estimated at $4,000,000 by Mr. Knox.

Postmaster at Alhambra Has Taken Up Work

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

ALHAMBRA, May 1.—Alhambra's first postmaster, Byron N. Marriott, assumed the duties of his office today, Acting Postmaster G. O. Squire turning over the office to his successor this morning. One of Marriott's first official acts was to appoint Squire assistant postmaster and Aivah Dougan, for several years a local postal clerk, superintendent of mails.

The selection of Marriott was recommended by the Civil Service Commission at Washington and Postmaster-General New made a recess appointment. Formal ratification is expected to be made when Congress convenes in December.

The Alhambra postoffice was established in 1885 as a branch of the San Gabriel office. Later it became a branch of the Los Angeles office and continued as such until January 1, 1925, when it was placed on an independent footing. Since the first of the year Squire has served as acting postmaster.

University of Redlands New Library Begun

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

REDLANDS, May 1. — Ground was broken today for the eleventh permanent building on the University of Redlands campus when excavation for the library building was started. This new building, to be of concrete and of the design of the other buildings grouped around the great quadrangle, will cost about $75,000. It will be completed by October of this year, according to George P. Cortner, business manager. When this building is started, building of two big buildings will be under way, for a $100,000 dormitory for girls is now being built.

The dimensions of the new building, according to the business manager, are to be 44 by 130 feet with a projection on the rear measuring 29 by 37 feet. This projection will provide space for the steel book stacks and will have capacity for 55,000 volumes.

State Workers Can't be Made to Make Up Thefts

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SACRAMENTO, May 1.—Atty.-Gen. Webb today ruled in opinion to the State Board of Control that State employees cannot be held accountable for money stolen or taken from them by force, the board asking for a ruling in the case of the cashier of the Fresno branch of the Motor Vehicle Division, who had to make good $98 which was stolen from a safe in the office by thieves.

SINGLETON SLAYING CHARGE IS DROPPED

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—A murder charge against James H. Singleton for the murder of his wife, Elizabeth Singleton, about three years ago was dismissed today, because all witnesses have either died or disappeared. Singleton was accused of poisoning his wife. The murder trial was halted when Singleton showed signs of insanity and he was committed to the Agnew State Hospital for the Insane. Dismissal of the murder charge followed his release recently from that institution.

PREPARING FOR RECORD CROWD

Ten Thousand Expected at Ramona Pageant

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

HEMET, May 1.—The people of the twin cities of Hemet and San Jacinto today are busy providing accommodations for the throng of week-end visitors arriving for the last two performances of the picturesque Ramona Pageant, given at 3 o'clock Saturday and Sunday afternoons in a natural amphitheater near the outskirts of Hemet.

All attendance records for the first two days of the outdoor spectacle were broken last Sunday and from present indications 10,000 persons will make the pilgrimage to Hemet this week-end.

Adequate facilities in the way of parking and hotel accommodations were provided through arrangements made by the joint chambers of commerce of the twin cities.

The unique character of the pageant-play, which is staged on a canyon wall with stage properties utterly lacking, draws visitors from all parts of California.

The hearty reception accorded the players in the first performances last Saturday and Sunday spurred the players to greater efforts and those who will witness the spectacle this week will see the most finished presentation of which the players are capable.

Garnet Holme, pageant director of the national parks, who is in charge of the production, has rehearsed the cast of 150 players through the week in preparation for the concluding performances.

The remarkable acoustic properties of the natural amphitheater make a visit to the pageant an unusual experience for those acquainted with the ordinary outdoor spectacle of this character.

FIGHT ON LOCATION OF SCHOOL RENEWED

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

BRAWLEY, May 1.—Residents of Mulberry school district have started to disagree again over the proper location for the proposed new school building. After three unsuccessful bond elections the district last month voted $25,000 in bonds to construct a new building. The defeat of earlier propositions was due to failure to agree on the location to be selected. The bonds were finally approved after question of the location was thought to have been settled at a mass meeting and banquet. It is asserted that now residents of the district who opposed the bond issue because they thought it was too large are circulating petitions requesting the school trustees to call a mass meeting to reconsider the location of the building, and the struggle on this point is expected to be gone through again.

WESTERN AUTO SUPPLY IS HOST

Titian Trio and Ochi Albi Are Program Features

New Juvenile Artist is Given Radioland Name

Judge Thompson Lectures on Benjamin Franklin

BY CLAIRE MELLONINO

Our host last evening was the Western Auto Supply Company, who presented one of the many fine programs which they are offering from KHJ for a year. They maintain 120 stores in the West and feel that nothing better expresses the fine service and success of the Western Auto Supply Company than the beautiful radio programs which they broadcast from our station.

Their representative at KHJ is J. Howard Johnson, and the artists for last evening were the Titian Trio, Edward Novis, baritone; Hatch Graham, banjoist and singer; Raymond McFeeters, pianist; Nicholas Ochi Albi, 'cellist, and Lenore Killian, contralto.

The Titian Trio is composed of Winnifred Schutten, violin; Marion Mathews, 'cello and Mona Content, piano. Each member of the trio is a thorough musician and there seems to be a cordiality existing between them that reflects perfection of ensemble when they play.

NEVER BACKNEYED

Nicholas Ochi Albi is a 'cellist worth watching. Endowed with unusual technical equipment combined with an emotional and finely balanced nature, Mr. Ochi Albi's every number is like an exquisite object d'art! His repertoire is never backneyed and last evening he did several beautiful pieces new to Radioland such as Glasounow's "Chant du Menestrel."

Edward Novis sings as though he thoroughly enjoyed it. His baritone voice is so well placed that there is never a suggestion of strain which is a great essential for the new art of broadcasting. A Schumann Lied and several English ballads delivered with excellent diction were Mr. Novis's contribution to the program. Lenore Killian again lent her warm wistful voice and sweet personality to an evening of broadcasting.

Raymond McFeeters made every artist on the program of the Western Auto Supply Company feel thoroughly at home with the beautiful accompaniments which he provided for their work, and also played as a solo a fascinating Viennese dance by Friedman-Gartner. The idol of the ladies, Hatch Graham, scored his usual triumph.

CALIFORNIANS PLAY

The noon program presented Owen Fallon's Californians, who play at King's Dance Palace, Twenty-eighth and Dayton avenues, Raymond N. Cowley, tenor and Ralph E. Cowley, tenor, in duets. The tenor duets proved to be a most pleasing novelty.

The Pacific States Electric Company matinee, presented the International Hawaiian Trio, Olivette Malthouse, saxophone, and "Shorty" Brandenburg, tenor. This provided our radio family with an hour of diversified entertainment which was greatly enjoyed.

At the children's hour Sir Richard Headrick, the screen juvenile, christened little Catherine Cotter, a pupil of Marshall Stedman, as the "Sweetheart of Radioland," and gave her a bouquet of flowers each symbolic of some lovely quality which she possessed. After several Bible verses Sir Richard asked "Sweetheart" to faithfully promise that she will hear, see and speak no evil during her life.

JUDGE THOMPSON SPEAKS

The other children on the hour were Dorothy Warren, 15, and Winston Greene, 9, pupils of Kathryne Thompson; Eugenia Caldwell, 6-year-old reader, pupil of Lula Wood; Kathleen Stinson, 9-year-old reader; Martha Ann Fleetwood, 4-year-old pianist, pupil of LaVerne Fleetwood; Crystal Keate, 8-year-old reader, and Jane Smith, 7, in piano solos and pianologues. The announcer for the occasion was Cousin Jim Beardsley.

At 7:30, Gladys De Witt gave another talk on "The Romance of the Santa Fe Trail," taking for her subject "Montezuma's Well."

At 7:45, Judge Ira F. Thompson gave the third of his series of sketches on great Americans. Last night he gave a masterly analysis of Benjamin Franklin and his contribution to the glory of our country.

ACCIDENT WITH ACID BURNS WOMAN BADLY

Acid burns which may disfigure her face for life were suffered by Mrs. Jennie Haproff, 29 years of age, yesterday at her home at 194 North Gless street. She was about to open a bottle of nitric acid which she intended to use in cauterizing a gash in the hand of her baby daughter when the cork popped out and the searing fluid spurted into her face. She was treated at the Receiving Hospital.

NOTICIAS MUNDIALES DE ULTIMA HORA

En obsequio a nuestros numerosos amigos de habla española, y para beneficio de los lectores americanos de "The Times" que estudien esa lengua, publicamos diariamente esta columna en castellano, con un extracto de las más importantes noticias de última hora.

Buena parte del futuro progreso de Los Angeles, que es 'la metrópoli de los Estados Unidos que más cercana se halla a territorio latino-americano, habrá de depender de las relaciones que logremos establecer con nuestras hermanas, las repúblicas del sur. Para que lleguen a ser enteramente cordiales, no hay nada tan importante como que nuestros ciudadanos se familiaricen con la lengua castellana. Tan se dan cuenta de este hecho nuestros habitantes que hay al presente más de 25,000 personas que estudian español en Los Angeles. A ellas les conviene leer todos los días esta columna, en la que encontrarán español correcto y enteramente moderno.

NOTAS TELEGRAFICAS

Noticias de Washington

La oficina del censo informa de que aumentó la natalidad nacional en 1924, en tanto que disminuyó la cifra del tanto por ciento de mortalidad.

Fueron citados ante el Instituto Americano de Derecho ciertos defectos en los procedimientos penales, que "contribuyen directamente al aumente de la criminalidad en los Estados Unidos".

El señor Walcott, secretario del Instituto Smithsoniano, ha desmentido que haya sido mutilado el modelo original del avión de Langley, como lo afirma Orville Wright.

Manifestó el Presidente Coolidge a los secretarios de los clubs de automóviles que era un problema muy serio el del tráfico en las grandes ciudades, y que debía plantearse con "la mayor amplitud de miras".

Va a Ser Duro el Año para los Vendedores de Licor

WASHINGTON, Mayo 1. — Los "bootleggers" van a tener ahora mayores dificultades en todo el país para ejercer su profesión, ya funcionarios de la administración han ultimado los necesarios arreglos para que los inspectores de todos los ramos de servicios gubernativos ayuden a los agentes prohibicionistas a poner fin a la venta de licor.

Esos inspectores, que ascienden a unos 25,000, van de hoy en adelante a vigilar a los "bootleggers", no sólo en las fronteras canadiense y mejicana y a lo kargo de las costas del Atlántico y del Pacífico, sino donde quieran que estén radicados. Casi todos los departamentos de la administración tienen inspectores por todo el país; y éstos tendrán ahora el deber de comunicar al más próximo agente prohibicionista cualesquiera informes que les hagan sospechar que tal o cual persona comercia en licores.

Los que viven del tráfico de licores ven venir un verano bastante duro. No sólo tendrán que véraselas con todos los agentes del gobierno, sino que tendrán que cuidarse de muchas organizaciones civiles. Por ejemplo, se ha suplicado a todos los clubs de yates que cooperen con las fuerzas guardacostas y prohibicionistas a echarles el guante a los matuteros. Esto se aplica de un modo especial a la guerra contra los llamados "cordones del ron", que se han establecido frente a las costas de Massachusetts, Nueva York y Nueva Jersey.

A los clubs se les ha notificado que los buques guardacostas mantendrán durante el próximo verano una patrulla, que ejercerá la más estricta vigilancia, y se prevene, por lo tanto, a los miembros de dichos clubs, que tengan cuidado de no acercarse a los derroteros que siguen los contrabandistas de licor. Si algún dueño de yate, que tenga pensado hacer cruceros en las costas atlánticas del norte, no obedeciere a esta recomendación, no debe sorprenderse de que algún barco de la patrulla guardacostas le haga un disparo que le roce la proa de su yate, y mande a su bordo una tripulación de registro.

El Dia del Trabajo Tuvo que Andar a Pie el Embajador Americano

CIUDAD DE MEJICO, Mayo 1.—El Embajador Sheffield camino hoy a pie diez manzanas para ir de su casa a la embajada y viceversa, acompañado de un grupo de corresponsales americanos, entre los que iba el de "The Times" de Los Angeles.

El citado diplomático no quiso aprovechar el pase que recibió ayer, ya tarde, y que debía haber pegado en su automóvil, para que éste pudiese circular por toda la ciudad. Dicho pase procedía de la Confederación Regional Mejicana de Obreros, por el intermedio del ministerio de Relaciones; pero su redacción y su origen dejan ver que no se trata de un salvoconducto extendido por el gobierno mejicano, sino de un pase dado por el cuartel general de las uniones obreras, con las iniciales

NOTAS LOCALES

El Abogado Torchia Litigando de Nuevo

Ayer, en la sala del juez Summerfield, se presentó a litigar el abogado Ernest M. Torchia, que ha estado hondamente preocupado por un misterio que estuvo a punto de costarle la vida.

La mañana de Navidad, Torchia desató los cordones de un paquete que le llevó el correo. Al levantar la tapa de la caja, una bomba le hizo explosión en la cara. Quedó terriblemente mutilado y durante varias semanas estuvo entre la vida y la muerte; pero, tras algunos meses de hospital, ha podido presentarse de nuevo ayer en el juzgado, por primera vez desde que le ocurrió el accidente. Su aspecto es igual al de antes, salvo que lleva vacía la manga derecha.

"No he hallado la solución del misterio", dijo Torchia. "Semanas tras semana, durante el período en que ni veía, ni oía, ni hablaba, me mantenía en hondo y negro silencio sobre mi cama, pensa y piensa y piensa. Pasé toda mi vida en revista, recordando los más nimios pormenores; pero no logré hallar hilo alguno que me diera a sospechar de alguien como posible remitente de la bomba de marras. Valiente regalito de Navidad me envió este tío!"

A más de haber perdido el brazo izquierdo hasta el codo, se le rompió a Torchia el tímpano de un oído, y esto lo ha dejado ligeramente sordo. Estas son las únicas reliquias del accidente.

Ayer estuvo en el juzgado como abogado de Levi F. Schram, y obtuvo para su cliente el divorcio de Lillie Schram.

NEW BOX OFFICE FOR PLAYHOUSE

Macloon Establishes Downtown Branch at Fifth and Broadway

Adopting a suggestion made by Harry Carr, in his column, "The Lancer," Louis O. Macloon has established a downtown box office for the Playhouse at Birkel's Music Store, Fifth and Broadway.

This branch office will be opened for the first time on Monday morning and thereafter seats for all Playhouse attractions, including "The Door Mat," now playing, and Jane Cowl in "Romeo and Juliet," coming May 11, may be bought at box-office prices. No commission will be charged on tickets at any time. This branch box office will be for the convenience of those who have not the time during the lunch hour or after work in the evening to call personally at the Playhouse for seats.

JOSEPH SCHILDKRAUT SIGNS WITH DE MILLE

By Grace Kingsley

Cecil De Mille isn't overlooking a single bet these days when it comes to securing the services of just the players whom he thinks will do the best work in his productions.

He has scored again in his battle against the so-called controlling facts of motion picture production by signing an important stage star, the contract being entered into yesterday.

Joseph Schildkraut, noted Hungarian actor, has signed to play a featured part in De Mille's first personally directed picture under his new independent organization, "The Road to Yesterday." Production of the former stage success will start June 15, Jeanie Macpherson and Beulah Marie Dix collaborating on the adaptation of the original form, which was written by Miss Dix and E. G. Sutherland.

Schildkraut has been playing the lead in "The Firebrand" in New York for the past year with conspicuous success. He will leave for the west in June, when his engagement for the season is completed, but returns in the fall to New York to star in the same play.

In "The Road to Yesterday," Schildkraut appears both in a romantic period of 300 years ago and in the modern episodes. He will have an ample opportunity to display his swordsmanship, which has been a feature of his stage appearances.

Colleen Moore Sails

Colleen Moore and hubby, John McCormick are now on the high seas, having sailed aboard the S. S. Majestic this morning for Europe.

Colleen is leaving a load of pals behind. The First National star will probably spend the first day reading ship telegrams sent her from Hollywood.

This is Colleen's first vacation in three years and she has indeed earned it. Working up to the last moment on "The Desert Flower," the First National star climbed aboard the train a week ago, ready for all the rest she could obtain in the few months she and McCormick will spend in travel.

Ena Gregory Explains

Ena Gregory, in all her blond beauty and looking like a million dollars, arrived in Los Angeles last night from a triumphant tour of personal appearances in the East. Flying in an airplane at express-train speed across Lake Michigan from Detroit to Chicago was one of the methods adopted by one of our leading 1925 Wampas baby stars in her effort to be back in Hollywood with the least possible delay.

With Bryant Washburn, Anna May Wong and Ruth Stonehouse, Miss Gregory went on east from Des Moines to make personal appearances.

"When our company arrived at a city during the first part of our tour, we found that owing to poor management and poor advance work, no one seemed to know anything about our coming," stated Miss Gregory. "After Mr. Washburn took charge of the company and arranged the bookings after leaving Des Moines, our trip was very successful. The theaters were packed at every performance where we appeared. We signed contracts which took us to Toronto, Philadelphia and Washington, the tour terminating in Detroit. When our tour closed in the latter city, we had a number of splendid offers to continue. Our act in which each one of the players was introduced with a song, proved very popular, but when the final performance was given in Detroit, I positively refused to go on with the show as I was homesick for Hollywood. I found I could make time by taking the airplane at Detroit and flying to Chicago, which I did. I stopped only one hour in the Windy City and then was on board the train for Los Angeles."

According to Miss Gregory, Washburn went on to London and wanted to take the show there, but as Ena had several offers waiting for her in Hollywood, she declined to go on any farther, and insisted on coming home.

William De Mille Leaves

William De Mille left yesterday with Mrs. De Mille for New York, where he will supervise the final editing and titling of "Lost—a Wife," which he completed two days ago. It was adapted from Alfred Savoir's stage play, "Banco," and features Adolphe Menjou, Greta Nissen, Edgar Norton and Robert Agnew.

While in New York Mr. De Mille will confer with Clara Beranger, his scenario writer, on his forthcoming Paramount production, "New Brooms," from the New York stage play, on which he will begin actual filming at the Lasky studio in Hollywood, July 13.

Sixty Club Dance

Frank Elliott, president of the Sixty Club, doesn't want anybody to think that that exclusive organization of film joy-seekers is languishing just because the thermometer happens to be going up. In fact, he announced yesterday that the next dance of the Sixty Club will be held at the Biltmore on the evening of the 16th inst.

Universal Columbusing Again

The latest Columbusing stunt of Universal has occurred in the signing up of an 18-year-old unknown extra under a five-year contract. The youth's name is Raymond Kortz, and his entrance into the movie world happened like an extra's dream.

He arrived at Universal City last February quite innocent of film experience, but he succeeded in getting a test, and when Carl Laemmle saw it on his recent trip west, he ordered that the boy be signed up at once.

Novel Dance Scenes Will Show Here

Some of the most novel and beautiful dancing scenes ever filmed will be seen at Loew's State in conjunction with the feature picture of Richard Barthelmess in "New Toys."

The scenes are in the Kinogram News Reel and feature the Ernest Belcher dancers of this city. They were made under the personal direction of Belcher in the Arthur Letts estate in Hollywood.

Belcher's daughter, Lina Basquette, who is prima ballerina of the Ziegfeld Follies, is the featured dancer and it marks her first appearance on the screen since she left Los Angeles several years ago. Plans for a Belcher night at the theater are being arranged, at which time the pupils of the dancing school will attend.

Knickerbocker Syncopators for New Showhouse

Louis Golden, managing-director of the West Coast Boulevard Theater, which is nearing completion, has engaged Rube Wolff and his Knickerbocker Syncopators for the opening of the new showhouse.

Wolff will also be musical director of the new theater. He is a brother of Marco of Fanchon and Marco fame. The Knickerbocker Syncopators were popular ly acclaimed at Loew's State Theater recently.

A galaxy of motion-picture celebrities have already assured the executives of their attendance on the opening night of the new institution, which is set for the 27th inst.

George Irving, who, walked away with individual honors in the James Cruze production, "The Goose Hangs High," has again been secured by Paramount for a principal part in "The Wild Horse Mesa," an adaptation of the Zane Grey novel now being filmed at the Lasky studios.

Max Fisher and Orchestra Sign Forum Contract

The new management of the Forum Theater on West Pico street, announces the signing of long-time contracts for Max Fisher and his famous orchestra to appear exclusively at the big playhouse.

Fisher will open at the Forum on Saturday, the 9th inst. The contract of Harry H. Silverman, who has been conducting the symphony orchestra at the Forum for some time, expires the 15th inst. As a result, the theater will have both orchestras for the week beginning the 9th. After that week Fisher will furnish the entire musical embellishment of the theater exclusively.

Max Fisher and his orchestra have just completed a tour of leading vaudeville houses of the country. He has appeared with great success in all leading cities, both in theaters, hotels and noted dance places. Among his engagements have been at the Ambassador Hotel's Cocoanut Grove in Los Angeles; the Hotel Astor in New York; the Traymore Hotel and Gardens at Atlantic City; the Fairmount Hotel in San Francisco; the Royal Palm Grove in Miami, Fla., and the Drake Hotel in Chicago.

After his engagement at the Forum Theater, Fisher and his orchestra will sail for England to fulfill a contracted engagement at the new Pavilion Theater. Following that he will tour the continent.

In addition to securing the Fisher organization, the Forum has also contracted with Chauncey aHines, Jr., of Detroit, an organ virtuoso, to take charge of the master Kimball at the theater. This is one of the largest and most costly organs in the world.

Robert Fraser has been selected to be co-featured with Lillian Rich in "The Love Gamble," a Waldorf production which is being made at the Principal Pictures studios. "The Love Gamble" is to be the screen version of "Peggy From Beacon Hill." Fraser was recently placed under a long-term contract by First National. His last appearance was with Pola Negri in "The Charmer." Immediately upon completion of the Waldorf production, Fraser will return to First National.

Mme. Rosa Rosanova, famed for her character interpretations on the screen, is touring the Orpheum circuit with Mary Carr in Mary McCarthy's sketch, "The Strength of the Weak." Mme. Rosanova portrays the Jewish friend of Mary Carr, with which part she brought down the house at its presentation at the Writers' Club two weeks ago. On her return from vaudeville in a few weeks, Mme. Rosanova will again appear on the screen in several productions. Her forthcoming release will be in Valentino's "Cobra."

HEINE FELT CHARM OF DON QUIXOTE

Heine, a later magician in laughter and tears, has narrated his own alternating attitudes toward Don Quixote. It was the first book he read after he had really learned to read; and he took the tale, he has told us, with the unshaken faith and seriousness of childhood . . . he wept bitter tears over the ridicule and rebuffs of the noble-hearted knight. He re-read the book every five years or so with ever-varying feelings. As a youth he was, he confesses, bored by it. Later he saw in it only the comic side, and laughed at the follies of the mad knight-errant. Older yet again and wiser he made friends for life with Quixote and Sancho. Afterward he had but to glance over his shoulder to perceive attending him the phantom forms of the thin knight and the fat squire—more particularly, he adds, when he himself hung irresolute at some parting of the ways. What Heine felt by turns, the world has felt by classes.—[New York Times Literary Supplement.

NORTHERN ENSEMBLE PLAYS AT BILTMORE

By Francis Kendig

When the London String Quartet plays I think I like them best of all, and when the San Francisco Chamber Music Society plays I wonder if, after all, it is not they who deserve the superlative. It has been truly said that comparisons are odious, and the wonderful thing about such top-notchers as this northern organization, which was heard at the Biltmore salon yesterday afternoon, is that comparisons are quite unnecessary. They are perfection in their own right.

Outlining the program was first a Beethoven String Quartet, Op. 74, in E Flat Major; a Nocturne and Scherzo for flute and strings, by Arthur Foote, with the Quartet in D Flat Major, Op. 15, by Dohnanyi, closing the afternoon. The personnel consists of Louis Persinger, musical director; Louis Ford, Nathan Firestone, Walter Ferner and Elias Hecht, the founder.

This society is fast becoming one of the world's really best ensembles, and as the seasons pass they are winning for themselves recognition that will no doubt soon become world-wide. First-chair men with the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, with Mr. Persinger as concertmaster, they now leave the orchestra to devote their entire time to chamber-music work.

Every summer they spend the bulk of their time rehearsing, and it certainly shows in their heavenly ensemble. I have scarcely ever heard four men put so much unified expression into string playing, and the same may be said with the addition of the flute. Great artistry lies more in the balance of the pianissimi than in startling bravura. In the quietest passages of the Beethoven and the Adagio of the Dohnanyi their art was of such quality as to almost transport one to another world.

The D Flat Quartet by Dohnanyi is particularly a strong work, and the fact that his music is being found more and more frequently on programs is truly gratifying. He has a style quite his own, and his genius flashes here and there, with moments of a translucent beauty almost entirely lacking in the bulk of the music of present-day composer.

Arthur Foote's Quintet is a nice work, very musical and pleasantly rhythmic. The addition of the pure tones of the flute is always a welcome one and especially when played by so splendid an artist.

The Beethoven quartets have become a real test in nuance and finesse. The San Francisco players put every bit of feeling and beauty in them that one could wish for. The program was indeed a remarkable one throughout, and the nicest thing about it was the lovely, lovely tone of their ensemble.

Studio and Stage

Director Phil Rosen has completed the filming of his second Sawyer-Lubin production for First National release. Upon the completion of the cutting of "The White Monkey," which has been adapted from the John Galsworthy novel as a starring vehicle for Barbara LaMarr, the director will take a brief vacation before commencing his next picture.

DeWitt Jennings, who brings to the screen a background of twenty years of legitimate stage experience, has been cast as the police inspector in Director Tod Browning's new crook play, "The Mystic," now being made by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer with Aileen Pringle and Conway Tearle in the leading roles.

Jacqueline Logan, who is a graduate of a school of journalism and served as a reporter on a Denver daily, has received an offer from a syndicate to write a series of articles on Hollywood, its stars and the motion-picture business.

Murray Productions have leased space in the old D. W. Griffith studio, now known as the Fine Arts Studios, in Hollywood, and will begin the immediate production of a series of two-reel comedies featuring Monte Weeks. Announcement of cast and personnel will be made in a few days.

Miss Dorothy Hope, recently one of the highlights of the English stage, is making preparations for work on her first production under her new starring contract. Raymond H. Gardner has selected H. H. Van Loan to prepare six feature stories suitable to Miss Hope's artistry. "The Lady In Question" is the title of the story, which will introduce Miss Hope on the silver sheet.

Larry Wheeler has started production on an untitled feature with Eva Novak, Robert Ellis, Josef Swickard and Francis McDonald. De La Motte is directing from a script by Camille Fox. The story has a Northwestern locale and is being made at the Vitagraph studios for an independent market.

Jack Holt was allotted just enough time to change his clothes before starting his next Paramount production. Holt finished work in the leading role of "Light of the Western Stars," a Zane Grey story, one Monday afternoon. The next morning he appeared at the studio in a new garb and plunged into the making of scenes for "Wild Horse Mesa," another Zane Grey story. The company will leave shortly for Arizona where exterior scenes will be filmed for the production.

B. P. Fineman, general manager of the FBO studios, has, in effect, hung out a sign at the studio entrance: "No Newcomers Need Apply."

Mr. Fineman has decided on the definite policy of giving all available work to well-established players in minor and extra roles, as well as in the more important ones. Only those who are putting in their whole time before the camera and are dependent on screen work for a living will be given employment hereafter.

It is estimated that there are 1,695,841 incandescent lamps on New York's "Great White Way," with the number increasing rapidly, and that more than 2000 workmen are kept busy changing and repairing the displays.

FISHING TRADE BRISK AT PORT

Heaviest Run in Months is Under Way

Tuna Outfits Getting Ready for Season

First of Furness Ships Due on Monday

The biggest run of fresh salt-water fish in months is under way at Los Angeles Harbor, according to Gilbert C. Van Camp, head of an association of fishermen operating a hundred boats in the fresh fish trade.

Approximately fifty tons of fish are being wholesaled daily, 75 per cent of which is consumed in southern California, while carloads are being shipped half way across the continent by new packing methods whereby only the fillets are utilized.

The spring run is expected to continue at intervals for four or five weeks, according to Mr. Van Camp. As a result of heavy catches, particularly of barracuda, the fish are being wholesaled at 4 to 5 cents a pound, and should reach the consumers' tables at an extremely cheap figure, he said.

Tuna fishermen are getting their nets and hundreds of boats ready for the advent of the first blue fins of the season, expected to reach local waters from the South during the present month. Several score of boats have been recording fine catches the past month off Cape San Lucas, 340 miles south of here, and the blue fins are reported gradually working north. Fifteen to sixteen big tenders bearing the catches of the smaller boats, have arrived recently from the southern fields, and all report big runs. Most of the blue fins are going to the Italian Food Products Company and the Halfhill Company at Long Beach.

June is expected to see the arrival of some albicore, the choice white meat fish, and from then on during the summer more than 1000 local purse seiners will be busy with the sea harvest, and thousands will gain employment at the canneries.

FIRST OF FURNESS CARRIERS DUE MONDAY

The Bolton steamer London Merchant is scheduled to arrive Monday as the first vessel of a line of ship, freight and passenger carriers to be placed in service bi-monthly basis between Europe and Los Angeles by the Furness Line.

The arrival also will mark the advent of the first consignment of bananas, 17,000 bunches, to be brought to this port in many months. The cargo is said to be the forerunner of a regular steam trade between vessels to this port, ever-ing 25,000 bunches. The cargo is valued at $17,000 is a fortnight line of 13,000 bunches aboard according to C. F. Tate, manager of the Associated Growers Company, seventh specialized local agency to be established here.

Passengers for San Francisco, Pacific Coast manager of the lines, and Gerald W. Fitzgerald, head of the Terminals Company, will greet the initial boat when she docks at berth 60 Monday.

Addition of two freighters in the intercoastal fleet, giving the Isthmian Line upward of a dozen of vessels in such service, is announced by Nelson, Lilly & Co., agents for the line. This will permit an increase of service in the Outer Harbor southbound, effective with the sailing of the Pilsbury Hall on the 15th inst. However an additional freighter will sail each Saturday from San Pedro, giving this sailing monthly first class service to and Baltimore for the Orient. There will also be 10 sailings from Portland, Ore., every other Saturday. Two vessels leaving Baltimore and New York monthly will call at Los Angeles, Seattle and Tacoma, and two will call at San Diego, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle, Everett, Bellingham and Vancouver, B. C., and one Portland, Me., steamer will make the same ports. One of the monthly ships from New York will sail for Hawaiian Islands from Los Angeles. Changes also are announced in sailings of the Argonaut Line, for which Norton, Lilly & Co. are agents, whereby there will be two sailings monthly from Baltimore and New York for North Pacific ports, beginning with the steamer Lansdowne from Baltimore on the 23rd inst.

The elimination of free-ports fertilities at Guaymas and Salina Cruz, recently announced, will have no effect on California-Mexico trade, according to P. Floyd Soto, dock superintendent for the Southern Pacific Company, agents for the Mexican Gulf Line. The free ports were established by Mexico about a year ago as an experiment, but it said to have failed to accomplish as much as hoped. Backing up his statement, Soto reports the probable addition of two more refineries and freight carriers to the run, the steamers Mexico and the Coahuila, which have been operated on the east coast of Mexico for more than a year. By the fare of Mexico's shortest of free ports, owner the report that Russia is planning to create in Vladivostok a free zone, hoping to attract trans-Pacific freight.

The new British motorship Birchbank, of 5162 tons net, is due here Monday from New York, to go into the intercoastal fleet of the Canadian Pacific Steamship Company. The vessel will operate in a new freight line between the Atlantic Coast and the Orient, by way of the Panama Canal. J. H. Marshall, formerly assistant agent of the line here, is appointed a fair amount of local cargo awaits the vessel on the new service. Fuel oil also will be taken on here.

Capt. Thomas Dowdell, master of the Pacific liner for almost countless years and recently retired to make his home in San Francisco, was in Los Angeles Harbor Thursday as the Admiral Rodman, which he commanded, and role the bridge with for many first time since his retirement, docked here. He is now in charge of the vessel in her run between California ports and Honolulu, the Islands, Australia, and return. Other ships as the Alameda, Shinkoku and Manoa.

With 120 passengers, including many travelers to here from to Hawaii viewing the United States Navy maneuvers, the steamship Calawali put ashore at Pier 2 Thursday morning on dock time, 10 o'clock this morning, according to radio messages received from Capt. A. S. Bawyer by officials of the Los Angeles Steamship Company.

The vessel is carrying a substantial cargo of general merchandise, bananas and fresh and canned fruits and vegetables. The fresh fruit cargo, which can be landed in this harbor in the best condition, is arriving promptly among the consignees of the commodity, according to officials of the steamship company, and, according to the same officials, dealers look forward to the development of a profitable trade in banana this delectable fruit.

LOCAL LAUGHS

Each week The Times produces a film entitled "Local Laughs," consisting of the fifteen best jokes submitted by local people. Weekly prizes are paid of $3, $2, $1, and twelve of $1 each. A list of theaters showing the film, together with rules for submitting jokes, are given daily in a coupon in The Times. Prize-winning jokes, and names and addresses of winners, appear only on the screen. Jokes receiving honorable mention will be given a place of honor on The Times comic page each week-day, and each of these contributors will receive a souvenir of

"What a darling baby, what is he saying?"

Patty Ann Cassell, 410 North Jackson, Glendale.

"Captain, what'll I do if I get seasick?"

A new outdoor fight arena to seat 25,000 persons, which will be started next week and finished in three weeks, with Tommy George Godfrey, the Black Shadow of Leiperville, and Bartley Madden, the Irish heavyweight champion, featuring the first bill, was the bombshell Jack Doyle dropped into athletic circles yesterday.

While he would not divulge the exact location of his new open-air bloody-nose emporium, Doyle said he had options on several pieces of ground in Vernon which would be suitable for the pine saucer. The decision will be made this afternoon, after he has gone over the plans which have been drawn up by E. H. Merrill, and an agreement reached with the contractors on the acreage needed.

Costing in the neighborhood of $100,000, the new arena, which will be hexagonal in shape, will rise 160 feet from the floor to the top layer of seats, affording every spectator in the place a clear and unadulterated view of the festivities.

GODFREY FEARED

In selecting Godfrey and Madden to open the arena, Doyle said he was actuated by a desire to card a heavyweight show that would stand with the East's best, now that Dempsey is out of the picture.

"For the past two years Godfrey has been one of the most feared heavyweights in the ring, not even excepting Wills, the 'Black Panther,' consenting to meet his colored brother in the padded ring. In Los Angeles he has met and defeated all opponents, demonstrating his ability by knocking out both before the sixth round opened.

"Madden the Black Shadow will be tackling a man who is said to bear the distinction of having never been knocked off his pins. Even Wills was unable to do this, and he tried desperately for ten rounds.

"But perhaps the best indication of Madden's toughness is the fact that Jack Kearns turned down $1,000 for Dempsey to meet the Irishman.

"The exact date of the Godfrey-Madden go has not been decided upon by Doyle. This depends upon the speed with which the contractors throw up the arena, but

RABBIT PUNCHES

By Paul Lowry

DICK DONALD'S June 6 show at Ascot has all the earmarks of the greatest lightweight festival since the memorable days when brown Joe Rivers, Ad Wolgast and Willie Ritchie were basking in the limelight of California admiration.

Today, as was the case over a decade ago, California has been chosen as the battleground for the lightweight crown war. Sammy Mandell is recognized in the East as the peer of the 135-pounders. Ace Hudkins is the Pacific Coast champion. Their respective opponents, Phil Salvadore and Tommy O'Brien, need no introduction to fight fans.

The winners who on form are Mandell and Hudkins will meet in a terrific battle the Fourth of July for the titular belt. Dick Donald, little in stature but big in foresight, has picked one of the best plums on the pugilistic tree.

Jimmy Dougherty's big black boy, George Godfrey, breezed into the Newsboys' Club from Elsinore Hot Springs yesterday and had a workout under the cagle eye of Mike Gregtis, the demon trainer of champions.

Dougherty sent Godfrey to the springs after his fracas with Sam Baker at Vernon to put some weight on him. This may sound like a joke to those who saw George maul the life out of the giant Baker, but like most of the eastern fighters who came out here this year Godfrey lost weight when he first lit in town.

He went down to 218 pounds, which is about ten pounds below his customary fighting avoirdupois. But he's back to normal after a siege of swimming, boating and road work at the springs, and appeared quite tickled when Gregtis told him that he was to meet Bartley Madden in Doyle's new arena.

"Dat's fine," said George. "I've got my liver punch working great now. I'll jes ruin dat Madden puhson."

LOU DARO TO STAGE BIG SHOW

May 20 Date of All-Star Wrestling Matches at Infantry Armory

Daro is opening the grappler season with Joe Stecher, former heavyweight champion of the world, pitted against Milo Steinborn, the Greek-Roman heavy star of Germany.

Steinborn has been in America six months and has been throwing the boys around on the floor in the East.

"Carnation" Lou is backing this attraction up with another equally as good. Renato Gardini, Italian champion and holder of the gold belt, presented to him by the King of Italy, clashes with George Walker, the Brooklyn strong boy.

The appetizer on the card will be served up by Joe Bonomo, Pacific Coast champion, and Leo Papiano, Greek light-heavyweight.

Bonomo has been exhibiting his muscles before the Universal studio screen recently.

"Carnation" Lou is all excited over business matters now. He has so much on his mind that he occasionally forgets to stop at a flower shop for his daily fresh cut posie.

Saints Defeat Trojan Squad in Second Game

With Farrell pitching air-tight baseball, St. Mary's College nine defeated the University of Southern California, 9 to 3, at Pirrone Park yesterday. Farrell had the locals in hot water all the time, and his mates gave him good support in the field and at bat.

Coach "Slip" Madigan's nine left here last night following a successful season in the South, in which they defeated U. S. C. twice and the local University of California once. As a result of these three games, the Saints lay claim to the Intercollegiate baseball title of California.

RIVERS WINS OVER BROWN

Georgie Easily Whips Newsboy in Hollywood Main Go; Galfund Stops Maurice

Georgie Rivers, 118-pound Mexican flash lead Newsboy Brown through ten rounds of fast fighting to win the decision in the main event at the Hollywood American Legion last night. Pancho Villa's horseless rival was in front in six and the other two were even.

Setting sail from the start, the miniature Mexican opened up a left and right attack to the head that kept Brown hopping all over the ring. In the fourth round, a right cross to the head floored the newsboy's pride, but Brown bobbed up before the referee could start counting.

Brown fought hard and mixed it with Rivers on every occasion, but the brown battler threw gloves from all over the ring and had Brown backing away in several rounds. Rivers again demonstrated his popularity as a real fighter and will remain a main-event favorite with every fight crowd.

Harry Galfund had to fight in the semi-wind-up last night and after rocking Alex Maurice for five rounds, won a technical knock-out from the punch-drunk war horse when the fight was stopped. Galfund carries a flock of socks in both mitts and was right last night—battering Maurice through all five rounds.

Cowboy Ed Warner, newest light-heavyweight to seek laurels here rode roughshod to a decision over Cliff Ramies in their six-round go. The Oklahoma cowboy had all the class from the start and threw a lot of solid leather that landed all over Ramies.

VENICE MERMEN WIN SIXTH CHAMPIONSHIP

Venice High School's swimming team won its sixth Bay League championship, scoring 58 points, at the Venice Plunge yesterday. The Gondoliers won four first places and were eighteen points ahead of Huntington Park, their nearest rivals. Soloman of Venice was the big hero of the meet, winning the fifty and 100-yard dashes. Inglewood was third with 13 points, Redondo fourth with 6, and Santa Monica fifth with 2.

Prof. A. M. Low says England soon will be drawing cheap electrical power from countries with abundant water power and will radiocast it to every home in the country.

REFEREE ERTLE BEGINS STORY TOMORROW OF INSIDE DOPE OF WORLD'S GREATEST RING BOUTS

"My Sixteen Years as a Referee," Harry Ertle, famous third man in the ring, tells his story beginning tomorrow exclusively in The Times.

Not a move of the fighters escapes him. He observes the effect of each blow. He follows closely the strategy of the boxers as it is unfolded.

Harry Ertle exposes the plates of the big fights of the last sixteen years exclusively to the readers of The Times.

Many of these plates will startle even those fans who witnessed the battles depicted.

These are only a few of the "behind the scenes" happenings of the ring that Referee Ertle tells about in his series of articles that will appear exclusively in The Times, beginning tomorrow.

TANK 'WIZ' APPEARS IN CROWN CITY

Johnny Weissmuller to Swim at Pasadena Plunge This Afternoon

The peerless swimmer, Johnny Weissmuller, makes his third appearance in Southern California during the past few days when he shows today at Pasadena in the Brookside Park plunge, swimming in a fifty-yard dash against Sam Kahanamoku and Reggie Harrison.

The fad at track meets and swim events recently has been to show as many champions as are within traveling distance. To keep up the competition the Pasadena officials have procured several national and Olympic champs for their meet.

Heading the list is Betty Becker Pinkston, champion on the ten-foot springboard at the last Olympics. She will perform on the ten-foot board today in her first appearance since she came to the Pacific Coast. Clarence Pinkston will also appear in a diving exhibition. He is national diving champ and a former Olympic champion.

Weissmuller is also to try for a record in the fifty and 100-yard dashes in the fifty-yard straightaway pool. A high-diving exhibition and a relay complete the list of performances in the special events.

Flintridge Golf Team Victorious Over Hillcrest

Flintridge at home defeated Hillcrest in a postponed game in the women's interclub golf league, 6 to 3 yesterday. Through winning, Flintridge hurdled San Gabriel and now rests in fourth place, but 1 1-2 points behind Hollywood's fairest.

Mrs. Harry Grossman and Mrs. C. Rosenthall won 3 points from Mrs. F. S. Hardin and Mrs. Bernice Moeller, but Mrs. H. Robbins and Mrs. W. S. Witmer evened the count by winning three ways from Mrs. H. Politz and Miss Marion Adler. In the third match, Mrs. A. Maine and Miss Julia Lockwood tripped Mrs. Sidney Grossman and Mrs. A. Saenger for 3 points.

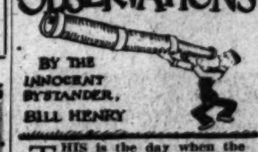
OBSERVATIONS



By the Innocent Bystander, Bill Henry

THIS is the day when the track athlete of prepdom prepares to bust an intestine for the honor of the old school out at the Coliseum. It is the day when Southern California interscholastic track and field championships are decided and the youngster who first breaks the tape in any event may properly be called the best high-school boy in his particular event in the Southwest.

It does seem funny that year after year the star athletes, who have busted all the records of the previous year, graduate and we look for a rather slim showing, and yet up comes a whole flock of new youngsters to at least threaten, if they do not break, the time marks which had been set by those who graduated.

Last year, when all those wonder athletes of prepdom finished their schooling—Klein and Woodyard, sprinters; Nash, Hanson, Requa, Barnes, Coggeshall and all the rest—it certainly looked as though the limit had been reached for a few seasons, at least, and that there was very little possibility of approaching the marks that they set in their final year of high-school competition.

Yet here we have a possibility of breaking a half a dozen or so of these marks, some of them made by the near-world champs of last season. Floyd of Lincoln should equal the sprint records. Hanford may break the quarter. Gloege, Unruh, Carnahan and several others will come mighty close to the records in the distances, and the field events are not safe, either.

Incidentally, it looks a good deal as though the city boys are gradually falling behind and the corn-fed lads from the country are making more and more of an impression. Floyd of Lincoln seems to be the only city youth likely to win points near the head of the list in the sprints, unless Hanford does it in the century. Boys from Compton, Citrus Union and Riverside are very much there.

In the longer races we have Ferguson of Inglewood, a real dark horse, and only in the tenth grade; Carnahan of Riverside, Gloege of Covina, Unruh of El Monte, and others. The out-of-town division seems to be supplying an unusual amount of competition this year, and that is a good sign, indeed.

ANGEL HURLER BEATS SOLONS

Canfield Twirls Fine Ball for Sacs But Loses

Krugmen Tie Up Contest in Ninth, Win in Tenth

Shea's Homer Puts Senators Out Ahead in Eighth

BY ROBERT E. RAY

According to baseball's Hoyle, pitchers are not supposed to hit. Charley Root, Angel flipper, is the exception that proves the rule. Charley took up the Angel pitching burden in the ninth inning of yesterday's game with Sacramento after Bill Whaley had batted for Whitey Glazner, and then in the last of the tenth he ended the contest and spoiled Carroll Canfield's afternoon by plastering a home run over the highest part of the left-field wall.

Merwin Shea, brilliant young Solon catcher, had put the visitors ahead in the first of the eighth when he rode one of Glazner's offerings over the convenient left field wall for a home run, but the Angels knotted the count in the ninth by bunching three hits, two of the infield variety. Then, as said before, Root pulled his Frank Merriwell circuit swat to make it a grand and glorious finish for all these present except those financially interested in Lew Moreing's Sacramento ballgamers.

Whitey Glazner, who started on the mound for the locals, once more twirled good ball, but as usual he had tough luck. Glazner pitched in fine form yesterday and also distinguished himself by his clever ability of picking Solon runners off first base. The fates are against Whitey, though, it seems but he can't keep having tough luck. It's bound to end sometime.

The Seraphs now have a three-to-one margin on the series.

ROOT'S FIFTH WIN

It might also be mentioned that yesterday's win was Root's fifth of the season.

Getting back to the contest, though, the Angels got off in front with their customary two runs, but then lapsed into a batting coma until the ninth, when they managed to overcome Sacramento's one-run lead. Skipper Krug again started the first-inning rally as he did Thursday, poking a double to left center after Twombly had grounded out. Hiran popped to Siglin, but Bummer Grimes laced a single to center that scored Marty. Wally Hood drove Grimes home with a two-base hit down the left-field foul line. Jacobs fanned to end the inning.

After the first, Canfield twirled

Annual Southern California Interscholastic Meet Today

FIVE TEAMS IN LINE FOR HONOR

Brilliant Track Affair on at Coliseum

Hollywood and San Diego Are Favored

Riverside, Lincoln, Manual Also in Running

With any one of five strong teams given a good chance of winning major honors, the annual Southern California high school track meet will be staged at the Coliseum this afternoon. The first event starts at 2:30 o'clock, and from all advance indications the competition from then on should be exceedingly keen. Hollywood, Manual Arts, Lincoln, San Diego and Riverside are the teams definitely in the running, with odds slightly in favor of the first and next to last squads named.

Patten, star Riverside High field man, was told yesterday that he would not be allowed to compete in the three events in which he qualified last Saturday—namely, the shot put, discus and broad jump. There is a C.I.F. ruling that allows a man to compete in two field and one track or two track and one field event, but a man is not permitted to enter three track or three field events.

TERRIFIC BLOW

This hits Riverside a terrific blow, as Patten had been counted on for points in all three events. As he is favored to win the shot and place second or third in the discus, he will probably stay out of the broad jump.

Hollywood High's fate in the meet depends on the ability of Eade and Meeks to come through in the hurdles. Thus it is seen that Norris of Santa Maria may be the difference between defeat and victory for Hollywood. Norris is a big favorite to win the low hurdles. Yet he is entered in the 220-yard dash, which immediately precedes the low hurdles.

It is believed that if Norris runs the dash he will be too tired to win the low hurdles, in which case Eade and Meeks might finish one, two in that event. Such an upset as this would give Hollywood the meet in case Eade came through in the high jump and a few other Foothiller athletes delivered points in other events.

Walker of Hemet is favored to win the high hurdles but Eade and Meeks are not far behind and stand a good chance of scoring heavily. Hitchie of San Diego will bear watching in this event.

IS WELL BALANCED

San Diego is banking on a well-balanced team that is particularly strong in the field. Moeller in the discus looks like a winner and this lad is expected to aid Ramser in scoring heavily in the high jump. Hubbard, who has cleared 11 feet 6 inches, is a leading contender in the pole vault. He has Williams and Jensen of Inglewood to beat.

The strong San Diego relay team and McCormick in the mile and Peterson in the 880 are expected to boost the San Diego total to the point of being dangerous.

Manual Arts is banking on Junior Hanford to win the 440 and to place high in the 100-yard dash. Maurer has a chance in the 100, and Boye, Dixon and Harris look good for points in the pole vault. Difficilli in the broad jump, Tintinger in the high jump and Ennisman in the shot put are expected to bring up the Manual total so that Sid Foster's relay team will find itself within striking distance of a team championship.

This relay, with Hollywood, San Diego and Inglewood pushing Manual Arts to the limit, looks like the day's best seller. Each team is running under last year's record of 1:32, and Hollywood now holds the world's record at 1:31.

Lincoln has a chance to win the meet if Floyd can win both sprints and if Rhewald can cop the broad jump. Cummins is a strong half-miler and Searey and Marvin may come up high in the mile. Newton and Woods loom up strong in the high hurdles.

GLENDALE TRAMPLES ON SOUTH PASADENA

Outhitting their rivals and playing around them in all departments of the game, the Glendale High School baseball team defeated South Pasadena High 13 to 5 at South Pasadena yesterday. The losers held the lead for a while due to numerous Dynamiter errors, but finally slipped behind and failed to get ahead again. Ardoin starred for the winners with two doubles and a single in six times at bat. The score:

South Pasadena	5	6	6

ALHAMBRA NINE IN WIN OVER MONROVIA

After leading the way for seven innings, the Monrovia High School baseball team succumbed to the heavy hitting of Alhambra's batters and lost to the Moors by a 5-to-4 score at Alhambra yesterday. Both teams played tight ball and the pitchers held the hitting down. Koester and Shields starred with the stick for Alhambra. The score:

	R.	H.	E.
Monrovia	4	7	5

Batteries—Mills and Blonde; Bisgard, Barber and Holland.

OXY FROSH WINNERS

The Oxy Babes yesterday afternoon defeated the Huntington Beach High School nine, 6 to 1, at the latter's diamond, making the second win for the Peagreeners this week. The frosh made one in the first, two in the third and three in the fifth. The losers made their score in the sixth.

Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Occidental	6	6	3
Huntington Beach	1	4	4

THIS IS THE LIMIT

ANGLERS CATCH LIMITS

Tom Sabin Brings in First Limit of Trout; Other Angelenos Enjoy Good Luck on Opening Day

The trout and bass seasons opened yesterday morning at 4:04 o'clock and shortly after daybreak, the first limit of speckled beauties was on its way to Los Angeles.

Tom Sabin of Hollywood caught the initial limit of the season, using bait and landed them at Arrowhead Lake. The fish were brought to town in an automobile driven by C. T. McConnor and taken to the B. H. Dyas Company in time for the store's opening.

One of the first limits of trout fishing season at Lake Arrowhead was brought into the boathouse at Arrowhead village at three minutes before 6 o'clock Friday morning by Dave Davis of 1301 West Ninety-fifth street, Los Angeles. Davis's limit consisted of twelve fish, all caught on a spinner, from a rowboat, in about one hour's fishing.

MADDEN AND GODFREY MEET

the Vernon impresario indicated it would be the latter week in May or the first week in June.

Both Doyle and "Wad" Wadhams, the demon matchmaker, were tickled pink yesterday with their success in lining up Bud Taylor of Terre Haute, Ind., to meet Jimmy McLarnin at Vernon in June.

Taylor fought one of the most sensational four-round fights in the history of the Vernon ring last September, when for two rounds he successfully warded off the attack of Georgie Rivers with one hand. He dislocated his shoulder in this fight by making a wild right-hand swing over Rivera's head, and had to travel the last two sessions with his right arm useless.

His display of grit and determination won him a host of friends, and there will be a lot of folks pulling for him when he enters the ring against Jimmy. He has a lightning left hand, and the fight ought to be a pip.

The weight will be 123 pounds at 3 o'clock, which means that McLarnin will have to scale off about three pounds.

Alex Maurice and Sheridan Mix Tonight

If Phil Sheridan, the "Knockout Kid," stays the full ten rounds with Alex Maurice tonight at the Lyceum in the main event, he will surprise a number of local boxing experts. It is admitted on all sides that Maurice is by far the toughest lad that Sheridan has met. Alex, being an aggressive southpaw, is difficult to solve. He is always boring in and is a glutton for punishment.

The Don Levy-Charley Green six rounds semi-wind-up promises plenty of rough action. Levy knocked out Young Combe at San Fernando a short time ago, and is a slugging fool. Connie Bell, a very promising middleweight, takes on Eddie Hubick in the four round special. The rest of the card is as follows: Bud Davis vs. Joe Gonzales, four rounds, and Petro Pablo vs. Kid Ray, four rounds.

Announcement is made by the Los Angeles Gun Club that a registered shoot is to be held at Rose Field, Arcadia, tomorrow. The shoot is open to the public.

OBSERVATIONS BY BILL HENRY

of the University of California things ought to be very interesting. Just at present the only thing that is holding the Grizzlies back is a lack of consciousness of their own strength. They need some big game, apparently, upon which to fasten their attention and then they'll suddenly realize their possibilities. Doc Wilce is a very good coach, and while he's inclined to take himself a little seriously, seems to get along well quite aside from his coaching ability.

PONDER HALTS SEALS

PONDER HALTS SEALS'

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—The Salt Lake Bees ended San Francisco's winning streak of fourteen games today, by beating the locals 6 to 5. Ponder allowed the Seals ten hits, but kept them scattered, while three hurlers were used by the locals. Sheehan's home-run wallop in the eighth inning decided the issue for Salt Lake. Brower knocked a homer earlier in the game. The score:

NURMI SHOWS IN NORTH

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—Five champions will do their stuff here tomorrow and Sunday at the Pacific Association track and field meet in the Municipal Stadium. They are Paavo Nurmi and Willie Ritola, the great Finnish distance runners; Lloyd Hahn, the miler; Willie Plant, the walker, and Jonni Myyra, the javelin thrower.

The famous athletes will appear in special events both days. There will be much interest in a two-mile race between Nurmi and Ritola Sunday.

The regular entries in the meet will include some noted collegiate and club performers. The University of California, Stanford University and the Olympic Club have entered their stars. Among them will be Glenn Hartranft, Stanford intercollegiate record-holder in the shotput; R. Cochrane, Olympic Club, quarter-miler in the Olympic Games, and Hugo Leistner, Stanford, winner of hurdle races in national collegiate meets.

PHILLIES ON TOP

PHILADELPHIA, May 1. — A home run by Fonseca with two on in the sixth gave the Phillies a 4-to-4 victory in their game with the Boston Braves today. Mokan and Hawks also hit home runs off Cooney in the first inning. A triple play by the Phillies spoiled the visitors' apparent chance to score a flock of runs. With the bases full in the sixth, O'Neal flied to Schultz, whose throw nipped Welsh at the plate and Padgett was out at second. Henline to Fonseca. Score:

Poly Nine in Victory Over Foothillers

Hollywood High's baseball men looked like a team when they were at bat against Polytechnic yesterday, but the only thing to distinguish them from the other spectators when they were in the field was their uniforms. Poly opened its City League baseball season with a 13-to-5 win over Hollywood yesterday, but it was a bloodless victory, the Foothillers simply donating the game to them. Hollywood outhit the Mechanics, but their defense was as full of holes as the well-known chicken wire.

The Red and White team started off with five runs in four innings. Poly took the lead, 7 to 5, at the end of the fifth and scored six runs on two hits and twelve or thirteen errors in the eighth. King, diminutive Mechanic hurler, was the big hero of yesterday's game. He whiffed eleven Sheiks and played good defensive ball all the time. King saved the day for Poly in the sixth, when Hollywood filled the bases, with two down, by twirling three strikes one right after the other. Newman and Watanab starred for Poly. The score:

GILMORE OIL ISSUES REPORT

First Quarter Sales Show Improvement.

Statement Discloses Gain in Property Value

Dividends Are Suspended to Save Resources

Net income of the Gilmore Oil Company for the year ended December 31, 1924, totaled $172,-185.86 after charges including depreciation, according to the annual report released yesterday. This amount is equivalent to $1.18 on the 145,859 shares outstanding of $25 par value.

The company paid dividends in 1924 aggregating 6 per cent on the capital stock, and an additional 2 per cent payment was authorized for distribution on January 15, 1925. The additional payment was declared from the profits of 1924 operations, making a total of 8 per cent for the year. Late in 1924 the company discontinued dividends in an attempt to conserve resources until conditions in the petroleum industry improved.

Sales for the first quarter of 1925 were $1,265,000, or an increase of $112,000 over the same period of 1924. Total sales in 1924 were in excess of $5,000,000.

At the close of last year, the balance sheet shows that the property assets of the Gilmore company increased $1,187,473.83. Current working capital expanded $88,240.32, and total current assets are shown to amount to approximately one and one-half times current liabilities. The book value of the stock is placed at more than $8 a share.

Inventories of oil and oil products are reported at $179,854.28, an decrease of $60,643.55 over 1923.

After the payments of dividends, a deficit in the profit-and-loss account of $38,142.95 is shown. In 1923 the company reported profit and loss of $3246.19.

Officers of the company state that drilling operations are proceeding satisfactorily. A new well in a proven area in the Midway field will be completed soon, and operations in Colorado will be resumed as soon as weather permits. The company places a high value on its Colorado holdings, and reports that other producers have acquired adjoining property as a result of the Gilmore activity.

It is officially announced by Gilmore executives that there is no condition in the recent report that the company is considering a combination with General Petroleum.

Cattle Buying Aided

Stabilization and expansion of the dairy farm business of California is seen in the launching today of a comprehensive plan for the financing of cattle purchases, according to announcement made by the Seaboard Acceptance Corporation.

This company, supported by a group of Los Angeles business men, will provide capital for the purchase of dairy herds and payment is to be made by farmers on the time plan, the cattle serving as security.

It is estimated that there is need for 25,000 additional dairy cattle in Southern California as the heaviest increase in population in this district is creating a greater demand for dairy products. George E. Kennedy, who was manager of a similar company in Imperial Valley, is president and general manager of the Seaboard Acceptance Corporation.

Loew's Makes Statement

The net profit transferred to surplus of Loew's, Incorporated, and subsidiary corporations, for the six months period ending March 3 last, amounted to $2,945,-316.67, according to the semiannual statement.

The gross income for the half year amounted to $20,177,121.14, while the gross operating expense amounted to $14,780,157.18, before depreciation and Federal taxes were charged.

General Motors Pays

The board of directors of the General Motors Corporation at the last meeting, declared the second quarterly dividend of $1.50 a share on the new common stock, payable June 12, 1925, to stock of record May 15.

BAD CHECKS

Numerous reports are in the hands of officers of the police forgery detail regarding the activities of a man about 25 or 30 years of age who is issuing worthless checks to persons having furniture or merchandise for sale. He signs the name of Harry Moore, James Fischer and Ralph Silverman, and in most cases answers advertisements in local papers inserted by persons with articles of furniture for sale.

Following is a description of the man: Jewish, weight 145 pounds, stocky build, smooth-shaven, height about 5 feet 5 inches, dark complexion, skin ruddy. When last seen wore a gray-blue suit and gray hat. Is said to be driving a Ford roadster and is accompanied by another man, of whom no definite description has been given.

TRADE SIGNS FAVORABLE

First Four Months Record Healthy Progress in Most Lines; Banks Show Gains

BY EARLE E. CROWE

From the stories told by the records of the first four months of the year it is evident that spring business activity has continued on a satisfactory level and the basis laid for equally favorable progress in the summer months. Soft spots are noted here and there, but on the whole, the outlook is distinctly cheerful in nearly all lines of endeavor.

After the overenthusiastic predictions around the first of the year savoring of hopes for a speculative boom, it was nothing more than natural that business sentiment underwent a decided reaction in the following weeks. Nothing even resembling a business boom has appeared on the horizon. As it gradually became evident throughout the country that these hopes were illusory, the resultant disappointment retarded purchasing activity in many sections, but in Los Angeles this feeling has passed. Later developments clearly have indicated that only sound, normal business can be expected.

OUTLOOK BULLISH

All of the dependable indices of business activity point in this direction. Of the existence of an ample supply of working capital and investment funds there is little doubt. Business cannot make headway without the weather vane of financial conditions turned the right way. And there are ample reasons for the "fair weather" sign. Bank clearings for example, in the first four months of the year recorded a slight gain over the corresponding period of 1924.

Ordinarily, April clearings reflect a seasonal decline in purchasing activity, but this year the total overcame the deficiency for the first three months of the year and accomplished a gain over the four months of the preceding year. April clearings alone increased 8 per cent over the same month of 1924.

On the authority of a leading banker it is estimated that for the first time bank deposits attained the $1,000,000,000 mark in April. The bank calls on April 6 revealed deposits in State and national banks of $961,875,541. Since that time it is believed that the natural increase has placed total deposits close to, if not, above the billion-dollar point.

BONDS SELL QUICKLY

With a plentiful supply of money available at moderate rates, the speculative and investment markets exhibited ready absorptive ability in April. Bond sales on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange climbed to a new high mark at $3,440,000, or more than double the value of transactions in the same month of last year. The combined value of stocks and bonds is reported at $7,223,068, an increase of more than $2,000,000 over the same month of 1924, and a new high record for April.

For the first four months of 1925, transactions on the exchange totaled $30,815,093, an increase of 50 per cent over the corresponding months of last year.

Indicative of the trend in the investment market, public utility transactions on the exchange increased about $200,000 over the preceding month. In some measure this reflects the success of the utility financing now under way in Southern California. The Southern Counties Gas Company and the Southern California Gas Company are selling stock issues to their customers and the Southern California Edison Company shows its confidence in the market by the application to sell $11,500,000 of its stock to the public.

Investment banking syndicates have experienced little difficulty in distributing bonds in Southern California. Their complaint is not of the ability of purchasers to buy, but of the lack of bonds to satisfy the demand. Oversubscriptions invariably are reported from this section for all of the major national offerings.

SALES IMPROVE

Retailers and wholesalers are much more sanguine than a month ago. The coming of the spring season has ushered in the sports clothes and the stores handling these lines report large sales. Collections in some instances are a trifle slow but some improvement is noted. Wholesalers of agricultural implements are doing better in reflection of the bright outlook in the agricultural sections and the completion of a satisfactory season last year.

Most of the crop reports point to satisfactory yields and the probability of good prices. Rainfall has been sufficient to supply irrigation needs, and the acreage has been increased in sugar beets, melons and cotton. The Valencia orange crop is expected to show a 25 per cent loss from last year, but higher prices are forecast. Normal yields are anticipated in most of the deciduous crops.

In the labor market, the increase in building operations has reduced the surplus of skilled artisans, but an oversupply still exists of the inexperienced workers. As harvesting progresses in the agricultural sections it is expected that this situation largely will be corrected.

DECREASE IN ESPEE INCOME

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, May 1.—A decrease of $6,491,445 in net railway operating income of the Southern Pacific Company for 1924, or 11.89 per cent, under 1923, was ascribed by Julius Kruttschnitt, in his final annual report today as chairman of the executive committee to increased prices of labor and material totaling $4,976,000 and an increase of $1,671,000 in charges for depreciation and retirement of equipment.

"Notwithstanding the heavy value of traffic handled by our line," the report added, "and the marked gain in operating efficiency, the relationship between rates and the prices of labor and material have not yet permitted your lines to earn the fair rate of return prescribed by the Interstate Commerce Commission."

The rate of return of the booked value of the road and equipment for 1924 was placed at 3.99 per cent with an average for the last four years of 4.11 per cent. The increase in average wage rates was given as $1,367,000, increases in prices of fuel $2,769,000 and increases in prices of other materials $240,000.

"Of the 52.5½ miles of second track on the line between Oakland and Ogden," says the report, "mentioned in last year's report as being under construction, 16.40 miles of track were completed during the year, while at the close of the year 9.44 miles additional had been graded ready for ties and rails, and 9.29 miles of grading were nearing completion. This work involved the construction of eight new tunnels in the Sierra Nevada Mountains, having an aggregate length of 14,193 feet, and the enlargement of existing tunnel No. 13, having the length of 93 feet. The estimated cost of this work is $9,290,000, of which amount the sum of $3,854,000 was expended during the year. When completed, a continuous double track will be in use for 249 miles out of San Francisco."

Construction of 172.50 miles of new railroad line in Arizona is under way, according to the report, and will be completed by December 31, 1926. This construction, which will place Phoenix, Ariz., on the main line and provide service for the rich irrigated Salt River Valley, will cost $14,-138,000. This construction and the lines of the El Paso and Southwestern, which were taken over by Southern Pacific in 1924, will provide a second track for Southern Pacific for all except fifty-five miles of the entire distance between Yuma and El Paso.

With the completion of the new construction Southern Pacific Company has in hand, it will operate and control some 16,000 miles of rail line and 3325 miles of water lines.

METAL MARKETS

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

CLEVELAND (O.) May 1.—Daily Metal Trade today says: "Pig iron sales prices averaged $1.12½ for April or loss of $1.17½, while basis averaged $20 for April or loss of $1.30. Steel Corporation bookings equal March and shipments later, while local capacity drops to 75 per cent or 9 per cent less in week. Pittsburgh coke market revives just as Connellsville production drops 25,000 tons weekly and 1700 ovens go out. Copper dropped at New York at 13½ cents to 13¾ cents. Zinc dull at 6¾ cents. Lead active at 7.40 cents, St. Louis. Tin lower at 51 cents."

FINAL STEPS TAKEN IN DODGE BROTHERS' SALE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

DETROIT, May 1.—The last step in the sale of Dodge Brothers, Inc., to Dillon, Read & Co., New York bankers, was taken here today when representatives of the owners of the automobile company turned over to the purchasers the deeds, bills of sale and other papers involved in the transfer of title.

The transfer was made upon telephone notification from New York that Charles P. Spicer, vice-president of the Detroit Trust Company, representing the Dodge stockholders, had received from Dillon, Read & Co., a check for $146,000,000 representing the total net purchasing price.

The rate of return of the booked value of the road and equipment for 1924 was placed at 3.99 per cent with an average for the last four years of 4.11 per cent. The increase in average wage rates was given as $1,367,000, increases in prices of fuel $2,769,000 and increases in prices of other materials $240,000.

"Of the 52.5½ miles of second track on the line between Oakland and Ogden," says the report, "mentioned in last year's report as being under construction, 16.40 miles of track were completed during the 18th inst. Other quarterly dividends were ordered as follows: 7 per cent preferred, $1.75 a share; 6 per cent debenture, $1.50 a share, and 6 per cent preferred, $1.50 a share, payable August 1, 1925, to stock of record July 15, 1925.

Straus Issues San Francisco Coupon Bonds

S. W. Straus & Co. has purchased and is offering an issue of $1,025,000 first mortgage 6 per cent serial coupon bonds, at prices to yield from 6 to 6.15 per cent, according to maturity. These bonds are dated February 15, last, and mature in from three to fifteen years, with interest coupons payable February 15 and August 15. Federal income tax of 2 per cent is paid by the borrower, Mason-Sacramento Company.

The bonds are secured by the land and buildings of the new ten-story Brocklebank Apartments to be erected at once at the northeast corner of Mason and Sacramento streets, San Francisco. Adjoining the apartment and facing Sacramento street will be erected, as part of this property, a three-story garage building. Mason-Sacramento Company is composed of prominent San Franciscans.

MONTGOMERY, WARD SALES SHOW INCREASE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

CHICAGO, May 1. — Sales of Montgomery, Ward & Co. for April, amounting to $14,528,116, were the largest for any April in the history of the company and increased 5.76 per cent over sales of April, 1924, according to an official report. Total sales for the first four months of 1925 were $55,-935,281, or 8.4 per cent more than for the same period in 1924.

WILL OPEN LONG BEACH BANK TODAY

Vice-President Hatch to Entertain 200 Guests at Luncheon

P. E. Hatch, vice-president and manager of the Long Beach branch of the Security Trust and Savings Bank, will have 200 bankers as his guests at luncheon today at the Virginia Hotel, including all the Security vice-presidents and directors and advisory board of the Long Beach branches. After the luncheon the bankers will attend the formal opening of the new twelve-story Long Beach Security Building on the northeast corner of First street and Pine avenue.

Throngs of Long Beach people are expected to attend the opening, which is to be celebrated with a public reception lasting from 2 p.m. until 10 p.m. Three orchestras have been engaged to play and in the evening the huge building will be flood lighted. Four great searchlights will be stationed on the roof to illuminate the city below.

Until it merged with the Security Bank in 1921, the Long Beach Security was the National Bank of Long Beach. It was founded by Mr. Hatch in 1896 as the Bank of Long Beach, the first bank in the city. Up to 1905 its president was Jotham Bixby, who retired in that year in favor of Mr. Hatch. The first brick building in Long Beach was built by Mr. Hatch's pioneer bank, and later the first five-story building. Today it will occupy its new banking quarters, which are said to be among the finest in the West. The Long Beach Security Building is one of the tallest in Southern California. On its site once stood the hut of Jotham Bixby's sheep herders, the first house in Long Beach.

Mr. Hatch's son, J. Ellsworth Hatch, will assist in receiving at today's opening. The younger Hatch is a Security vice-president and has been with the bank since 1905, when he started as a messenger.

Redondo Phone Company to Sell Issue of Stock

The Redondo Home Telephone Company of Redondo Beach has been granted authority by the Railroad Commission of California to issue and sell $100,000 of its preferred capital stock to further its program of extensions in that territory.

The officers of the reorganized board of directors are made up of well-known Los Angeles and beach city business men, as follows:

BANKERS MEET IN SANTA BARBARA

Annual Convention of State Association Planned

Many Entertainment Features Are Scheduled

Several hundred bankers, their wives and families are expected to attend the annual State convention of the California Bankers' Association to be held at Santa Barbara from the 20th to the 23rd inst., inclusive. The associated banks of Santa Barbara will act as hosts for the four-day meeting.

The convention will officially open Wednesday the 20th inst., but the first day will be given over to the trust-company section of the association and the executive council for the completion of the convention details.

Wednesday morning there will be a general meeting of the members of the California League of Independent Bankers at the Arlington Hotel for the purpose of transacting business and election of officers for the ensuing year.

Thursday morning the regular business sessions will begin with meetings in the morning and afternoon and continuing through Friday. The only address during the opening session, aside from the address of welcome by the Mayor of Santa Barbara, will be given by Leo S. Chandler, president of the association.

AN AGRICULTURAL PROGRAM

The program arranged for Thursday has an agricultural flavor. Roy M. Hagen, secretary of the California Cattlemen's Association, will address the meeting on "Co-operative Marketing of Beef Cattle and Its Relation to Banking." F. W. Fluharty, farm-management demonstrator of the college of agriculture, University of California, will tell of the success attained by several of the California banks in farm accounting for their customers. C. C. Teague, president of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange and a recognized authority on co-operative marketing, will make the closing address.

Norman McLaren, of McLaren, Goode & Co., of San Francisco and Los Angeles, will appear on Friday's program, his assigned topic relating to accountancy and certified public accountant service for banks. The members of the executive council will participate in a symposium, under the leadership of George A. Van Smith, vice-president of the Anglo and London Paris National Bank of San Francisco.

A feature on Friday afternoon will be the address of Dr. Tully C. Knoles, president of the College of the Pacific. J. M. Elliott, chairman of the board of the First National Bank of Los Angeles and one of the founders of the California Bankers' Association, will also address the convention during this session.

TEA FOR WOMEN

In addition to the regular business meetings of the convention, elaborate entertainment features are being provided. A smoker will be held at the Paseo de la Guerra, with Spanish entertainers, and there will be a tea for the women guests Thursday afternoon and theater parties in the evening. A garden party for all of the guests will be held Friday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, and that evening the Montecito Club will be the scene of the convention ball. Not the least of the entertainment features will be an all-day yachting trip to Santa Cruz Island. The golf finals will be held Saturday forenoon.

The chairmen of the various local committees of the Santa Barbara association are as follows: Executive, James D. Lowsley-Williams, vice-president of the First National Bank; reception, George S. Edwards, vice-president and supervising manager of the Commercial of Santa Barbara branch of the Pacific-Southwest Trust and Savings Bank; publicity and advertising, S. W. Hubbard, vice-president and cashier of the First National Bank; finance and budget, F. A. Hoefer, president County National Bank and Trust Company; hotels and housing, J. D. Paxton, assistant vice-president County National Bank and Trust Comapny; transportation, F. A. Wright, vice-president and cashier of the Central Bank, and ladies' entertainment, Mrs. F. F. Peabody.

WALL STREET GOSSIP

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, May 1.—The annual report of the Midcontinent Petroleum Corporation, formerly Cosden & Co., is expected to show about $900,000 carried to surplus for 1924 in contrast to a deficit of $4,409,122 the year before.

The Southern Pacific earned $10.24 a share in 1924 against $12.94 a share in 1923. Surplus was $13,413,635 after payment of $20,934,094 in dividends, $1,203,-379 sinking fund and $191,207 invested in physical property, compared with surplus of $22,251,857 the year before.

Bradstreet's compilation of business failures for the week ended April 30 puts the number at 364, compared with 359 the previous week and 334 in the corresponding week last year.

Private dispatches received in the financial district from Oklahoma said an independent Midcontinent refiner was offering a premium of 25 cents a barrel for 38 gravity crude oil in the Osage district, the first in several weeks.

The oil trade hears that the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey is negotiating with Mariand Oil Company for the purchase of about 10,000,000 barrels of crude oil from Mariand's Limon lease in Mexico, at a daily rate of about 2000 barrels.

OPTIMISM IN AGRICULTURE

BY L. M. MAYNARD

Economist, United States National Bank

(The following is the fourth of a series of articles in Mr Maynard's survey of agricultural conditions in California.)

From Lodi to Los Angeles, one finds an almost unbroken sentiment of optimism in the agricultural districts and a surprisingly small amount of depression talk in the towns and cities. I find their peach and cherry prospects rather good.

At Marysville I am told that 10,000 acres of the 18,000 planted to peaches will require thinning this year. They expect the peach sales will amount to around $4,000,000. The almond, pears, and peaches in this district give promise of a big crop. They place the prune crop at about 50 per cent of normal.

The San Joaquin Valley was blessed this year with timely moisture. In sixteen years there has not been as good prospects for crops as this year.

In San Jose I found building operations very active. The city seems to be taking on a new lease of life and good business was generally reported by merchants.

GOOD PRICES SEEN

In the Hollister district I find a substantial tone of optimism. The fruit crop apparently will be a little under normal, but the quality will be excellent, and as a result the grower will average better prices through his grades than usual. The range in this section is good, and the cattle are rounded out and smooth. The sheep men have enjoyed an excellent lambing season and have received good prices for their product.

The cherries in the Pajaro Valley will be a small crop. The rains have been the cause of failure in this section. Strawberries give promise of good quality and good quantity. The Pajaro Valley is a big producer of artichokes and growers are realizing good prices.

In the Salinas River the run of water is more than for a three-year period.

San Luis Obispo, and in fact the entire district on the south and west side of the mountains, is in good condition. The dairy season is running at its peak, and the rains have extended the grass milk production fully two months. The hay and grain outlook is excellent. Bean men are working tirelessly in their fields, and the prospect is for the best crop in recent years.

C. L. Smith, cashier of the Citizens' State Bank at San Luis Obispo, says that during January, February and March San Luis Obispo county shipped more than 4,000,000 pounds of green peas, which brought a price return to the grower of from 5 to 23 cents a pound. The beef cattle in this section are fat and sleek. The wheat crop will be short in production this year, due to lack of rain in that section. The general horticultural situation in San Luis Obispo county will undoubtedly average fair.

CROPS SATISFACTORY

In Arroyo Grande the green-pea crop has been good. The early part of the artichoke shipments brought satisfactory prices. The outlook for apricots is excellent. Brown rot is present in some orchards, but not to the extent that it will heavily affect the production. Apples and other fruits of this district are developing well.

The Santa Maria district has been especially benefited by the recent rains. A substantial grain crop is assured, stock ranges have more feed than for many years. The sugar-beet crop is in excellent condition. Lettuce and other vegetables are about ready for harvest, and a satisfactory yield is evidenced.

The condition through the back country of Santa Barbara is improved. The general business will profit bountifully from the moisture that has come to that section.

Ventura county has been greatly benefited by recent rains. The general change in morale of the people in this district is evident. J. P. Levy, president of the Bank of A Levy, Inc., at Oxnard, says this year is the seventh consecutive year of subnormal rainfall in that district. He states that the normal average is between fourteen and fifteen inches a year. Last year their total rainfall was 5.83 inches, and until April 14, last, they had a little over seven inches.

SAO PAULO GOLD BONDS BEING SOLD

Blair & Co., Inc., is offering an issue of $15,000,000 State of Sao Paulo, Brazil, twenty-five-year 8 per cent secured sinking fund gold bonds at 99¼, to yield 8.10 per cent.

A large part of the bonds have been sold abroad, but the balance is being sold for subscription, when, and if issued and received by the underwriters.

The bonds will be the direct obligation of the State of Sao Paulo, and will be secured by a first charge on the receipts from the tax on the transfer of real property and from the inheritance tax, which has averaged over $4,300,000 a year for the past three years. They will also be secured by a mortgage on the Sorocabana Railway, which will be a first lien on approximately 540 miles of road, a lien on about 560 miles subject to the mortgage securing the loan of 1925, amounting to $18,500,000, and a lien on the net earnings of the railway subject to prior charges aggregating approximately $2,000,000 a year.

Sao Paulo is the principal agricultural and industrial State of Brazil. More than one-half of the total world production of coffee is grown in the State.

Veterans' Bonds Are Awarded to Bank Syndicate

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

PRODUCERS TO RESTORE CONFIDENCE

Railroad Equipment Buying in Steel Market Improving, Says Report

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

CLEVELAND, May 1.—Indications that producers are making determined efforts to restore confidence in the finished-steel market are appearing in the final days of April, the Iron Trade Review reports. The minimum of 2.10 cents, Pittsburgh, on plates, shapes and bars, made effective by several large companies this week, is interpreted as an attempt to discourage the practice of hand-to-mouth buying which now prevails.

April proved a disappointment to many producers in that the volume of new business was below expectations. However, a number of companies experienced an exceptionally good month. Shipments of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company in April up to Tuesday were 5 per cent larger than March, and specifications were 10 per cent above the corresponding period of March. Operations of the entire steel industry are at the rate of 75 per cent.

Railroad-equipment buying appears more promising, with probably 25,000 cars reported actively or tentatively in the market at Chicago. The St. Paul is about to place 5500 and then is expected to issue new inquiries for 1500 to 2000. The Union Pacific is figuring on 2000; the Minneapolis and St. Paul, 1800, and still another western road, 3000. Orders for 500,000 boxes of tin plate have been distributed among various mills by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey.

General softness in prices with corresponding increase in interest on the part of buyers characterizes the pig-iron market. Foundry iron can be had as low as $18 at Buffalo, $20.50 in Eastern Pennsylvania and $19.50 in the valley. Important additions to the country's tube-making capacity are provided in announcements of new plants to be built at Weirton and Youngstown, with the possibility of a third plant at Youngstown or in the West. Detroit has placed 3000 tons of cast-iron pipe with French makers. American makers taking the remaining 10,000 tons.

The Iron Trade composite of fourteen leading iron and steel products this week is $38.77, compared with $39.05 last week and $39.43 two weeks ago.

Suspension of Permits Ordered by Commissioner

Two suspensions, one denial, one revocation of permits have just been ordered by State Corporation Commissioner Edwin M. Daugherty, following a report to the department that the companies had become involved in litigation. The permit of the Los Angeles Bond and Mortgage Corporation was ordered suspended. The permit of the Continental Mortgage and Insurance Company was also suspended on the request of company.

The application of R. E. Durbin and Stella K. Durbin to sell and issue promissory notes of the par value of $220,000 was denied. The Sunset Products Company forfeited its corporate charter for non-payment of license tax and its permit was ordered revoked.

The Petroleum Securities Company yesterday completed its fifth well in the Inglewood field with the bringing in of its Dabney-Lloyd No. 4, with an initial production estimated at about 700 barrels, according to official reports. The well is producing from a depth of 2469 feet, to which point it was plugged after drilling to nearly 2200 feet. The water string is cemented at about 1330 feet.

The Petroleum Securities expects to complete is Cone No. 5 some time next week. This well is now standing cemented at 1245 feet.

The Pan American Petroleum Company and the Petroleum Securities Company have a total of sixteen projects under way in the Inglewood field, nine of these actually drilling, the others being in the stages preliminary to spudding in.

Completion of the Lloyd-Dabney well gives the Inglewood field a total of twenty-five producing wells, with an aggregate production of about 6000 barrels a day.

Near Completion

The next producing well in the Inglewood field should be the Moyner No. 2 of the Petroleum Midway Company, which yesterday landed the oil string at 2566 feet. Officials of the company expect the well to go on production some time today.

The Petroleum Midway Company's Moyner No. 1, on this lease, which came in at about 800 barrels a day several weeks ago, and at that time was the largest well in the history of the field, has been cleaned down and is making approximately 300 barrels a day.

Test Deep Sand

The Richfield Consolidated Oil Company's No. 9 well in the Richfield district is running oil string to 4758 feet and will make a production test at that depth, it is officially reported.

No. 9 is a test well to determine whether the deep sand found in Richfield Consolidated No. 8 extends southward. No. 9 is about 600 feet south of No. 8.

Gas Output Grows

The Petroleum Midway Company's Kreitz No. 1 in the Athens area of the Rosecrans field is making about 22,000,000 cubic feet of gas a day, according to officials of the company. The well came in a week ago, doing about 13,000,000 feet.

Fluid production continues to be small and highly emulsified. Oil output runs between 150 and 175 barrels a day. No gravity test of the clean oil has been made, but it is said to be the highest-grade oil yet found in the State, running about 50 per cent gasoline and distillate.

Make Water Test

The Jesurum well of the Pan American Petroleum Company in the North Whittier field is testing the water shut-off at about 4300 feet. Six-inch pipe was set at this point inside eight-inch casing, which officials of the company report to be in bad condition. Considerable speculation was caused several weeks ago when the Jesurum was reported to have found oil sand at 4300 feet.

Start New Well

The Fifty-seven Petroleum Company is rigging up its Moyner No. 1 in the northern part of the Inglewood field, according to field reports. This well is south of the Casserini well, which this company drilled to about 3200 feet without getting production.

Drill New Well

The Standard Oil Company is going ahead with the drilling of a new well on its Eagle Creek lease on Section 31, 31-2A, in the North Midway fields adjoining the town of Fellows. The well is known as the Eagle Creek No. 1 and is the first activity in the way of new development to take place on the lease for the past several years.

Get Shallow Oil

The Oleo Flue Company well, located on Section 28, 30-22, in the McKittrick district, which came in several days ago at a depth of 871 feet, is said to be yielding about forty barrels of oil daily. The well was located by what oil men term a "doodle-bug" and is adjacent to the property of the San Jose-McKittrick Oil Company, Associated Oil Company, Pacific Oil Company and the O. S. Oil Company. The Oleo well is the first to get commercial oil at such a shallow depth, although the other properties are producing at a deeper level.

STOCK PRICES SHOW STRENGTH

Public Utilities Again in Active Demand

American Can Leads Advance of Industrials

Foreign Exchange Rates Show Firmer Tone

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, May 1. — Stock prices showed more strength today than they had at any other time for the past two weeks. Revival of speculative activity in the railroad shares was a feature of the day's trading which showed a marked expansion in volume. A few weak spots cropped out here and there, but they failed to halt the upward trend in other parts of the list, net gains of 1 to 3¼ points being common at the close.

The announcement that the Delaware and Hudson had leased the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh for a long term of years stimulated the buying of the rails. Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh, which soared 27 points to 85 yesterday, moved up to 90 today and then fell back to 86 1-4. Delaware and Hudson closed a point higher at 150 3-4. New peak prices for the year were attained by Norfolk and Southern, the control of which has passed from Marsden Perry to Ernest Williams, who will succeed him as chairman; Gulf, Mobile and Northern, and New Orleans, Texas and Mexico.

Southern Railway duplicated its high of 93¼ and then sagged back to 92 1-4 for a loss of 3-4 on the day. Atlantic Coast Line jumped 3½ points to 160¾. Other strong spots in the railroad group were Chesapeake and Ohio, Chicago Northwestern, Ann Harbor preferred, Chicago and Alton, Chicago Great Western preferred, Lackawanna, Kansas City Southern, "Katy" preferred, Norfolk and Western; New York, Ontario and Western, Northern Pacific; Frisco common, St. Louis Southwestern; Texas and Pacific and Western Pacific, all of which closed 1 to 2¾ points higher.

Public utilities again were in active demand, new peak prices being attained by Utah Securities; Federal Light and Traction; Columbia Gas and Electric, and Electric Power and Light certificates. Laclede Gas soared 10 points to 170 and General Electric and Montana Power each climbed more than 2 points.

Americans Can led the advance in the standard industrials by climbing 5 points to 176 3-4, closing ½ a point from the top. Baldwin, Studebaker and U. S. Steel improved fractionally. U. S. Industrial Alcohol common and preferred, Maxwell B. certificates, Coca-Cola, Glidden Company, and American Ice all moved up to new high levels.

Call money renewed at 4 per cent and then dropped to 3½. Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged.

Foreign exchange rates displayed a firm tone. Demand sterling ruled around 484 1-4 and French francs at 5.23¾ cents. The Norwegian and Danish currencies established new high records for the year at 18.81 and 18.71 cents respectively.

ESPEE IS ORDERED TO CUT RATE ON FLOUR

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—The State Railroad Commission today ordered the Southern Pacific Company to reduce its rates on flour from Seymour to Riverside from 59 cents to 52 cents a 100 pounds, and from Seymour and Subaco to Los Angeles from 45 to 41 cents a 100 pounds. The reduction was at the instigation of a number of flour milling companies, who held the rates to be excessive.

BURTON SILENT ON ARMS PLANS

American Delegates to Geneva Arrive

British May Offer New Draft Convention

First Session of Confab to Open Monday

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

GENEVA, May 1.—Several concrete suggestions on matters not covered in the draft convention will probably be submitted to the American delegates to the International Conference on the Control of the Trade in Arms and Munitions after the session get under way on Monday.

Representative Theodore E. Burton, and virtually the entire American delegation reached Geneva today and proceeded at once to the preliminary work which the conference necessitates.

Preconvention discussions have taken a new turn because of the report that the British delegation may not only present a series of new suggestions, but go to the limit of offering an entirely new draft convention.

Mr. Burton declined today to discuss the nature of the reported American suggestions or commit himself on the American program in general.

Mr. Burton was given a warm welcome on his arrival in Geneva. He had already visited the city in connection with the interparliamentary union.

Lithuania today announced her intention of participating in the arms conference, bringing the number of states to be represented to forty-two.

PRICES OF WOOL SHOW BIG DECLINE

Manufacturers Offer Little Encouragement; Few Prices on Merits of Wool

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

BOSTON, May 1.—The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say: "The wool market has been decreased still further this week. The Australian selling policy evident in the efforts to 'stabilize the world markets than its owners, dreamed possible. Certainly the effect in this market has been depressing and Bradford top makers are loud in their denunciation of the plan. The results, probably, will be a curtailment of the London colonial series commencing this day and possibly a curtailment or restrictive selling policy later in Australia by chart. There has not been able to sell more than thirty at the lower prices than before.

"Sales during the week, both here and abroad, have been brought about largely through necessity of expediency. Few prices have been made anywhere on the merits of the goods. Quotations are extremely difficult; never more so, in fact, even in the dark days of 1920, but there is considerable disposition on the part of those who believe the decline is going too far.

"Manufacturers show little interest in the encouragement, although some reports are to the effect that there is a broader re-order business both with finished materials and with yarns, wherein condemnants and old contract purchases are being moved in the West. Growers inclined to resist current bids of dealers.

"Mohair is slow. The Kerrville accumulation is reported sold at 57 and 58 cents, respectively, for grown and 1-year kid.

Scoured basis:

California—Northern, 1.20@1.23; middle county, 1.19@1.12; southern, 1.05@1.07.

Oregon—Western No. 1 staple, 1.20@1.22; fine and fine medium combing, 1.15@1.20; eastern clothing, 1.06@1.05; staple, No. 1, 1.00@1.10.

BOSTON, May 1.—Wool trading in every branch is very much on hand-to-mouth basis, with buyers both of finest grades of wools entirely nominal. Sizable lots of South American spot wools have changed hands at a low figure, reported as several cents under cost. Forty cents has been paid for some of the new wools and in some cases up to 45 cents.

Merger of Two Eastern Roads Made by Lease

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, May 1.—Completing a strategic move in the consolidation of eastern railroads, L. F. Loree, president of the Delaware and Hudson Company today closed negotiations for leasing the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh Railway, a $75,000,000 road which taps the rich bituminous coal fields of Pennsylvania.

W. I. Noonan, president of the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh, announced that its directors had approved the proposed lease of the property for 999 years on a rental basis guaranteeing 6 per cent annual dividends on the company's $10,500,000 common and $4,000,000 preferred stocks. The proposal is subject to the ratification of stockholders and the Interstate Commerce Commission.

DUN'S TRADE REVIEW

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, May 1.—Dun's tomorrow will say:

"No other economic event of the week has compared in interest and significance with the return of Great Britain to a gold basis. This action, which has been foreshadowed by the recent close approach of sterling exchange to parity, marks further progress toward normal conditions in international commerce and its effects on American export trade should be constructive.

"Strictly domestic consumption of goods, large though it has been, has not kept pace with production in numerous industries, and this has forced readjustments from the high rate of manufacture reached on the expansion which followed the national election last November. Such a phase appears in iron and steel, copper and certain textiles, among other commodities and for fourteen consecutive weeks declines have predominated in Dun's list of wholesale quotations."

COUPLE ARRESTED AS SUSPECTS IN LARCENY

William Van Dam, 30 years of age, a painter, and Mrs. Genevieve Rymer, 19, of 924 West Sixth street were arrested on suspicion of grand larceny by Detectives Veit and Woolridge yesterday at a pawnshop when it is said, they tried to pawn a ring. According to the officers, the ring disappeared mysteriously on March 6, from the home of Mrs. Robert Forbes, 1309 Constance street. Van Dam is asserted to have had access to the Forbes home.

BOBCAT CAPTURED IN RABBIT TRAP

A Young Trapper

When 15-year-old Edgar Woodward, an inmate of Pacific Lodge, near Pomona, visited his line of rabbit traps the other morning, he got the thrill of his young life.

Fast in one of his light traps was a fighting-mad bobcat as big as a dog. Young Woodward, who is not a little proud of his skill as a trapper, ultimately recovered from his surprise and dispatched the cat with a club, after a brief and thrilling set-to. The cat, evidently attracted from the near-by hills by the number of rabbits in the vicinity, weighed thirty-five pounds.

The youthful trapper supplies not a little of the fresh meat consumed by the boys at Pacific Lodge, all of whom exhibit a fondness for rabbit stews. The trapping of the bobcat removes a worthy rival from the rabbit fields about the lodge.

Pacific Lodge, which is conducted by the Protestant Welfare Association, cares for fifty-five boys, most of whom are wards of the Juvenile Court.

TORCHIA IN COURT AGAIN AS COUNSEL

On Christmas morning Torchia took the strings off a package that had been mailed to him. As he lifted the lid of the box, a terrible blast exploded in his face. He was terribly mutilated, and for weeks his life was despaired of; but after months in a hospital he came into court yesterday for the first time since the accident, looking just as he did before, except for an empty left sleeve.

"It's an unsolved mystery," he said. "For weeks, while I could neither see, hear, nor speak, I lay there in black silence, thinking and thinking and thinking. I reviewed my whole life in the minutest detail, but I could not find a clew to clear up the mystery of who sent me that bomb. It certainly was a pleasant Christmas greeting I got."

Beside losing his left arm at the elbow, Torchia suffered a rupture of one ear drum, which has left him slightly hard of hearing. These are the only outward reminders of the incident.

He appeared in court yesterday as counsel for Levi F. Schram, and obtained for his client a divorce from Lillie Schram.

"Everyone is mighty glad to see you back and looking so well," Judge Summerfield assured him.

Kiss Notes Are Read in Suit to Break Contract

Impassioned letters, one of them professing to carry "fifty kisses all in a lump," were entered as evidence yesterday in a suit which is one of the results of the autumnal romance between Chauncey B. Harding and Jennie A. Harding. Judge Murray is hearing the case, which will be resumed today.

It was Mrs. Harding, who is now facing her husband across the drawn lines of a legal battle, who wrote the letters, according to Attorney Edward C. Gilbert, counsel for Harding. That was in the days of the courtship, and Gilbert was endeavoring to establish that the courting was done by Mrs. Harding.

Mrs. Harding's suit is for rescission of a prenuptial contract whereby she gave Harding a half-interest in her $60,000 estate. Harding's defense is that the arrangements were entered into by her with enthusiasm, and not as a result of any undue influence on his part.

There is still to be heard a suit for divorce filed by Mrs. Harding, in which another woman, said to have been manager of an apartment-house owned by Harding, was named as co-respondent.

TRIAL OF KIRKPATRICK ON EMBEZZLEMENT SET

Trial of Joseph Lee Kirkpatrick, charged with embezzling approximately $5500 from his wife, Elizabeth Knabe Kirkpatrick, was set for the 4th inst. yesterday by Judge Keetch of Superior Court. Kirkpatrick is accused on two counts, one involving $3500 and the other $1989. He is asserted to have appropriated the money to his own use November 27, 1924. Kirkpatrick dismissed his attorney, George Appel, in court yesterday, and asked that the Public Defender be appointed to take charge of his defense. His request was granted.

Police Target Match Winners Given Prizes

A blue-steel .45-caliber revolver, with a fancy handle, was presented yesterday to Patrolman H. Ramserand of the Wilshire division for setting the highest mark at the competitive police pistol shoot yesterday, in which all officers of the Wilshire division participated. The officer scored 142 out of a possible 200. The gun was presented to the officer by Ernie Werdin, Sheriff of Los Angeles county in the old days of the horse.

Patrolman S. T. Hahn, who made a score of 140 out of a possible 200, was presented with a hunting knife, and Patrolman J. Swamp, third man in the shoot, with a combination pocketknife. Patrolman R. H. Churchill received an order for a $5 straw hat, being fourth in the contest.

MRS. WILHELMY SAVED BY FRIEND

Doctor Advised Operation Friend Said Try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound First

St. Paul, Minn. — "I was all run-down from overwork and worry, had no appetite, could not sleep at night, and looked like a corpse. I have six children (five boys and one girl) and did not get any strength after my last baby was born. I was getting worse and thinner everyday. The doctor said I had to go to the hospital, but this I could not do on account of my family. So I went to a friend of mine and told her what the doctor had told me and she said, 'Now do as I tell you. Try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as I have done. It helped me.' So I started taking the Vegetable Compound and I noticed after the first few bottles that I felt considerably better. After taking 9 or 10 bottles I got over my fainting spells. Everybody who sees me now notices the great improvement in my health. I am gaining in weight and strength and am feeling fine. Eat well and sleep good nights."—Mrs. MARY WILHELMY, 309 Duke Street, St. Paul, Minnesota.

Vol. XLIV. SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 2, 1925.—PART II. 16 PAGES POPULATION (By the Federal Census—(1920)—576,673; By the City Directory—(1925)—1,150,544)

BLEDSOE VISITS VALLEY SECTION

Candidate Is Welcomed in San Fernando District

Challenges Cryer to Tell of Telephone Fiasco

To Jurist to Talk on KNX Tonight at 9:15

Former Judge Bledsoe spent the day and evening yesterday in the San Fernando Valley section of the city, covered thoroughly all centers of population in this part of Los Angeles and was enthusiastically greeted by large crowds at three speeches he made in which he set forth his plan, when elected Mayor, for giving the valley real service at the City Hall.

After his tour of Girard, Zelzah, Owensmouth and Chatsworth, former Judge Bledsoe spoke from the stand stand opposite the Van Nuys branch City Hall, then addressed an enthusiastic meeting in the Community Church at Lankershim and closed his valley tour with an address at Hewitt Community Hall. His final speech of the evening was made at Franklin High School at 826 West Avenue Fifty-four.

REAL ISSUE

In his speeches yesterday, former Judge Bledsoe showed that the real issue in the campaign was whether the voters desired four years more of the listless administration of Parrot-controlled Mayor Cryer or desired as Mayor a man who will be vigorous and on the alert to do things for the improvement of the city government and the upbuilding of Los Angeles. In his speeches at Van Nuys and at Lankershim, former Judge Bledsoe said:

"There is but one issue in this campaign, for insofar as the development of the Colorado River for the best interests of Los Angeles is concerned, my principal opponent for office and I stand on mutual ground. The real issue, the true fact with which the voter of this city is faced is—shall Los Angeles have decent, efficient government or shall four years more of de facto rule of Kent Parrot and his parasites plunge our normal glorious destiny, into decline?

"Mayor Cryer, faced with a revelation of results of his four years of mismanagement, pleads the suffrage of the city's voters on the naive grounds that his four years' experience will be of vast value in incorporating into administration the provisions of the new charter, for which charter he by implication takes credit, giving no thought to the arduous voluntary labor of the duly elected Board of Freeholders, the body that spurned the only two suggestions made by the chief executive of the city.

CHANGE OF FRONT

"If, then, Mayor Cryer, your experience be of value, what of your suggestion that the city purchase the plant owned and operated by the Southern California Telephone Company? Why was your attempt to make of this a campaign issue so suddenly dropped? Was it because of the adverse reports of every proponent in Los Angeles of municipal ownership?

"From this, your suggestion, the public can draw but one conclusion, i.e., your four years in office have taught you little. Even the most casual knowledge of the situation would have brought realization that a bond issue of $100,000,000, as would have been re-

BLEDSOE AT KNX AGAIN TONIGHT

So successful was former Judge Bledsoe's speech over radio KNX last Wednesday night that he will speak from the same station at 9:15 o'clock tonight, giving thousands of Los Angeles voters an opportunity to hear the Mayoralty candidate set forth the real issues of the campaign. Other speeches tonight by former Judge Bledsoe are as follows:

8:30 p.m.—Glen Airy district, open-air rally at West Adams and Alsace streets, near end of West Adams car line.

9:45 p.m.—Dayton Heights school, 637 North Hoover street.

YOUR JOB AND MINE

During the next four years the people of Los Angeles will receive the kind of government approved by the city's electorate in Tuesday's primary and in the final municipal election June 2.

The functions of government are improved or impaired according to the quality of those elected to public office.

Inferior candidates are successful frequently because a representative expression by the citizenship is prevented by apathy or neglect. Organized minorities can succeed only when a majority fails to act.

Occasionally, by skillful politics and unscrupulous methods, an undesirable individual deludes an electorate, but indifference among the voters is a greater menace to honesty and ability in office than any other factor or consideration.

Plainly, it is the duty of a citizen in a republic to exercise his suffrage in determining what men and which measures shall be approved, but such a duty is likewise a protection, not only of the fundamental rights of the individual under the Constitution, but of his social and economic welfare.

Wastefulness or extravagance in government is immediately reflected in higher taxes and every dollar of tax money inefficiently spent is a direct drain upon the resources of every citizen, whether he be rich or poor.

Weakness in government brings a host of ills more serious even, than wastefulness; for weakness invites abuses that strike at the very foundation of law. Dishonesty in government, while vicious and reprehensible, while leading to corruption and disgrace, in a final analysis will offer no greater opportunity for permanent impairment of the public service than an absence of moral and intellectual strength.

For four years Los Angeles has had a slovenly administration of its municipal affairs. This has been due to many conditions, but principally to the temperamental unreadiness of Mayor Cryer. The Mayor, at best, has been a muddler. His ineptitude has been demonstrated in every important demand made upon him. When decision and firmness have been needed Mr. Cryer has been indecisive, timid.

He has constantly yielded to the ascendancy of a man concerned wholly with the practical ends of professional politics and, whatever advantage has been gained by this situation, the people of Los Angeles have not been the gainers. It is not good business or good sense to elect a public official who is under the dominance of any man or any group of men.

In order that there might be a new era in municipal affairs, in order that men of lesser abilities might be supplanted by a higher type of public servant, Los Angeles voters approved a new city charter. This charter was devised by a Board of Freeholders elected for the purpose and was submitted to the people after a half year of industrious and self-sacrificing attention by those authorized to present the city with a modern governmental code.

The new charter gives the Mayor a wider range of authority and much added responsibility. Therefore, it would appear essential that a Mayor be selected for the next four years not only willing to accept the responsibility, but capable of exerting the authority thus conferred.

Mayor Cryer's official record does not measure up to the new opportunities and the new requirements of the Mayor's office.

The Mayor's principal opponent in the present contest is former United States Judge Bledsoe. The contrast between the two men is significant and impressive. Where Mr. Cryer has been colorless, ineffective, vacillating, Judge Bledsoe has established a record remarkable for vigorous honesty, fearlessness and worth-while accomplishment.

The friends of Mayor Cryer, unable to deny his inconsequential attainments in office, insist, nevertheless, that he is entitled to further consideration because he is honest. Yet not even the most fanatical opponent of Judge Bledsoe has possessed the hardihood to suggest that the integrity of Bledsoe is not fully as fundamental as that credited to Cryer. On that point, then, there can be no argument from the Mayor's supporters.

On all other points the superiority of Judge Bledsoe has been established through more than a quarter of a century of service in Los Angeles and Southern California. The contemporary histories of Cryer and Bledsoe speak with sufficient emphasis to indicate the relative abilities and qualities of the two men.

In many elections neither the issues nor the men are sufficiently dissimilar to justify marked preference in a given instance, but such a condition does not exist in the present contest.

On Tuesday the people will choose between Cryer and a continuation of hesitancy, bossism and ineffectiveness in office, and Bledsoe and a new regime in which the public service will be raised to a higher standard.

The result wholly depends upon the response at the polls by the 380,000 registered voters in this community.

START TERMINAL MONDAY

Pacific Electric Lets Contract to P. J. Walker for Hill Street Station and Building

Actual work on the construction of the Pacific Electric's subway terminal station between Fourth and Fifth streets on Hill street, for passengers leaving and arriving through the company's new Hollywood-Glendale-San Fernando Valley $3,000,000 tunnel, will commence next Monday morning, it was announced yesterday by D. W. Pontius, vice-president and general manager of the railroad.

At the same time it was announced that the work will be done by the P. J. Walker Company, the successful bidder among six applicants.

The same construction company also received the contract to erect the height-limit $4,000,000 office building over the terminal for the Subway Terminal Corporation.

Two steam shovels are to start excavation work for the subway terminal Monday morning on the northern part of the property, following which underpinning of the joining buildings will be accomplished. Much of the structural steel is ready for delivery and

MEETS TO END BOYS' WEEK

Eighty-seven Athletic Events Scheduled for Today, With Barbecues and Story Fests Tonight

With eighty-seven athletic meets scheduled to be held in twenty-nine city and suburban centers, Boys' Week will be brought to an official close today. Outdoors Day will mark the end of what has been a week of glory for the youngsters of Los Angeles, and it will be fittingly celebrated with games and sports of every description in all sections of the greater city.

C. B. Raitt, chairman; W. A. Reynolds, C. L. Glenn, Dan Murphy, Clarence G. Weisbrod and Robert Howard compose the special committee in charge of the day's events and they have arranged a program to give every boy a rare good time. Athletic meets have been carded in three classifications, juniors, boys of intermediate ages and seniors, with the competition including dashes, flag relays, sack races, obstacle and three-legged races, broad and high jumps and a wide variety of special events.

Hiking in the hills also has been put on the day's program; swimming contests have been arranged, and at several playgrounds special events will be held for children from orphanages and other institutions.

In the evening the boys will be hosts to their fathers at barbecues to be given in ten city districts. The youngsters will cook and serve "hot dogs," and the fathers will be invited to tell stories of their boyhood sports.

KHJ TO PRESENT CHAMBER MUSIC

Tonight KHJ will present the San Francisco Chamber Music Society, founded in 1916 by Elias Hecht. This promises to be a rare treat to lovers of chamber music, as this society is one of the leading organizations of its kind in the world. It is through the courtesy of the Los Angeles Soap Company that The Times station is able to present this feature to the radio public.

SCORES SEEKING AIR LINE PERMIT

Rail Body in Conference on Safety Requirements

Several Concerns Planning to Begin Service in July

Fifty inquiries from individuals and companies contemplating the establishment of freight and passenger air service have been received by the Chamber of Commerce, Ford A. Carpenter, head of the meteorological and aeronautical bureau of the chamber, told the Railroad Commission at a conference here yesterday.

The conference was called by President Brundige of the Railroad Commission and was attended also by Lester S. Reay, chief engineer for the commission; Carl I. Wheat, chief counsel of the commission, and W. R. Williams, commission examiner, in charge of the Los Angeles office.

Mr. Carpenter predicted that commercial transportation by air will become a reality in California on a sound financial and practical basis within the next two months. The majority of applications received by the chamber, Mr. Carpenter said propose to operate between Los Angeles and San Francisco and plan chiefly to transport freight. Investigation, he stated, showed that several of the concerns are amply financed and plan operations by July.

As any person or corporation engaged in transporting property or persons in the State must file a rate schedule with the commission, President Brundige said that it will be the duty of the commission under law to thoroughly investigate any proposed method of aeronautical transportation. This investigation, he said, will include the safety of operation, character of equipment, the number of aviation landings and the maximum amount of weight or numbers of passengers to be carried.

"It is well recognized that the establishment of such services will be pioneering adventures," the president declared, "and that the rates to be charged are less important than the measures of safety. Unless entirely safe operations are established there will be no invitation to the public to patronize them."

AIR LINE PAPERS FILED BY LOCAL MEN

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

SACRAMENTO, May 1.—[With a view to establishing air transportation between the states of the Southwest, articles of incorporation of the Pacific Southwest Airline, Inc., of Los Angeles, today were filed with Secretary of State Frank Jordan. The company plans to carry on aerial transportation of freight, mail and passengers. It is capitalized at $75,000 and the directors are Verne Ewan, electrician; James L. Giffen, electrician; and A. A. Emmons, attorney, all of Long Beach.

GAIN SHOWN IN INQUIRIES OF TOURISTS

All-Year Club Reports Southland Faces Banner Season for Travel

Interest in Southern California for the summer of 1925 continues to grow. This is strikingly revealed by a check of inquiries to the All-Year Club of Southern California in response to its advertising in national magazines and eastern newspapers telling of the attractiveness of Southern California as a summer vacation land.

This year to the last day of April 19 per cent more persons have responded to the advertising than in 1923, the greatest summer tourist year that California ever had. For April alone 34 per cent more persons have made inquiry this year than for the same month in 1923.

For the first time the inquiries in April have gained over those of March. It has been the experience from the advertising that vacationists are divided into two classes; those who plan their summer journey a long time ahead and those who don't think of it until they are almost ready to go. This in the past has resulted in peak of inquiries occurring early in the year—January to March—and then a second peak occurring in May. The continuation of increase from March into April is a forecast of an enormous increase for May and June.

ESPEE OFFICIAL PREDICTS INFLUX

The Pacific Coast faces the greatest summer for travel in its history, according to John M. Scott, assistant passenger traffic manager of the Southern Pacific Company at Portland, Or., who was a visitor in Los Angeles today.

Mr. Scott is en route home following a visit of three weeks in Florida, Louisiana and other Southern States. While here he conferred with F. S. McGinnis, assistant passenger traffic manager here, and other Southern Pacific officers.

"Due largely to the many conventions being held on the Coast, California, Oregon and Washington now are facing the greatest summer travel in their history," Mr. Scott said. "We in the north will benefit from the Shrine and other conventions held in Southern California, just as you will benefit from the conventions held in our territory."

WOMAN CHARGES HAIR WAVER BURNED SCALP

Charging her hair and scalp were burned while she was getting a "permanent wave," Margaret Chiles yesterday brought suit for $10,025 damages against Mr. and Mrs. C. M. McGuire, said to be the operators of a beauty shop at 688 South Bonnie Brae street. Miss Chiles asserted the heating apparatus was handled in a negligent fashion.

COLORADOANS CALLED

President W. Warren Campbell of the Colorado State Society is calling his people together this evening in the Flower Auditorium at 1720 South Flower street. A fine program is assured and dancing will follow the entertainment. All Coloradoans, tourists included, will be welcome.

AUTOS NEEDED ELECTION DAY

If you are for Bledsoe for Mayor and desire to assist his campaign effectively, volunteer the use of your automobile on election day, next Tuesday to bring voters to the polls.

Call at or telephone any of the fifteen district Bledsoe-for-Mayor campaign headquarters or the central headquarters, 425 South Spring street, (Telephone TRinity 6111) and help elect Bledsoe by offering the use of your automobile on election day.

GEORGE B. BUSH,
Campaign Manager.

CHILDREN ROMP AT MAY DAY FETE

Folk Lore Dances Feature Picturesque Event

May Day Parade at West Vernon School

MORE than 800 colorfully dressed children, garlanded with flowers and orange blossoms, participated in a picturesque May Day fete yesterday morning in the yard of the West Vernon school. A series of dances depicting various folklore incidents and reminiscent of child life in foreign climes featured the entertainment. All the costumes for the fete were made at the school under the supervision of the different teachers.

Estelle Oberdick held sway from a flowery throne as Queen of May, her court consisting of Margaret Atkinson as crown bearer, Maude Hensley as train bearer and Virginia Eskerson as flower girl. The crowning of the May Queen climaxed a series of atmospheric dances, the march to the throne of flowers being through a rain of tossing blossoms.

Solo dances were given by Dorothy Jones, Jewel Rhodes, Frances Starr, June Jensen, Dorothy Doris and Rolland Poole.

Among the characteristic dances offered to hundreds of mothers of the Parent-Teacher Association who attended the fete were the "Bean Porridge Pot," "The Pied Piper," "The Brownies," "Pop Goes the Weasel," "Dutch Dance," "Robin Hood," "Maypole Dance," "Highland Fling," "American Dance," "The Goop Dance" and others.

The solo dances and organization of the fete were under the supervision of Mrs. Blanche McDonald, one of the teachers, and the orchestra and piano work under Mrs. Pauline Danney. All teachers in the building of the respective grades supervised their own students in their dances.

HARBOR DISTRICT HAS QUIET MAY DAY

May Day for the first time in seven years passed yesterday at the harbor without radical demonstration of any sort.

Work along the waterfront, on shipboard and throughout the port industrial district moved forward without a single untoward incident. Shipping interests announced that labor conditions in the harbor industry are in a more stable condition than at any time since the close of the World War.

The street-corner demonstrations preceding May Day failed to put in their appearance night before last. According to the harbor police the approximately 100 radicals still in the district have ceased their campaign of propaganda.

LIBRARY INJUNCTION DENIED

Court Action to Restrain Board in Pasadena From Proceeding with Plan Fails

Petition for an injunction restraining the Pasadena Board of City Directors from entering into a contract for the construction of a proposed new library building was denied yesterday by Judge Shaw of Superior Court.

The petition, which was filed by John W. Sargent and L. Williams, president and secretary, respectively, of the Pasadena Municipal Voters' League, was directed at the personnel of the present board of directors, four members of which are scheduled to retire from office the 4th inst.

According to the petition, a bond issue of $3,500,000 was voted in 1923 for the building of a new City Hall, library and municipal auditorium, and it was generally understood by the voters that the City Hall was to be erected first.

The petition recited that the board had called for bids for the library building; that the City Hall had not been constructed, and that if the library were built first there would not be sufficient funds available for the erection of a City Hall. The petitions asked that the board be restrained from entering into any contract or taking any action on the library building until the new board was installed the 4th inst.

Judge Shaw denied the injunction on the ground the board had taken no action toward spending the money realized from the bond sale on a library, that no contract had been entered into and that the proper method for the petitioners to pursue would be to file a suit to prevent the board from expending the money on a library, if, in any event, the board entered a contract for the construction of the proposed library.

ANDERSON RITES SET

Burial of Automobile Man Will be at Riverside

Funeral services will be held this morning for A. B. Anderson, automobile man, who died suddenly at Santa Monica April 30, after an illness of only two days.

Mr. Anderson, who, for the past six months, has been manager of the Bay District Motors Company, had previously served with the Western Motors Company and Don Lee, Inc., as a salesman.

For three years during the war Anderson fought with the Canadians, winning a lieutenancy and suffering severe gassings on two occasions. These, it is believed, hastened his death.

Mr. Anderson was 41 years of age. Services are to be held at 11:30 today at 1237 South Flower street. Interment will be in Riverside.

Check of Funds is Made by Auditor; Estimates of Budget Given Council

The cash in the City Treasury was counted yesterday, in accordance with the demands of the charter, by City Auditor Myers, who announced the actual sum to be $48,796,467.14. At the same time his estimates of the budget for the next fiscal year were placed before the Council and referred to the Budget Committee.

Total cash and cash items were reported as amounting to $70,776,776.77; deposits in city banks were $15,408,939.28; deposits in New York banks were $1,019,551.09, and loans to banks were $31,465,200.

STARS TO APPEAR IN "WHAT PRICE BEAUTY?"

Nita Naldi, Pierre Gendron, Dolores Johnson and Paulette Duval are to appear, it was announced yesterday, in "What Price Beauty?" written and to be directed by Mrs. Rudolph Valentino. The scene of the picture is to be a beauty shop, which is considered appropriate as Mrs. Valentino's foster-father made a fortune in cosmetics. There will be no elaborate effects in the picture, which is planned to be produced on a modest scale and to take only three weeks in filming. It will be made by Circle Films, headed by S. George Ullman, Valentino's business manager, and photography will start next week at United Studios. The picture is scheduled to be finished June 1.

FRATERNITIES TO BANQUET

Fraternity men at the University of Southern California will hold an interfraternity banquet tonight at the Mary Louise. Harold J. Stonier, executive secretary at the university, is to be speaker. Boxing matches and two orchestras are feature numbers on the program.

TREE PLANTING DRIVE OPENS

Hollywood Launches Campaign With Ceremonies Conducted at Each of Major Schools

Hollywood's campaign for more shade trees was opened yesterday morning with the planting of a memorial tree on the grounds of three of the major schools.

John S. McGroarty, to the accompaniment of the Fairfax High School's band, planted a memorial redwood on the school grounds at Fairfax and Melrose avenues for the Hollywood chapter, Daughters of American Revolution. Mr. McGroarty, who was introduced by George H. Coffin, president of the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce, which is sponsoring the campaign, in a short talk praised the movement. Mrs. Martha Richardson, Regent of the Hollywood D.A.R. chapter, presented the tree to Principal R. G. Van Cleve of the Fairfax school.

At the Le Conte Junior High School, Col. Joseph D. Leitch, U.S.A., planted a live oak for the Hollywood Post, American Legion. Col. Leitch was commander of the American Expeditionary Forces in Siberia during the war. Care of the tree was placed in the hands of Principal M. W. Chandler of the junior high school by Joseph Weston, vice-commander of the Legion post.

Carrie Jacobs Bond, woman music composer, planted a native sycamore at Hollywood High School for the Hollywood Woman's Club. She was introduced by Mrs. C. H. Richmond, president of the club, who presented the tree to Dr. W. H. Snyder, principal of the school.

The ceremonies were witnessed by several hundred, including the students from the three schools, and the student bands played patriotic selections.

During the campaign trees will be planted in the new subdivisions and in the parkways, and trees destroyed in street openings and widenings will be replaced.

S·Y·M·B·O·L·S

The barber's pole is a venerable trade sign, originating in the days when barbers also practiced dentistry and surgery. The familiar stripes represent the bandages with which the barber wrapped his patient after bloodletting; while the globe, now rarely appended, indicates the vessel for receiving the blood.

Today few people depend on trade signs. Instead of waiting for business, they go after it. In Los Angeles the majority use that mammoth medium—

Times Want Ads

The Lancer

by Harry Carr

FLU-DRENCHED, I am sitting up in bed with a typewriter on my knees, meditating upon the futility of life and the properties of bromo quinine.

A BEST SELLER

I have been reading "Arrowsmith" by Sinclair Lewis.

"Arrowsmith" is about a young physician whose soul revolted against the pettiness of medical practice. He wanted to be a scientist. He took his wife down to the plague country; and she died. Then he married a rich wife.

Suffocated by the soft ease, he left her and went poking out to a cabin in the New England hills with a friend. And they spent the rest of their lives experimenting with the mechanical properties of quinine derivatives.

THE TRAGEDY OF FUTILITY

And my reaction to all such stuff is this:

There is nothing in life more horrible than futility.

But there is one thing more futile than failing to accomplish anything; that is accomplishing something.

Because when you accomplish something, you find it wasn't worth while, and didn't matter anyhow. The tragedy in arriving at the end of the rainbow is not that you fail to find the pot of gold. The tragedy is that you sometimes do find it; and it is just a pot of gold.

Closing this book, I do so with a prayer that Dr. Arrowsmith was spared the soul smash-up of asking himself some day whether quinine derivatives really matter anyhow.

LIFE'S THE BUNK

Rich men tell me that great wealth is a torture; that you come to a definite place at which you cease to own your dollars; they own you, thenceforth.

Famous men tell me that fame is the bunk; that applause is an unmeaning form of noise produced by fools.

HERE'S THE REMEDY

When babies are born, they ought to be put in a ship with perfumed sails and sent out on the winds of the fragrant morning—on a wind that soughs softly and carries them on and on until the ship goes over the edge of the world and so on down and down—sliding on the mists and slipping through the rainbows forever more.

GUM AND RUSSIA

They have learned to play baseball; chew gum; they read American authors; rave over American movies. They are more interested in American factory methods than in the eternal principles of democracy.

A TEMPORARY DISEASE

This is not so surprising.

This Communistic stuff is merely a fever—like my flu.

Russia will presently shake it off—together with all the wretched insects who invented it. And then Russia will cinch in her Cossack belt; take up her heritage as the most western of oriental nations and come tearing through Europe like a cyclone.

DEAD NATIONS

In the days to come, the sovereignty of the world will be divided between two great world powers—Russia ruling on one side of the sea; America on the other.

The old countries of Europe are dead.

THEN LOOK OUT!

But even Job got over his boils.

BADGERS PLAN PROGRAM

All the Wisconsin people are invited to attend the social reunion in the Disabled Veterans' Hall, 246 South Hill street, Monday night. All the Badgers are welcome whether members or not, and a fine program is given before the dancing.

Action of Armed Stranger Starts Police on Hunt

Police were trying last night to discover what crime was committed by an armed stranger who commandeered a taxicab early yesterday morning at Sunset Boulevard and Vermont avenue and forced the driver, Louis B. Dix of 1647 West Thirty-eighth street, to take him to Pico and Alvarado streets. According to Dix, the man highly excited, pressed a pistol in the back of the driver's head and told him to "drive like hell."

At Pico and Alvarado street the man made Dix stop and jumped into another car, a runabout, with the engine running and containing a driver. The runabout disappeared north on Alvarado street at a high rate of speed, Dix said. He did not attempt to follow, though the stranger did not pay his fare.

EXTENSION OF OREGON RAIL LINE ANNOUNCED

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

PORTLAND (Or.) May 1.—The Oregon Trunk Railway will be extended from Bend to Klamath Falls, a distance of 150 miles, it was announced here today by A. D. Charlton, general passenger agent of the Northern Pacific Railway. The extension, it was announced, will cost $6,500,000 and work will be started immediately.

Authorization for the extension was made by the board of directors of the Northern Pacific Railway at a meeting held Thursday in New York, a telegram received by Mr. Charlton from Charles Donnelly, president of the Northern Pacific, stated.

APPEAL ISSUED BY CHURCHMEN

Brotherhood 'Asks Support for Bledsoe

Statement Says Votes Must Back Up Talk

Duty of All Citizens is Pointed Out

The United Church Brotherhood has issued an appeal to the citizens of Los Angeles to vote at Tuesday's primaries for former Judge Bledsoe for Mayor, and to show by the strength of the vote cast that people interested in civic decency will not alone talk about the need of it in the city government, but will also go to the polls and vote for it by casting their ballots for former Judge Bledsoe for Mayor. The statement, which was signed for the brotherhood by President Charles T. Butts, and Rev. W. S. Buchanan, said:

"On Tuesday next Los Angeles will again be faced with the task of electing a Mayor and a City Council. The campaign now drawing to a close has been spirited, and the issues have been thoroughly discussed.

"There appear to be but two outstanding candidates for Mayor—the incumbent and former United States District Judge Benjamin F. Bledsoe.

"It is generally conceded that that portion of the community's citizenship ordinarily referred to as 'the church people' is supporting the candidacy of Judge Bledsoe.

"However, the opponents of Judge Bledsoe are discounting this support. They assert that 'the church crowd' is greatly interested in civic decency, and disposed to talk a great deal about it, but that we will not go to the polls in sufficient numbers to determine the result.

"This is not the place nor the time for political appeals, but you are most earnestly urged to go to your voting place some time during the day next Tuesday—preferably in the morning before you go to your work, so that you will not forget—and register your choice.

"No matter who you are for, vote. Your vote is your protection and also your opportunity to contribute to your city's well-being and progress.

"Vote for Judge Bledsoe if you are persuaded he is the best man for the place—we shall vote for him, as we believe he is pre-eminently fitted to serve—but whatever your individual choice, vote!"

LARGE VOTE PREDICTED FOR MYERS

Chairman of Committee Says Auditor Will Run Strong for Controller

That City Auditor John S. Myers will receive a large vote at next Tuesday's primaries was the declaration yesterday of John W. Kemp, chairman of the campaign committee working for the City Auditor's election as Controller, a position created by the new charter by enlarging the duties and responsibilities of the City Auditor.

Chairman Kemp said that hundreds of men and women of the city have indorsed the candidacy of City Auditor Myers. The officers of the campaign committee, in addition to Kemp, are Vice-Chairmen Mrs. J. T. Anderson, Mrs. Rose C. Bryant, Dr. Laura M. Locke, Parley M. Johnson, Frank H. True, Mrs. Mab Copeland Linaman, Mrs. H. Josephine Winn and Kemper B. Campbell; treasurer, W. L. Will, W. H. Workman and former Judge Waldo M. York.

Move Within Thirty Days is No Bar to Vote

A voter who, within thirty days prior to an election, moves to another city may vote in the city from which he has moved, according to an opinion furnished Registrar of Voters Kerr yesterday by County Counsel Bishop.

Likewise an election officer who has moved from his precinct thirty days prior to the election in which he would serve, is still eligible to act in the old precinct, Mr. Bishop stated.

POLITICS

THE WATCHMAN

Trend of Political Thought and Action

BY THE SENTRY ON HIS BEAT

Registration for the municipal primary election in Los Angeles Tuesday closed at midnight last night. It is estimated that the total city registration will be approximately 383,000, as compared with 266,000 two years ago. Generally it is predicted that Tuesday's vote will be between 40 per cent and 50 per cent of the registration, or between 142,000 and 180,000 votes, as compared with 91,800 two years ago.

"An exhaustive search of the minutes of the City Council shows that Bert L. Farmer, while a member of the City Council and president of the Council, always supported measures advocated by the city's public service bureau and especially those measures which related to the development of new sources of water and power," says a statement issued last night by the committee which has charge of Farmer's campaign for election to the City Council from the Sixth Councilmanic District. "Farmer has gone on record repeatedly as being in favor of all water-and-power projects which have the backing of William Mulholland, the city's water and power chief, and has repeatedly pledged himself to support recommendations made by Mulholland. The Sixth District's future and the increase in property values in this district depend on the growth of the city in general and for this reason this committee urges support for Farmer because his long service to the city has given him the necessary experience to qualify him as an expert in all lines of municipal matters."

The directors of the Southern California Retail Grocers' Association have indorsed the candidacy for Controller of W. C. Mushet, and also made the following Council indorsements: Second Councilmanic District, Robert M. Allan; Fourth Councilmanic District, Boyle Workman; Seventh Councilmanic District, Ralph L. Criswell; Eighth Councilmanic District, Frank L. Shaw; Ninth Councilmanic District, W. J. Sanborn; Eleventh Councilmanic District, Pierson M. Hall; Fourteenth Councilmanic District, Edwin Baker. Mayor Cryer was indorsed for re-election.

Frederick C. Langdon, leading candidate for the Council in the Eleventh District, has the indorsements of the Citizens' Council Committee, the United Church Brotherhood, the Warehouse Mens' Association and the Apartment-House Owners' Association. Thousands of Langdon's friends are predicting that he will be elected on Tuesday. He has resided in the District at 941 South Alvarado street for the past twenty-five years. He has been elected to the Council five times.

The candidacy of Lin William Price in the Twelfth Councilmanic District has been indorsed by B. C. Erwin of the legislative committee of the California County Assessors' Association.

Harry F. Burke, candidate in the Eighth Councilmanic District, has received a large number of indorsements, and his campaign committee is stressing Burke's work in securing two schools for the district; in opening Monsta avenue from Forty-ninth street to Athens, for which Burke donated three miles of frontage for street purposes.

Among the members of the campaign committee of 300 citizens of the Fourteenth Councilmanic District who have indorsed the candidacy of former Councilman W. A. Roberts are M. J. Bicknell, Judge Frank Forbes, Rev. H. C. Waddell, Rev. J. A. Hull, Mrs. S. W. Hastings, Glen I. Miller, S. A. Jubb, Mrs. C. W. Montgomery and George Thornburg.

Declaring it to be "one of the most cherished objectives" of her organization, Mrs. F. O. McColloch, president of the Los Angeles Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations, last night issued an appeal to the more than 35,000 members of the organization to vote favorably on the $700,000 Southern Branch university site bond issue at next Tuesday's primary election.

ABILITY OF EDUCATION BOARD TOLD

Citizens' Committee Head Urges People to Permit Body to Complete Task

By a vote of 20 to 1 citizens of Los Angeles supported a $24,640,000 school-bond issue last June, and the same seven members of the Board of Education who sponsored this gigantic proposition have been drafted by more than 10,000 citizens, who signed the petition, to seek re-election and their names appear on the ballot at next Tuesday's primaries. The candidates are:

John B. Beman, Arthur S. Bent, Robert L. Burns, Elisabeth Louise Clark, Frederick R. Feltshans, Lucia Macbeth and Robert A. Odell. The achievements of the members of this board have been nothing short of phenomenal during their two short years of service, according to D. K. Edwards, former member of the body and pioneer Los Angeles citizen.

"This board is one of the best, if not the best, Los Angeles has had for many years," Mr. Edwards declared. "They are, with one exception, the same persons whom we elected in June 1923 by a big majority. It is a harmonious body, giving much time to the increasingly important affairs of our schools.

"Of the $24,640,000 voted last June, the board has already sold $11,000,000 worth of bonds. Those in constant touch with the affairs of the school body declare it would be a deplorable thing not to return all seven to office so that they may complete the expenditure of this money, knowing as they do the needs of the community for more school buildings and equipment."

"The job of running the Los Angeles city school system is the biggest job of the city," Charles E. Seaman, chairman of the Citizens' School Committee, declared yesterday. "It is up to the citizenry to re-elect the present board next Tuesday. With this tremendous building program in progress Los Angeles cannot afford to lose the excellent services of any one of the present seven members."

TWO OF SIX ISSUES WILL GO TO VOTE

Foot Tunnel and Police Station Bond Projects to be Put on June Ballot

Two bond issues only, of the six under consideration, will be submitted to the voters at the June 2 election, according to indications, following a meeting yesterday of the Council Civic Projects Committee with most of the other Councilmen.

These issues will be Central Police Station, $1,500,000, and pedestrian tunnels, $250,000.

The full list cannot be submitted, it was stated, due to the low margin of bonded indebtedness for nonrevenue - producing projects. Those chosen were believed to be the most important to the welfare of the city.

The $10,000,000 water bond project, which is classed as revenue-producing, has already been ordered on the June ballot.

MONK ESTATE APPRAISED

An inheritance tax of $6440 will be collected from the estate of Edward R. Monk, State Controller Ray L. Riley announced yesterday. The estate has been appraised at $139,619 and Mr. Monk, who died March 28, 1924, divided the property among nine relations. Two of the larger bequests go to Edward B. Monk, nephew, and Grace Monk Hall, niece.

MUSHET TO END RACE IN WHIRLWIND

Speeches in All Parts of City to be Given by Eve of Primary

Speeches in every section of the city before Monday night are being scheduled for Councilman Mushet, candidate for City Controller at the primaries next Tuesday. The program for a whirlwind finish of Mr. Mushet's campaign was completed yesterday by the campaign committee, of which Dwight Hart is chairman.

In a talk yesterday afternoon before a large audience of business men at his headquarters in the Hillstreet Theater Building, Mr. Mushet expressed appreciation of the wide support that has been given his candidacy by thousands of men and women who have been actively identified with his campaign.

More than 100 speeches on "The Duties of the City Controller Under the New Charter," which goes into effect next July, have been made by Mr. Mushet in the last three weeks. This subject will be discussed by Mr. Mushet in a talk at 7 o'clock tonight over the radio.

Among the organization indorsements received yesterday by Mr. Mushet was one from the Furlong Home Tract Association and another from the Southern California Retail Grocers' Association. Following is the letter from the grocers' organization:

"At a meeting of the board of directors of the Southern California Retail Grocers' Association it was recommended that the grocers of Los Angeles give their support to the candidacy of W. C. Mushet for City Controller."

TUNNELS IN CITY URGED BY GREGORY

Mayoralty Candidate in Favor of Placing Busses on Downtown Streets

Councilman Miles S. Gregory, Mayoralty candidate, speaking last night before the Bellevue Civic Improvement Association, pledged his support for the construction of pedestrian safety tunnels under traffic arteries, and also outlined a constructive program for wider streets and the elimination of street cars in the downtown congested district and the use of motor busses. He said:

"I am greatly in favor of more eighty and 100-foot streets leading from the downtown districts. I do not favor the wider arteries in the congested business districts, owing to the fact that pedestrians are unable to cross them safely. The pedestrians should be safeguarded in crossing busy thoroughfares by the building of raised islands in the center of the streets.

"All street-car traffic should be eliminated from the downtown districts. Street cars should be stopped outside the congested district where passengers would be transferred to motor busses which would travel close to the curbing, leaving the center of the streets free and open for through automobiles and through traffic. It will also reduce to a minimum the danger of accidents to pedestrians on the streets."

Congestion Prophecy

Henry Ford's first airplane has been launched, and if it is as prolific as his first flivver, the birds will have to hunt a new sky to fly in.—[Omaha Bee.

WARNING!

Unscrupulous politicians have again resorted to their customary election-year trick of tucking campaign dodgers in copies of The Times after they have left the Times Building on their way to subscribers.

The public is advised that no such circulars emanate from The Times and that any person caught placing them in copies of the paper will be prosecuted for malicious mischief.

quired for your proposed purchase, would forever have precluded any possibility of Los Angeles taking part in your now treasured scheme of development of the Colorado River.

"Immediate failure of this issue as a vote-catcher was soon apparent to your trusted 'adviser,' Kent Parrot. Recognition of its impractability and impossibility made this 'issue' poor campaign material. But why, Mayor Cryer, was it ever advanced? If not as a vote-catcher, why?"

BLEDSOE INDORSED

Louis J. Christopher, president of L. J. Christopher & Co., ice-cream manufacturers, yesterday issued the following indorsement of the Bledsoe candidacy:

"I consider that it is to the best interests of every business man, every property owner and every man and woman who are making their living in Los Angeles that Judge Benjamin F. Bledsoe be elected Mayor for the next four years under the new charter. A great city growing as rapidly as is Los Angeles needs a firm and steady hand at the helm. The Mayoralty of Los Angeles is a big job and we need a man who can measure up to it. I feel that a better selection than Judge Bledsoe could not be made."

Advising members of the colored race to vote for Judge Benjamin F. Bledsoe, the East Side Independent League, a large organization looking to good government in Los Angeles, yesterday circulated thousands of marked ballots bearing the signature of Ella L. Cassells, secretary, to its members with the X placed after the name of Judge Bledsoe in the Mayoralty column.

TERMINAL WORK STARTS MONDAY

work now is being done on temporary trackage for operating in and out of the station pending the completion of the terminal.

For the past two months the Pacific Electric has been working on the erection of a reinforced station on the south end of the Hillstreet property, for temporary use, and it is now nearing completion, as is also a new substation unit at the western terminus of the tunnel. The new power plant, costing $110,000, will provide additional power required on account of the heavy operation through the tunnel.

The Walker company was given the contracts for both the terminal station and the office building. Mr. Pontius stated, because the awarding of both to the same contractor will have the effect of speeding the completion of the project, due to the elimination of conflicts and interference that frequently arise when two contractors are engaged in associated projects.

WIFE CHARGES MATE TRICKED HER; SUES

Declaring the man she asserted she lived with eighteen months as a wife abandoned her with the statement that he had a wife in Europe, Rose Paiss yesterday brought $10,000 damages against Louis Lefkovitz. Miss Paiss said she agreed to a ceremony with Lefkovitz before witnesses August 5, 1923, and that Lefkovitz thereafter introduced her as his wife and placed her name in legal documents as his wife. She said the defendant left her March 15, last. The complaint was prepared by Attorney A. Lewis Silk.

RE-ELECT THE SCHOOL BOARD

Here Are the Names of the Members; Vote for Them on Tuesday

The seven incumbent members of the Los Angeles Board of Education are candidates for re-election. Their willingness to continue the public service which they have contributed during the last two years is guaranty of another period of harmonious, effective, honest administration of the city's school system and a continuation of the program of school expansion and extension for which the people have voted millions of dollars. Each member has demonstrated markes fitness for the work each has been called upon to accomplish.

The incumbent candidates are:

Robert A. Odell
John B. Beman
Arthur S. Bent
Robert L. Burns
Elizabeth Louise Clark
Frederick R. Feltshans
Lucia Macbeth

Hundreds of representative citizens and organizations are actively backing the candidacies of the seven incumbents in order that existing favorable conditions throughout the school department may not be impaired or destroyed.

WILL HONOR ST. PAUL'S DEAN

Cathedral Worshipers to Observe Dr. MacCormack's Seventeenth Year in Pulpit

Special services of rejoicing, which will include plans for greater efforts to serve the citizens of Los Angeles in the future, will mark the programs at St. Paul's Cathedral tomorrow, in celebration of the seventeenth anniversary of Dr. William MacCormack as Dean of the Cathedral. Dr. MacCormack will speak in the morning on "Reminiscences of My Ministry."

At the evening service, following an organ recital by Dudley Warner Fitch, Dr. MacCormack will preach a sermon dealing with vital religious, social and political subjects. Among the questions to be discussed are the following: "Do you agree with the Bishop of Lincoln that modern preachers have lost their punch because they have ceased to preach brimstone? What is the meaning of the phrase 'quick and the dead'? Will people have another chance in another world? Should the words 'till death us do part' be omitted from the marriage ceremony? What is the best way to break a bad habit? What political significance has the election of Hindenburg? Is it true that the Devil is a being of great knowledge, beauty and powed? Would you change your religion to marry the one you love?"

A complimentary dinner in honor of Dr. and Mrs. MacCormack will be given by members of the church at the Cathedral House at 6:30 p.m. next Wednesday.

NEW PASTOR CHOSEN

Rev. William S. Matthews, D.D., who for the last three years has been pastor of the First Baptist Church of Dibuna, has accepted the invitation to become pastor of the Memorial Baptist Church and will begin his pastoral duties at that church tomorrow. In the morning Dr. Matthews will preach on "A Ready Man," his subject for evening being "The Man with a Vision."

TO HEAR HELEN KELLER

Miss Helen Keller and her teacher, Mrs. Anne Sullivan Macy, will be heard in brief addresses tomorrow evening at the Hollywood Methodist Church, South, according to announcement made yesterday by Dr. Theodore Kemp, the pastor. At the morning hour, Dr. Kemp will preach on "Loving the Unlovable."

TO SPEAK FROM KHJ

True freedom is not to be found in the acquisition of influence, power, possessions and the right to indulge in worldly pleasures, but rather in the surrender to the will of God and the application of the principles of Christ to daily living, according to the opinion of Rev. Benjamin Urquidi, pastor of El Salvador Mexican Baptist Church. Mr. Urquidi will speak (in Spanish) on this theme tomorrow at 10 a.m. from The Times broadcasting station.

"WHAT ABOUT ANGELS?"

"Who and what are the angels? Are they real or imaginary beings? How many are there and what is their work and mission?" Dr. Elmer E. Helms, pastor of the First Methodist Church, promises to answer these questions in his sermon on "What About Angels?" tomorrow morning. In the evening Dr. Helms will tell of "The Man who Stood By."

"PROTECT YOUR POWER"

"In the history of Los Angeles no greater issue has ever been before the people than the issue with which each individual is now confronted," declares Dr. G. A. Briegleb, pastor of the Westlake Presbyterian Church, who has announced his intention to preach tomorrow evening on the subject, "Protect Your Water and Power Supply by Voting for the Right Man." Dr. Briegleb's subject for the morning is "Hosea—the Sin Against Love."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Services will be conducted tomorrow at 11 a.m. at the eighteen Christian Science churches of Los Angeles. The subject of the lesson-sermon is "Everlasting Punishment." Services will be conducted tomorrow at 8 p.m. at First, Second, Third, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Ninth, Tenth and Thirteenth churches. All churches hold regular Wednesday evening meetings, at which testimonies of Christian Science healing are given. Sunday morning services of Third Church are radiocast on the first Sunday of each month.

DR. SMITH TO GO EAST

"Why do not Los Angeles ministers pray for the President of the United States?" is a question to be discussed by Dr. Herbert Booth Smith in his sermon tomorrow evening at the Immanuel Presbyterian Church. Another question to be discussed is "Did the Presbyterians or Unitarians Win the the Revolutionary War?" In the morning Dr. Smith will discuss the question, "Can We Believe in the Ascension of Jesus?" Next week Dr. Smith will go to Columbus, O., to represent the Los Angeles Presbytery at the General Assembly which begins on the 21st inst.

"DARE WE FOLLOW HIM?"

"There is so much spurious Christianity these days, so much playing at religion that there is need for us to get down to what it means to be a Christian," declares Rev. Gordon Palmer of the South Park Baptist Church, who will preach tomorrow morning on the subject, "Dare We Follow Christ?" In the evening Dr. Palmer will discuss "Stumbling Blocks to Progress."

"SINS OF THE CHURCH"

The first of a series of sermons on "Love, Courtship and Marriage," will be preached by Rev. J. A. V. Pieters at the Hoover-street Baptist Church tomorrow evening when he will discuss the question "Who Should Marry?" The topic for the morning discourse is "The Sins of the Church."

"IS IT SCIENCE?"

"Do Modernists Deny the Atonement?" is the subject of a sermon to be preached by Rev. Bob Shuler tomorrow morning at the Trinity Methodist Church. In a sermon on "Christian Science—Is It Science and Is It Christian?" to be preached in the evening, Mr. Shuler will discuss the following question: "Does Christian Science Deny the Atonement? Does Christian Science Deny Conscious Salvation?"

"JESUS AN EVOLUTIONIST"

Dr. Frank Dyer promises to prove that Jesus and St. Paul were evolutionists when he preaches at the Forum Theater tomorrow morning. The latest findings of science on the question of the origin of the species will be discussed. Conrad Nagel will be a guest at the service and will recite "God of the Open Air." At the same hour Dr. Charles F. Aked, associate pastor with Dr. Dyer of the Wilshire Boulevard Congregational Church, will preach at the Ambassador Hotel Theater on "Cantankerous Goodness." Dr. Aked will also be in charge of the service at the Ambassador at 5 p.m., when he will speak on "Pipa Passes—the Splendor and Glory of a Day."

"THE FOUR DIMENSIONS"

A noted priest, speaking recently from The Times' broadcasting station, declared: "The fourth dimension is a scientific pipe dream." Dr. George Davidson will give his opinion of "The Four Dimensions" in a sermon at St. John's Episcopal Church tomorrow evening. The subject for the morning discourse is "Beholding Christ." There are no rented pews at St. John's Church.

"THE DEATH PENALTY"

"Does California do right in hanging its murderers? Is capital punishment a relic of barbarism?" These questions will be discussed by Dr. M. Howard Fagan, pastor of the Wilshire Boulevard Christian Church, in his sermon on "The Death Penalty" tomorrow evening. The subject for morning is "Manhood in the Making."

"SACRIFICE OF GOD"

Dr. W. F. Middlemass of Occidental College, "one of the greatest Scottish thinkers and preachers of the day," will be in charge of services at the First Presbyterian Church tomorrow morning, when he will discuss "The Sacrifice of God the Father." Go To Church Sunday

Why You Should Go To Church

By Leila Simon Castberg, Church of Divine Power

Leila Simon Castberg
Pastor
Church of Divine
Power

Today the advanced modern church promulgates a practical religion which can be applied to the problems of everyday life, not a Sunday religion, but one for every day of the week. Never before has man so needed to go to church. If he is sick, he finds the way to health; if poor, his circumstances improve; if he has lost his old familiar moorings he finds a God of love working through evolution and science.

Religious forms change, true religion is fixed and eternal. Today there is a great spiritual awakening in all parts of the world, a surging, vital Back to God movement, and every forward looking man and woman will seek that church and affiliate with it, which gives him a sense of the true meaning of life, soul sanity, bodily health and natural experimental communion with God.

Do you agree with the Bishop of Lincoln that modern preachers have lost their punch because they have ceased to preach "brimstone?"
What is the meaning of the phrase "Quick and the Dead"?
Will people have another chance in another world?
Should the words "Till death do us part" be omitted in the marriage ceremony?
What is the best way to break a bad habit?
What political significance has the election of Hindenburg?
Do you agree with the statement that the devil is a being of great knowledge, beauty and power?
Would you change your religion to marry the person you loved?

A WOMAN'S LOOKS

When a woman is told that a hat makes her look ten years younger if she has passed 40 she is tempted to buy two of them.

UNLIMITED TRAINS

The Queen of Italy wants the women of her court to wear trains. It would take more than a Queen to enforce long dresses and long hair on the women of America—even if it were done in the name of fashion.

GATHERING GRAPES

California is doing nobly, but, at that, is not furnishing the nation with all the grapes that are demanded. We shipped more than 50,000 carloads of them East last season, but more than $300,000 worth of grapes were imported from Argentina, to say nothing of those from Spain and Italy. Official prohibition was the greatest stimulant the grape market ever had.

NOT SO WORSE

Von Hindenburg indicates a purpose to sit tight and refrain from rocking the boat. He is in accord with most of the Dawes plan and he is strong for obtaining assurances of permanent peace. He seems to be an old man who is tired of war and, if so, his administration should not be a source of danger to Germany's neighbors. He furnishes better hostages for Germau's future than could be supplied by the Socialists.

MAY NOT SEARCH

So far as Washington is concerned the home-brewing industry may continue indefinitely. At least the Supreme Court of the District is reported as holding that, so long as the home-brewer or distiller made no effort to sell his product, he cannot be disturbed by the officers and his home is immune from search. Most of the early home-brewers voluntarily retired from the business because of its messy character and the unsatisfactory quality of the product.

WORLD PICTURES

It is mentioned that the movie of "The Covered Wagon" ran for six months in London and for more than three months in Paris, Copenhagen, Rome, Melbourne and Tokio. In practically all of the world's noted capitals American films have the right of way and those that endure best here go strongest there. There is proof that the screen supplies a universal language. When the world is as one Hollywood is likely to be the capital. There are thousands who even now believe it to be a capital place to live. A strip of celluloid girdles the earth. It begins and ends in this district.

APOSTLES OF ANARCHY

Paris is going to shake out the Russian representatives at the French capital because of their activities in extending a world commune. Even the Russian diplomats and ambassadors cannot refrain from becoming fiery apostles of their bloody faith. Why is it that a Russian, who has never in all history had a government that he could be proud of, is always seeking to disturb or demolish the foundations of whatever country he happens to be in? As a safety measure the rest of the world might best withdraw all social and commercial contacts with Russia and suffer it to simmer in its juice. The soviet system cannot extend itself over the world until it has given concrete proof of its worth in Russia.

SAVING A TREE

Tree doctors are said to have saved the life of the great cypress near Newbern, N. C., which afforded shelter to Gens. George Washington and Nathaniel Greene in the stormy days of the young republic. The tree is nearly twenty feet in circumference and is said to be nearly 1000 years old. It is mentioned as being the most ancient of the identified historical trees of America, but was being destroyed by insects and parasites when the experts were called in. They cut out the decayed parts, sterilized the cavities, put in a filler and otherwise treated the patient so that a few more centuries of life are said to be assured. Electricity and modern conditions are hard on trees, but thousands of them are still running strong.

NURMI AT NIGHT

Paavo Nurmi gracefully conferred fresh distinction upon Los Angeles by saving up a few more world records for shattering in our midst. He has added to the glory of our magnificent Coliseum and supplied a universal seal of approval upon the selection of this city for the Olympic games for 1932. We can furnish the spectators for any achievement in any worthy sport and we supply the setting to make it picturesque and inspiring. With little announcement or advance information a gathering of nearly 50,000 persons turned out to behold a stranger from Finland flutter around the Exposition track under the amiable beam of the electrics. Field events at night are something new, but may become a regular diet—thanks to the opening made by the immensely popular Finnish flyer.

THE INTERNATIONAL CODE

From the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. After four years of dealing in an executive capacity with international problems, ex-Secretary Hughes, president of the American Association of International Law, told that association at its annual meeting:

> World peace can ultimately be effected only through the clarification and codification of international law, and this is to be accomplished only through a great conference of representatives of all the nations of the earth. . . . The United States must lead the way. . . . The appropriate support of the permanent Court of International Justice by the government of the United States will not be delayed much longer. . . . Not improbably the nations may thus be led to avail themselves more readily of the necessary international legislative government processes to perfect the law and to satisfy enlarged conceptions of international justice.

Untrameled with the robes of office, Secretary Hughes is able to do for the culmination of that great desideratum for which Presidents McKinley, Roosevelt and Harding died in the harness and for which Secretaries Hayes, Taft, Root and Hughes himself have fought so constantly and unrelentingly, what was interdicted as an official with a desk at the foot of Congress from which thunder and lightning were hurled at him at every mention of the word International Court.

International law has provided for certain general sources of international differences of opinion, with rules of maritime law far in the lead. Post and telegraph laws are well matured to satisfy all nations concerned. International banking regulations, commercial directions, labor rules, industrial precepts, tariffs, customs, emigration and immigration precautions, etc., etc., are so well established as to cause but little friction which the courts cannot readily decide.

That economic expansion, political preferences, favored nation clauses, tariffs, naval and military prerogatives, property rights, foreign birth and domicile influences are still sources of distrust among the nations is but reasonable. As a question of ultimate resource they all turn again on dubious points of right and the abuse of power. Until an equitable adjustment of these rights has been arrived at among nations there will be wars and rumors of war. It is inconceivable that in our age, when equality of rights and emancipation of persons in all nations is assured, group equality of the same nations is still held in abeyance. For, if rights of persons as national subjects are conceded, their group rights are but a natural sequence as nations, which are aggregates of individual persons.

Right is a legitimate, inalienable moral faculty inherent in or acquired by a nation as well as a person. Power is a faculty flowing from a right and vested in a person or groups of persons based and founded on a right. That rights have overlapped in the long course of economic evolution is but natural and unavoidable where in the racial, tribal and national divisions of peoples all potential differences of opinions could not possibly have been foreseen. And yet is this pardonable oversight of our respective ancestors a cause sufficiently grave and serious to call for the spilling of rivers of blood and the destruction of billions of property caused by inter-racial and international wars?

Both personal and national rights are founded in laws, national and international, or treaties and agreements. But treaties and agreements are, after all, only ex-parte or side issues between certain nations. Art. XXVIII of the Versailles covenant provides for registration of all treaties made between certain nations with the secretariat; but such records do not provide a universal law except as between the treaty-making nations.

Even codification of international laws is not the last word in the matter of legislation. It is merely the recording of such laws which are agreed upon by certain or all nations. Codification means, after all, only tabulation. Until actual world legislation has come to the point where full sanction stands back of it with actual and moral force to enforce the laws made codification will only have the influence of a filing cabinet. However, Secretary Hughes, in asking for codification in connection with the International Court, points out he wishes merely:

> . . . to emphasize the incalculable advantage of having such a tribunal to aid in the development of international law; to reinforce the law-abiding sentiment through recourse to the exercise of its jurisdiction and acceptance of its decisions.

There lies the important notice of his utterance. Voluntarily divested of executive authority, he can now say things that would not be seemly coming from a government official.

THE REVOLT OF WOMEN

Divorces are growing four and five times as fast as the population, and in two cases out of three the wife applies for the divorce. These are the findings of Sociologist Ellwood of the University of Missouri, the State where people insist on the facts.

In 1922 the divorces of the country numbered 148,554, or one for every 7.6 marriages. Oregon had one for every 2.6. She seems to be the banner State, if banners be given for such records.

California had one divorce for every 5.1 marriages; Ohio one for every 5.2; Maine one for every 5.8. Canada's record is the cleanest with one divorce for every 161 marriages. England comes second with one for every ninety-six.

Various are the cures suggested. The Country Gentleman is filled with pride because there seem to be more divorces in the city than in the country. Divorce is a complication of cityitis.

Much of the evil of the day is blamed on the backwash of the war, and the sediment stirred up in the maelstrom of 1914. Many a girl married a uniform without looking to see what was inside of it.

The auto is blamed for hauling too much grist to the divorce mill. Home has become but a roost at night and a place to feed by day. About the only time the family hears the head using religious words is when some one puts him into a pocket on the highway. And about the only time the other head is heard is when she indulges in back seat driving.

A Scotchman rises up and states that a fish diet will free folks from domestic troubles. Herring, he says, have a mellowing magic in their large offering of protein. And he makes out a good case in his country. Therefore, eat fish instead of red beef and live happily ever after.

Small families are the cause of divorce, suggests another. There are not enough brothers and sisters to knock off the corners. There are not enough children to learn to live with others and so are hard to live with as mates. Children are the tie that binds.

Modern flat life is criticised roundly. The home is just a flat, and morals are flat—and life is flat—and love is flat—and religion is flat—and marriage is flat!

The double standard is attacked with venom. Time was when women bore disgrace and disease in silence and died by inches in secrecy. Now she runs! And she is athletic enough to run. She not only has upright ideas, but upright carriage.

The woman thinks it over a long time nowadays before she decides to be tied up to some two-by-four proposition by two apron strings for life. It is a new day and she is a new girl.

Masculinity is confronted by a domination equal to that in which he held woman through the ages. And by her! Some women hate to give up a $200 job for a marked-down, on-the-bargain-counter, $49 map.

ALASKAN PROGRESS

Alaska figures prominently among those sections of the United States mentioned in the recent report of the Federal Department of Commerce as not having suffered trade losses during the past year, but as having enjoyed commercial and industrial expansion. For any part of the country to have held its own in that period is considered by statisticians as a good record, but, like Southern California, the Territory of Alaska has progressed in a very satisfactory way and its prospects are bright for the present year.

The faith felt by our government in the future of Alaska when it paid the Russian government $7,200,000 for that province fifty-eight years ago in a deal called by some critics "Seward's folly," because of the reported barrenness of the country, was fully justified by the discoveries of gold which have been followed by the production of $320,000,000 of that precious metal along with copper, coal and other minerals of enormous value, the whole yield being, all told, nearly $500,000,000. This faith had new demonstration in 1914, when Congress authorized the building of a railroad not to exceed 1000 miles in length, of which about 500 miles are now in operation. The cost of this railroad, at war-time prices, exceeded $56,000,000. Like most government investments of this order, the road has not proved a financial success, the deficit during the eight years of its operation being about $8,000,000, but the main line and coal-road branches have been of tremendous service in developing new and marvelously rich territory. The coal beds alone will in time warrant the expenditure, for they are enormous, and the steaming value of the product, as fully tested by the United States Navy, has been found equal to that of the famous Pocahontas mines.

Oil of high grade is found in various parts of Alaska and has been developed to a satisfactory extent in the Katalla field, on Controller Bay. The fuel supply, however, probably will be limited to coal during the next few years, and it is estimated that $1,000,000 worth of that mineral will be produced annually at the present rate of development.

One does not naturally think of Alaska as an agricultural country, as its seasons are short and the frigidity of the winter climate in the interior is truly Arctic. But on the coast, owing to the Japanese current, the cold is not so severe as in many of our Northern States, the thermometer rarely falling below zero in Southern Alaska, with a maximum of about 80 degrees in summer. Rain is abundant. The hours of sunlight in summer are long, ranging up to twenty-three a day. In that season the inhabitants hardly know when to go to bed. It is easy for the farmer to make hay while the sun shines when the night is only two or three hours long. All the hardier vegetables and cereals except corn thrive there. In the country tributary to the government railroad there are over 1,000,000 acres suitable for farming without costly drainage, and about 65,000,000 suitable for grazing. There are at present about 7000 acres under cultivation.

The reindeer herd introduced by the government from Lapland in 1892 has grown from 1200 to over 300,000, despite the fact that killing has been going on steadily and that last year about 200,000 pounds of reindeer meat was exported.

Alaska gets into the blood of the hardy visitor, who, after going away, always is sighing to return. This attraction augurs well for the development of the country and there is plenty of it to develop.

PRISONER OF WAR

The French still call Von Hindenburg a war prisoner, but they might have some trouble in rounding the old gentleman up and slapping him into the bastille.

Just About It
by James J. Montague

JUST PLAIN WANDERLUST

Ornithologists tell us that if robins and other migratory birds knew that they could keep warm and find plenty of food in the north they would never migrate.

Mister Robin, if you knew
You could live the winter through—
Very comfortably, too,—

If you knew your feathered form
Would remain quite snug and warm
Through the wildest winter storm,—

If you knew that you might find
Seeds of every sort and kind,
When for food you felt inclined,—

If you did not fly away
For a five-month holiday,
Where the world is always May,—

Would you journey every year,
When the leaves fall brown and sere
To the southern hemisphere?

Would you leave your native land
For some far and foreign strand,
By spice-scented breezes fanned?

When November came around,
On the wing would you be found,
Far aloft, and southward bound?

Well, if I had wings like you,
When the winds of autumn blew,
That's exactly what I'd do,
And I fancy you would, too!

(Copyright, 1925, by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

THAT FISHING FEVER

Don't you sort o' get to wishing
That you'd like to go a-fishing,
When these spring days find you crabbed and contrary as a mule?
How'd you like to be a-resting
On some mossy bank, and testing
The old rod and watch your cork a-bobbing, bobbing in the pool?

With a tempting spot before you
And the green boughs bending o'er you,
And with eager expectation banishing all thoughts of care,
You are freed from all resentment
To'ard the world; and sweet contentment
Warms your soul and gives you freedom that's denied the millionaire.

Some think it more fascinating
Where the wary trout are waiting,
As they whip the nooks and ripples of some tumbling mountain stream;
But I'll seek the quiet river

LETTERS TO The Times

At Whose Expense?

LOS ANGELES, April 30.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I have a letter from the Mayor's campaign treasurer asking for money to help re-elect Mr. Cryer Mayor. The letter says: "He is the only candidate who has come out squarely for the All-American Canal." But neither the letter nor Mr. Cryer says anything about who is to pay for the suggested canal.

I have land in the Imperial Irrigation District and am a voter here. So I want to know whether I am expected to bond my land down there to build the canal or whether our city is expected to bond itself to build the canal. In either case I am against it. If the Mayor means that we should vote here on the canal issue at the expense of Imperial, then it is a very foolish and shallow plank in his platform and should be resented by the Imperial people. It is not this city's business to meddle in the affairs down there. Neither is it the Mayor's business.

If he means that the city should get the canal at its own expense the people here should know it so they can vote intelligently. I wish he would tell us now.

Nearly all of the largest Imperial land owners I know are strongly against voting bonds to help pay for such a canal. Our need is for a dam to control the river flow and we will never suffer again from water shortage or floods. Personally, I should also like a high dam built by the government furnishing water and power for this city.

See the Consul First

LOS ANGELES, April 27.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I read in today's issue of one of the Los Angeles newspapers that a Mr. E. M. Lovett of San Jose bought certain lands in Bolivia which were "just wilderness" and not as represented by their Los Angeles promoters, who even failed to grant a clear title to them.

It will be to the advantage of those who contemplate acquiring lands in Bolivia not to overlook the fact that there are in the most important cities of the United States Consular representatives, established by the Bolivian government, who will gladly furnish such information as would be necessary before undertaking ventures of this kind.

American capital amounting to millions of dollars has already been invested in Bolivia, following this logical procedure, and in every instance no "imaginary cities" have been sought, the investors having secured the facts first.

I will appreciate the publication of this letter.

JORGE D. ALBORTA.

"What's in a Name?"

LOS ANGELES, April 29.—[To the Editor of The Times:] As I see it, there is only one issue before the voters on the Mayor campaign, and it is not whether "Harry calls him Ben" or "Kent calls him George," but shall the gamblers and bootleggers run the city as they do now? We have as good a fire department as any city in the United States. Now if we can take politics out of the police department and have it function as the fire department does we will have the problem solved.

I do not see how Mr. Cryer can do the job as he is hog tied, and has done nothing but fish and talk in the past. We want a man with backbone, and I don't care who calls him Ben. I think Judge B. F. Bledsoe is an honest, fearless and just man and I'm for him.

Humming Birds

HOLLYWOOD, April 28.—[To the Editor of The Times:] This morning I read that certain groups in England are arousing themselves to protest against the dreadful cruelty of using stuffed humming birds to trim women's hats. Doubtless many humane-minded ladies who would not dream of adorning themselves with dead birds will wrap their costly fur coats about them or don their summer "neck-pieces"—articles both which have cost wild animals untold tortures at the trapper's hands—and sally forth in search of millinery guiltless of feathers or to attend a meeting of some society devoted to the protection of stray cats and dogs. Made in California

LOS ANGELES, April 30.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Just a word of appreciation of two poems by Lee Shippey and James Warnack. The tender tribute paid by the former to the mother of his children in his "Home Coming" in Tuesday's paper is a solace to the ache that never leaves the heart of wife and mother. A tribute is also due James Warnack for the beauty of the expressive language with which he clothed his thoughts of the passing months in his "Resurrection" in Wednesday's paper. It is a pleasure to express our pride in these poets whom we call our own.

Milk As a Food

Milk as a food for everyone has been extensively advertised in the United States in the past few years, and apparently with convincing force. Statistics from 300 cities and 30,000 farms indicate that in 1925 the consumption of milk was fifty-three gallons to a person, as compared with fifty gallons in 1922 and forty-nine gallons in 1921. In Boston the consumption to a person has advanced in eight years from thirty-five to sixty-four gallons.—[Cleveland Plain Dealer.

PEN POINTS

For that matter, about 90 per cent of us take our own lives.

No town is a good town to the man who feels sorry for himself.

Hair tonic might be worse; it doesn't make anybody sing "Sweet Ad-o-line."

Swellhead never becomes chronic until a man has climbed as high as he is going.

The words usually associated with suffering are "ouch" and "That reminds me."

The modern girl is different, but her chief interest continues to be a three-letter fish beginning with "m."

There's small choice. If you're lively you're an old cake-eater; and if you're quiet you're an old kill-joy.

Woman's thumb bends backward farther than man's, but think how long it has exerted pressure.

An old-timer can remember when a naughty past was a handicap instead of material for a magazine article.

It's a hard world. If you don't lift your hat you expose your bad manners; if you do you expose your bald spot.

A faint heart never won a fair lady, but otherwise it has no particular advantage.

What a fine world this would be if people would spend as much energy practicing their religion as they spend quarreling about it.

We are all much alike, and even a very nice little schoolgirl may think "Darn" when she gets the wrong answer.

The old-fashioned man who used to call and shake hands now calls and shakes a leg.

Often when I'm gayly driving hitting up some twenty miles in the hope of soon arriving, I have grief in many styles. For my flivver's old and battered and her engine's out of whack, and she's always wildly scattered bolts and casting on the track. When she gasps and quits her chooing I descend, with aching heart, and go zooking and beshrewing, try to fix the broken part. I'm this great world's worst mechanic and you couldn't find my mate if you searched from York to Yaanek. If you combed your native State. Underneath the auto creeping soon I sprain my neck and knee, and I spring unmanly weeping that is pitiful to see. Then some fellow comes a-loping down the highway in his car and beholds me madly groping in the oil and grease and tar. And he halts his prancing Lizzie and remarks, "You're old and fat, you are spavined, bald and dizzy and unfit for work like that. Crawl away and drink a flagon of cold water from the rill; I will fix your busted wagon with the hearty eat good will. When I'm old and fat and flabby and my bus is on the blink, and the luck seems dark and shabby there may come someone helpful gink; there may come some kindly voter who will say, as I sat now, 'I will fix your locoed motor while you rest and bathe your brow.'" When he's fixed my twisted fender I remark, as off I trot, "Hearts are just as kind and tender as they ever were, I wot."

RACING TO BEAT STORK IS FATAL

Father Killed; Condition of Mother is Critical

One Other Woman Injured; Driver Bruised

A race with the stork brought death yesterday to Aaron Tessell, 24 years of age, of 960 East Twenty-second street, serious injury to his mother, Mrs. Ida Tessell, and shock which may kill also his wife, Mrs. Rosa Tessell, 25. Mrs. Tessell gave birth to an eight-pound baby boy in Receiving Hospital, a few minutes after her husband had been thrown headfirst to the pavement of Whittier Boulevard and killed. The driver of the car in which they were riding, Philip Tessell, brother of Aaron, was cut and bruised.

The Tessells started in a hurry yesterday from their home to take Mrs. Tessell to Kaspare-Cohn Hospital, 3942 Whittier Boulevard. In the 2500 block on Whittier Boulevard the driver attempted to pass another car going in the same direction. His car swerved; he attempted to right it, turned too far in the other direction and swerved again. The car overturned and crashed into an electric pole.

Aaron Tessell was dead when spectators of the accident reached him. They took the two women and driver from the wreck of the car and they were taken in a police ambulance to Receiving Hospital, where Mrs. Tessell's baby was born. She was found not to have been injured severely in the wreck, but the double shock of the accident and of childbirth made her condition critical, it was said. Mrs. Ida Tessell suffered internal injuries and shock and her condition also is considered critical. The two women and the baby were transferred to French Hospital. Philip Tessell was treated at Receiving Hospital.

Carmen Leterio, the young beauty who captured the affections of Arthur S. Corbin only to have him on charges of grand larceny and embezzlement against her, won a dismissal of these charges yesterday. She is still awaiting trial on a charge of robbery.

The dismissal of the charges of grand larceny and embezzlement was ordered by Judge Hardy of the Superior Court at the request of Asst. Dist.-Atty. McCartney. Her arrest had followed a tangle over a love gift in the form of a $900 platinum wrist watch bestowed on the girl by Corbin. He maintained that she stole the watch and pawned it at San Francisco. She declared that the watch was an outright gift and therefore hers to do with as she pleased. The District Attorney's office, after an investigation, was forced to agree with her.

She was arrested a second time while out on bail on these charges in connection with the hold-up and robbery in Elysian Park of a man and a woman and is now awaiting trial on the robbery charge with H. Price, her companion in the reported hold-up.

Consul General of Poland is Due to Arrive Today

DR. J. BARTEL DE WEYDENTHAL

Dr. J. Bartel De Weydenthal, Consul-General from Poland to the United States, will arrive on the Santa Fe today at 1:15 p.m. for several days' visit with the Polish colony. He is a member of an old aristocratic family and one of the youngest men ever appointed to the post of Consul-General.

Plans for his visit here include a dinner this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Romanowicz in Glendale; a banquet at the Polish Auditorium tomorrow evening, a visit to the studios Monday and a luncheon Wednesday by the Chamber of Commerce. The Federation of Polish Clubs will give a dinner Wednesday evening at the Ambassador, with Dr. Weydenthal as the guest of honor and principal speaker.

NEW BIDS SNARL CITY PIPE MIX-UP

Laurel Canyon Project is Further Complicated

Six Companies Enter Field to Supply Material

Prices Quoted Lower Than Those in Contract

The $300,000 Laurel Canyon pipe-line tangle before the Board of Public Service Commissioners became a bit more complicated yesterday when six companies put in bids for the contract to provide another 200,000 feet of water mains.

The Pacific Pipe and Supply Company underbid all on the 120,000 feet of six-inch pipe and Grinnell Company underbid all on the 80,000 feet of four-inch pipe. This, so far as prices are concerned, apparently shuts out Cranes Company, with which the board became entangled in a previous contract award, leaving Crane with about $150,000 of pipe on its hands which might have been disposed of yesterday had it not been underbid.

The low prices bid yesterday may also cause embarrassment to the board because they are considerably under prices at which the board is contracting to buy 200,000 feet of the same kind of pipe from the Associated Supply Company.

The board in March awarded a contract for the same quantity of pipe to Crane, then rescinded its action and made the award to the Associated. Meanwhile, Crane had ordered the pipe and it is in transit.

Yesterday's competition for pipe in an amount which Crane has left on his hands was ordered by the board on three days' notice and with individual notice sent only to Crane and the Associated.

Four other companies, however, heard of the competition and submitted bids, several of which were lower than Crane's bid.

The board in its dilemma merely opened the bids yesterday and referred them to its supply committee for consideration with the engineering division.

The city will pay $50.98 a hundred feet for four-inch pipe and $39.74 for six-inch pipe in the contract which the board is concluding with the Associated as a result of the former competition. Under Grinnell's bid yesterday the city could receive exactly the same kind and quantity of four-inch pipe for $47.81 and under the Pacific bid it could receive six-inch pipe for $36.44, which would effect a considerable saving of public funds.

Crane bid $50.95 for four-inch and $39.70 for six-inch pipe yesterday.

Pipe companies say the situation is one of great interest, both as to who gets the business and as to what judgment the board exercises in the matter of economical spending of public money.

NEW TRADE MARKET IN ANTIPODES

Pacific Coast to Export Cedar to New Zealand; Clay to be Imported

A new line of trade between the Pacific Coast and New Zealand is being promoted by Claude M. Burley of Auckland, who has just completed arrangements for the export from Oregon to Auckland of supplies of white cedar lumber, and is now negotiating for the importation to this coast of porcelain clay from New Zealand.

Mr. Burley, who arrived at the Alexandria yesterday, is in the lumber business in New Zealand and during the latter part of the war was a member of the British Board of Trade as head of the department furnishing the British Admiralty with timber supplies.

"The first shipment of white cedar lumber from Oregon to New Zealand, amounting to about 3,000,000 feet, will go forward in a short time," Mr. Burley said. "It will be the first shipment of lumber of this kind ever reaching our country. We have imported other varieties of soft woods from America, but never white cedar. Most of our hard woods come from Australia."

Referring to the porcelain clay for which he hopes to create an American market that will enable the lumber freighters to carry a return cargo of this material, Mr. Burley said a vast deposit of this clay, of the finest quality, had recently been discovered not far from Auckland.

POISONINGS GIVE SCARE TO PARENTS

Deputy Sheriffs Search for Slayer of Dogs in Rogers Park District

Search for a poisoner whose activities in the Rogers Park district have resulted in the death of a dozen dogs and peril to small children was begun yesterday by Deputy Sheriffs Allen and Stensland.

The officers were assigned to the investigation after two more deaths of dog pets were reported yesterday by Mrs. J. A. Linney, 1045 West Ninety-second street, and W. R. McJohnson, 1131 West Ninety-second street. A valuable Pekinese dog belonging to Mrs. A. W. Cyech, 1051 West Ninety-first street, was poisoned also, but was saved by a veterinarian. In all cases the dogs were taken sick after eating poisoned food that had been left in the yards of their masters.

Exceptional efforts will be made by the deputies to run down the poisoner, because of the danger to small children, who might pick up the poisoned food and eat it.

The deaths, other than the three that have occurred within the past few days, have extended over a period of several months.

It's not too sweet nor too bitter and it's the healthiest preserve that anybody can eat. It's fine on toast and scones or bread. At your grocer's.

If you want just a plain oil dressing or even a mayonnaise, it must be made of Castruccio Bros. Imported Virgin Olive Oil—else your salad will not be the success it should be. Castruccio Bros.' Olive Oil possesses a flavor and taste which cannot be appreciated until you try it. All our finest grocers sell it. We all need a salad of some kind every day, so when ordering fruit or vegetables remember Castruccio Bros.' olive oil.

Always wash eggs before breaking shells, the shells may then be used for clearing coffee or soup. When uncooked whites or yolks are left over, put them in a cup, cover with a damp cloth and slip a rubber band around the cup. Left-over poached eggs or soft cooked eggs may be returned to hot water and cooked until hard, and may then be chopped and used with cold meat or fish dishes.

Sparklingly clear, pure mountain water free from all contamination or sediment is the safest beverage for any one of us. More especially for the children. And you won't go wrong if you order Arrowhead Mountain Springs Water for drinking purposes—Arrowhead Water is delivered to your home in five-gallon jugs in the natural state at 50 cents. One cannot afford to do without it. Try a demijohn. Telephone Arrowhead Mountain Springs Water Co., HUmbolt 0300.

Fried Liver: Cut liver into cubes, sprinkle with salt and pepper and dredge with flour. Fry in deep fat about a minute and serve garnished with sliced Bermuda onion and sprigs of watercress or parsley.

It will be warm weather tomorrow and there is nothing quite so refreshing on a warm day as the "Sunday Special Bricks" labeled the Lily Brand and distributed exclusively by the L. A. Creamery. You may have a choice of flavors, but, honestly, every one of the Lily Brand flavors are good. Don't bother about a dessert for Sunday. Just telephone your order today. TRinity 1211 or get it at the nearest fountain. Be sure and ask for L. A. Creamery Brick in orange sherbet, black walnut or fruit custard.

An excess of any of these foods will help the body to store a reserve supply of fat.

Down pillows! Well, doesn't the very idea make you think at once of something very restful—comfy? For quality and reasonable price and also service call at Simank Bros. bedding experts, at 725-27 W. 9th st.

Pay for best quality foods, but be certain that you get them. And don't buy from the fancier and expect to get things as cheap as at the little corner store.

Have you heard of the tablecloths with the flannel back? They are called "Sanitas" and, oh, dear! they surely do save a lot of washing. And do you know, a "Sanitas" tablecloth is the best cover imaginable for a kitchen table. Luncheon sets of "Sanitas" are decorated in all colors or are stencilled in beautifully attractive designs. A full line are exhibited at Matthews' Paint Co., 1245 S. Hill street.

A clock is necessary in the kitchen so baking can be timed without effort. It will save many steps and miscalculations. One woman I know has an alarm clock in her kitchen which she sets when she is timing her baking, as she has a very poor memory, and this precaution is her solution.

Oh, for mercy sake, don't throw away your soiled down quilt. You may still enjoy all its pristine or original comfort if you'll send it to the Western Feather and Down Works, 1205 W. Washington. Prices are moderate and the firm is thoroughly reliable.

Cheese Straws: Gather up the trimmings from left-over pastry and roll to a thickness of one-quarter of an inch. Sprinkle one-half with finely grated cheese, salt and a little paprika. Fold, press edges together and roll as before. Repeat this process two or three times, depending on the amount of cheese you wish to use. Then roll out thin, cut in strips five or six inches long and one-fourth inch in width. Place in a shallow pan and bake in a hot oven.

If you buy your seeds, bulbs and plants at Winsel-Gibbs, 211 S. Main, you can get them at half the usual prices.

When washing delicate articles lay them in a pan of suds and "vacuum process" with the large end of a granite funnel, keeping the thumb over the tube end. In this way the suds are forced through the fabric with very little strain.

What a relief for housewives! Imagine unlooked-for visitors at the home and no provisions on hand. Here's where Travaglini's Sphagetti Shop, 1803 W. 7th st., comes to the rescue with roasts of fowl or meat or game in any quantity. Don't worry over a meal. Telephone 62092 and tell what you'd like, and presto! a meal will be delivered at your home.

With the loose dress linings of today it is next to impossible to keep them from slipping and showing beyond the dress. A snap placed on the shoulder strap with the other half of the strap sewn on the underneath part of the shoulder seam of the dress will keep the lining in place at all times.

That new, delightfully perfumed toilet soap we have heard so much about is the Mission Bell Soap. Once used in the household every member in the home wants a cake. Mission Bell Soap is prepared in Los Angeles by the Los Angeles Soap Company especially to overcome the peculiar hardness of the city's water. It lathers so refreshingly and leaves the skin in a clean, healthy condition. Take home a box today and just demonstrate to your own satisfaction that Mission Bell Soap is equal to the best soaps imported from either Paris or London.

Fried Rice: Pack left-over boiled rice in baking powder cans or a bread tin, rinse in cold water. When using, turn out, cut in slices and cook first on one side, then on the other in hot drippings or bacon fat. Serve as a vegetable or as a dessert with syrup.

The novelty and the delight of dining off a foreign dish may be indulged in by getting a genuine Italian dinner at Mora's Specialties, 319 S. Spring street. Take home a pan of tagliarini and ravioli mixed with plenty of mushrooms, tomato sauce and grated cheese. It's mighty good, absolutely wholesome and full of vitamines. Mrs. Mora is noted for her specialties. Try some Vienna balls and delicious pastries.

All the little dried pieces of cheese should be grated and placed in a covered glass jar. They are excellent for made-over dishes, and particularly good to use with starch foods, such as potatoes, macaroni, rice, etc.

ALASKA COD IN CREAM

Make a cream sauce by stirring into four tablespoonfuls of melted butter three tablespoonfuls of sifted flour and stir until it bubbles, do not brown, stir in two cupfuls of milk and stir until thick and smooth; add the slightly beaten yolk of one egg and cook for one minute, do not boil. Season with salt and paprika. Flake one pound of smoked Alaska cod, cover with boiling water and let stand one minute; drain off water and add to the cream sauce. Heat and pour over squares of toast.

CONSOMME SANTA ANA

Parboil one sweet green pepper in boiling salted water, remove seeds and stem, cut in small dice and add to five cupfuls chicken consomme with one cupful of cooked rice and one diced pimiento.

APPLE CREAM PIE

Beat the yolks of three eggs until light and creamy with half a cupful of sugar and mix with them one cupful of freshly grated raw apple, four tablespoonfuls of thick cream, the grated rind of one lemon, four tablespoonfuls of chopped blanched almonds and four tablespoonfuls of currants. Pour the mixture into a pastry lined pie tin and bake in a moderate oven until lightly browned. Make a meringue of the three egg whites and six tablespoonfuls of sugar and mound on the baked pie; brown lightly in a medium oven. Serve cold.

POTATO AND TOMATO SALAD

Cover lettuce-lined plates with peeled and sliced tomatoes, cover these with cubes of cold-boiled potatoes, sprinkle over finely chopped sweet green peppers and pour over a French dressing.

CHEESE CAKE

Mix in a bowl one and a half cupfuls of cottage cheese, one tablespoonful of flour and one tablespoonful of thick cream, beat until smooth. Beat the yolks of three eggs with three tablespoonfuls of sugar until light and creamy, and one tablespoonful of creamed butter, three tablespoonfuls of currants and the grated rind of half a lemon. Combine the mixtures and add the stiffly beaten whites of three eggs and pour mixture into a pastry lined pie tin; bake in a medium oven.

Couple Seized While Stripping Car, Police Say

Mildred Fulton, 21 years of age, of 1735 1-2 West Fifty-fifth street, and J. McDaniels were arrested late Thursday night by Huntington Park police on grand larceny charges after they had been surprised, according to the arresting officers, in the act of stripping a machine stolen from Ralph L. Lower of 1230 Sierra Bonita avenue.

The arrest was made on Hill street in Walnut Park by Patrolmen Hathaway, McClusky and Withrow of Huntington Park, who responded to a phone call from a woman in the neighborhood saying the machine was being stripped. The two suspects were lodged in the County Jail.

The condition of Miss Heloise LeClaire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. LeClaire, 926 South St. Andrews Place, who has been seriously ill for the past five days from an attack of pneumonia, was reported unchanged late yesterday. Miss LeClaire is 17 years of age and is a senior at the Marlborough School. Drs. E. J. Cook and J. T. M. Allan are in attendance.

DAY CASE TO GO TO JURY MONDAY

Girl-Bride Gives Version of Asserted Acid Bath

Defense Blames Marital Row on Rich Mother-in-Law

Sanctity of Home is Basis of Attorney's Plea

Telling members of the jury that they held in their hands the sanctity of the American home—the power to determine whether outside influences should be permitted to wreck the lives of a husband and wife—Attorney Charles B. Stewart, Sr., yesterday closed the defense of Bernice L. Day and Carlyn Lundstrom on an acid-throwing charge by an impassioned plea for acquittal.

Bernice Day stands charged in the court of Superior Judge Hardy with marring the features of her youthful husband, Darby Day, Jr., by throwing acid into his face. Her younger sister, Carlyn, is accused of aiding her in the asserted attack. Defense contends the incident was an accident.

Even that "accident" would not have happened, Attorney Stewart argued, if Bernice had not been a mental and nervous wreck through the steady grinding of the "poisonous arrow of suspicion" in her heart. Too much mother-in-law, in brief, was his summary of the circumstances which led to the "acid bath." He drew a word picture of Mrs. Day, Sr., Bernice's mother-in-law, as a woman of "high type," but one who wrecked by misdirected kindness, a procedure he termed "more deadly" than open rebuke.

TO JURY MONDAY

The question of guilt or innocence will be given to the jury to determine some time Monday morning.

Dep. Dist.-Atty. McCartney, prosecuting the case, will make his closing argument with the convening of court at 10 a.m. He will take about forty minutes.

In her closing moments on the stand, Mrs. Day declared that as she took the acid bottle from her pocket to show it to Darby in an attempt to make him "realize her desperation, he suddenly started the car. The jerk of the automobile tossed the contents of the vial out of the bottle, she declared. Some of it went on Darby; enough to scar him for life. Some of it went on herself. Photographs and the testimony of physicians went into the record to support this contention.

Repeated prior attempts to commit suicide by taking veronal had brought about a highly nervous condition in Bernice, the defense maintained, and drew from Dr. Joseph Walker, a physician and surgeon, testimony to the effect that the doses of veronal she had taken would produce "nervous tremors, ataxia and hallucinations."

MRS. DAY, SR., ON STAND

Only four witnesses were called by Dep. Dist.-Atty. McCartney in rebuttal. Mrs. Day, Sr., denied that she had ever referred to her daughter-in-law as "crazy" as asserted by the defense; Darby denied that it was the motion of the automobile which loosed the contents of the acid bottle, declaring the car had not yet started when he was bathed in the burning fluid; and other witnesses denied statements that Bernice had made regarding the "accident."

Mrs. Grace Lundstrom, mother of the two defendants, testified in support of the claim that Mrs. Day, Sr., had used methods to separate the young husband and wife. She testified that on the day prior to the "acid bath," when Bernice had run away and been found in nearby hills, Mrs. Day, Sr., remarked: "Thank goodness, Bernice has been found. You're her mother. You'll have to take her. I can't have a crazy woman in my house. My brother is coming tomorrow and I'll have enough on my hands."

SISTER'S TESTIMONY

Carlyn Lundstrom, co-defendant, knew nothing of the entire affair until after it was all over, she testified. She said Bernice told her, while they were driving to the Day home the night of the averred attack:

"I'm sick of everything. I want to see Darby and see if his mother has succeeded in getting him away from me."

"Why, Bernie, how do you know that?" the witness said she asked.

"'Even Darby admits it,'" was the asserted reply.

LOVE SLAYING TRIAL OF WAITER IS SET

The trial of Timothy Yatko, Filipino waiter, charged with stabbing to death Harry Kidder, cafe entertainer, in a duel precipitated by the vagrant affections of Lola Kidder, was set for Monday by Judge Hardy of the Superior Court yesterday. It is charged that the Filipino found his wife, a dance hall belle, with Kidder in the latter's apartment on February 26, last, and stabbed Kidder to death in a jealous frenzy. His wife will be the chief prosecution witness against Yatko. It was indicated yesterday.

STATE CLOSES IN CASE AGAINST EX-RECORDER

The evidence for the prosecution closed yesterday in the case of A. H. Floyd, former City Recorder of Culver City, and the defense will open on Monday. The case is in Judge Crail's court. Floyd is charged with nine counts of embezzlement as a public officer, mutilation and alteration of public records. For the State some seven speeders testified to paying fines $25 to $500 in Recorder Floyd's court, other witnesses swearing only a small part of these amounts found its way into the City Treasury. Dep. Dist.-Attys. Shelley and Murray are prosecutors.

LONE ROBBER STRIKES WOMAN, TAKES MONEY

Mrs. Jessie Jordan of 927 East Forty-second street reported yesterday the loss of $5 to a robber. She stepped outside her home Thursday night, she said, and a man rushed from behind a piano box, struck her and knocked her down and took the money. Then he ran away.

Lucky Deals of Embezzler Win Him Probation

Because lucky speculations with his employers' money had enabled him to repay some $43,000 he is said to have embezzled from the California Dental Supply Company, H. B. Miller, former book-keeper for the concern, yesterday was granted ten years' probation by Judge Hardy. Miller has served in the county road camp since February 6. He pleaded guilty to embezzling $16230.

Miller, it was said, bought real estate and made a profit of $100,000. By the terms of his probation he must report monthly and cannot leave Los Angeles county without permission.

H. I. Reynolds Will be Buried This Afternoon

Funeral services for Marry I. Reynolds, investment broker, who died Wednesday afternoon at the Receiving Hospital following an attack of heart disease, will be conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the Ruppe mortuary, 842 South Figueroa street.

Mr. Reynolds was 66 years of age and was born in Delaware. He came to Los Angeles from Philadelphia twenty-one years ago and since that time had been actively engaged in business though suffering from ill health for the past three years.

At the time of his death he was connected with the North American Securities Company in the Story Building. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Sally Reynolds, and two sons, Lieut. Harry V. Reynolds of Honolulu, and Ralph E. Reynolds of this city. Burial will be in the Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

Diet and Health

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

RARE POETRY

"Dear Doctor: I have never dieted, but think I'll begin. The way I am gaining is surely a sin. I never will tell how much I do weigh, but I will admit this: I gain every day! At the rate I am going, by Christmas, I ween, I'll be the worst sight that ever was seen.

"Here's self-addressed envelope and also a dime. With your help and your in'rest, I'll get along fine.—Mrs. Longfellow."

You're very wise truly, my dear Mrs. L. If you keep on a gaining, you'll never be well. The booklet was sent you and I'm sure that by now, you're as slim as a sylph, and your hubby says, "Wow!"

Appetite Stimulators

Mrs. V.—The foods that are rich in vitamins, especially vitamin B, are known to stimulate the appetite. Are you getting enough of them? Here's a list of those highest in that vitamin: tomatoes (raw, canned or dried;) spinach, cabbage, beans, yeast and yeast extracts.

You can gain! Most certainly you can. We have letters from those who have, quite frequently. You simply have to force yourself to eat some over your maintenance diet. You should begin very gradually to increase your food. When you have gained to normal, your Adam's apple will not be so conspicuous.

Yes, your catarrh helps keep you thin and your undereating helps to keep your catarrh.

Not long ago, we ran a course on how to gain. We have the main points of this course in a little booklet which you may have by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope and ten cents in stamps with your request.

Meanwhile, while you are waiting for it, add milk to your diet—have at least a quart a day, and use it in your cooking and all other ways.

Diabetes

Mr. B.—Yes, mild cases of diabetes can be controlled by diet. Insulin is given in the severer cases, but the diet in these cases has to be watched even more carefully than in the milder cases. If your family physician thinks your wife needs insulin, he will give it to her.

(We have a list of books on Diabetes, written for the layman, which you may have by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope with your request.)

Diabetes is a very serious disease. The reason we pay so much attention to overweight is that we can do much to prevent Diabetes by preventing overweight. Seventy-five per cent of the diabetics are overweight before coming down with that disease.

It's Not Fattening!

Mrs. B.—Mayonnaise made with mineral oil is just as delicious as when made with olive oil. And a single serving has so few calories you can ignore them, while a tablespoonful of the ordinary olive or other oil mayonnaise is 100 calories. Aside from not being fattening, it is good for constipation.

Here's the recipe:

Mineral Oil Mayonnaise
1 teaspoon salt
1-2 teaspoon mustard
1-2 teaspoon sugar
Few specks cayenne
1 egg yolk
2 tablespoonfuls vinegar or better, lemon juice
1 1-2 cups mineral oil.

Mix the dry ingredients in a bowl. Add the egg yolks and beat well. Add a few drops of the lemon juice, then a tablespoonful of the oil, drop by drop, beating constantly. When the mixture begins to thicken, add more of the oil, a little at first, alternating with the rest of the lemon juice. Toward the last you can add the oil in larger amounts.

My dear followers: When sending for material which we offer you, please remember to inclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope bearing your full name and address. The pamphlet on reducing and gaining is the only one for which you must inclose 10 cents in stamps extra. Address your letters to me in care of this paper. Make them as brief as possible, not over 300 words, and type or write them legibly with ink. Please sign your name as evidence of good faith—we will not use it in any way. Remember it is impossible for me to diagnose for you or to answer you personally. I appreciate very much the beautiful letters you send me and regret it is impossible to give you individual advice. The questions you ask will be answered in the column as soon as possible, if they are of general interest. Don't forget the stamped, self-addressed envelope if you expect me to send you the information I have offered.

Legion Officer Killing Laid in 1923 is Added to List of Mysteries

William R. Whitwell, charged with secret indictment with the murder on November 13, 1923, of Richard Nagle, an American Legion executive, were his liberation yesterday and authorities indicate that the killing of Nagle may go down in police annals as another unsolved mystery.

The murder charge against Whitwell was dropped by Judge Shaw of the Superior Court at the request of Dep. Dist.-Atty. McCartney. The prosecutor informed the court that the prosecution had succeeded in establishing an unshakeable alibi which showed him to be in San Bernardino at the time Richard Nagle and his brother, J. Nagle, were halted by a pair of gunmen and the former shot to death.

The killing occurred as the two brothers were returning from a Legion carnival at Culver City with about $600 of the proceeds of the affair. Shortly thereafter, Whitwell was secretly indicted by the grand jury and was placed under arrest as he left Leavenworth penitentiary, where he had served time for the theft and transportation of an automobile across the state line.

Jailer Arrives Just in Time to Foil Break

Lamar Cogdell, supple-wristed jailer suspect wanted by police in a half-dozen States on various charges, almost won his way to liberty from a cell in the City Jail here Friday night.

By the use of his supple wrist and long nimble fingers, it was revealed, he succeeded in forcing the lock from his cell door. He then walked out into the adjoining tank, obtained a bar and proceeded to pry the bars loose from a window. He was about to step through to liberty when a jailer spotted him and removed him to another cell. The suspect is said to have escaped from a United States marshal at Dallas, Tex., and also said to be wanted in Louisiana and several other States. He was captured here when he attempted to break into a shoe store on East Ninth street.

EYES IDENTIFY SUSPECT

Ex-Patrolman Arrested Following Look at Photograph by Robber Victim; Another Suspect Freed

Mrs. Una Trevelyn Champ, robbery victim, in Judge Reeve's courtroom yesterday identified one of the robbers by looking at the eyes of a photograph. This resulted in the dismissal of a robbery charge against Marvin Lyons and the arrest of A. N. Briles, formerly a policeman, who had been called as a defense witness in the trial of Lyons and J. W. Thomason. Mrs. Champ had previously identified Lyons as one of the robbers.

The photograph was presented to Mrs. Champ by Defense Attorney William T. Kendrick, Jr., who covered all of the picture except the eyes. Mrs. Champ declared she was sure the eyes were the same she saw during the robbery in her home at 100 South Arden Boulevard on February 26, last, when the mask of one of the bandits was temporarily pulled down.

Judge Reeve thereupon ordered Briles placed under arrest by Capt. Peoples, head of the Sheriff's robbery squad, and lodged in the County Jail on a charge of suspicion of robbery. Dismissal of the charge as to Lyons was then ordered.

Trial of the case as to Thomason was resumed and is expected to go to the jury today.

According to officers, Briles is at present awaiting trial in Superior Court on a charge of receiving stolen property. He was suspended from the police department following his arrest on the former charge.

Mae Acord Must Choose Between Alimony and Dog

Such in substance was the decision of Judge Guerin of the Superior Court yesterday when he ruled that Art Acord need not pay his wife, Edna May Acord, $125 a month temporary alimony until such time as she permits him to use the family dog, Rex, in his western pictures.

The elongated screen cowboy told the court that though the dog was the property of both himself and his wife, he had permitted her to keep Rex at the time of their separation. Now she refuses to permit him to use the dog in pictures. Consequently he is handicapped and can't earn enough to pay her the stipulated alimony ordered previously by the court. Judge Guerin then ruled that he did not have to pay alimony as long as he could not use the dog.

Mrs. Acord has a suit for divorce pending in which she names Louise Lorraine as co-respondent. At the last alimony hearing she declared that if her husband wouldn't support her their dog would as he is trained to picture work.

MAN GETS DIVORCE ON INFIDELITY PLEA

Hattie Elliott, according to Frank H. Elliott, was without a husband only while she was on the train. When she was in Los Angeles, he said, he served as her spouse. When she was back in her old home in Michigan, there was a man named Charles Webber who acted in that capacity. "Yes, Judge, she went back there and married Webber without waiting to get a divorce from me," Elliott told Judge Summerfield. "She went back and forth three times."

"Had a husband at each end of the line," the court commented. "Decree granted."

REALTY MAN JAILED AS RECKLESS DRIVER

W. K. Shafer, wealthy young real estate operator, drew a ten-day jail sentence yesterday from Police Judge Fredericksen for reckless driving. Patrolmen Velt and Wooldridge testified that on March 12, last, Shafer passed them in his car at racing speed and that a few blocks down the street he crashed into a machine driven by H. E. Scott of 4512 Sunset Boulevard. Justice Fredericksen, after hearing the evidence, promptly imposed the ten-day jail sentence.

DENIES HE LOVED DOG ABOVE WIFE

Husband Says Mate Got All Affection Due Her; Reconciliation Urged

Although he did not contest the divorce suit brought by his wife, Thora Johnson, Elmer A. Johnson rose in Judge Summerfield's courtroom yesterday and denied charges of his wife that he loved his dog better than he did her.

Mrs. Johnson testified Johnson thought so much of his dog he relegated his wife to second place in his affections. He called his dog his "little girl" and his wife his "big girl," she declared.

Johnson insisted that such was not the case and that he showed her all the affection due her. He also asserted that his wife divorced him in 1914, when he was out of the country, and that he did not know she contemplated such action. He said he effected a reconciliation and they were married again in 1919.

"I will take the case under advisement," said Judge Summerfield, to Johnson. "You were able to win her back in 1919; see if you can't do so now."

"Yes, sir, judge," was Johnson's only comment.

Delay is Asked in Transfer of Rodent Bureau

The Chamber of Commerce yesterday asked the City Council to defer its proposed action in taking the rodent-extermination bureau from the hands of State authorities and giving it to the City Health Commissioner.

The letter stated that this action was "a serious mistake," and asked that no change be made until after the chamber's committee had made an investigation of the matter. The protest was referred to the Council Health and Sanitation Committee.

TRIO OF BURGLARY SUSPECTS JAILED

Three men, giving the names of J. S. Wright, J. Hamilton and J. Brady, were arrested early yesterday morning by Patrolmen Grant and Tomm of the Wilshire division after they had been surprised, according to the officers, in the act of trying to force an entrance into a house at 676 South Rampart Boulevard. A fourth man, seated in a car which had been parked in front of the house, escaped. The three prisoners also took to their heels, but halted after several shots had been fired into the air by the officers, it was stated. They were all lodged in the City Jail on charges of grand larceny, burglary and robbery.

STOCK BUYER NABBED ON RETURNED CHECKS

A course in supersalesmanship, according to charges filed yesterday against W. E. Nelson, enabled Nelson to sell himself thoroughly to the brokerage firm of Cahn, McCabe & Co. He recently picked out securities amounting to more than $7000, the charges assert, and paid for them with two checks, one for $1585.40, and one for $5783.45, took immediate delivery of the securities and walked out with them. Both checks came back, it is declared. He was arrested by Detective Knowles and lodged in the County Jail.

CONFESSION IN BOND ROBBERY

Attorney and Suspect Trio Twice Arraigned

Meadows Unable to Furnish $35,000 Bail

Statement Follows Quarrel Relative to Guilt

The chain of circumstantial evidence woven around Rush Meadows, attorney, and his three asserted accomplices—all charged with the illegal possession of a part of the $225,000 in bonds stolen from a Nebraska bank—was visibly tightened yesterday.

United States Secret Service Agent-in-Charge Ashe announced late yesterday afternoon that a partial confession had been obtained from one of the prisoners in locating that Meadows and the others knew that the bonds in their possession had been stolen. The same man, he declared, has made a complete confession on the narcotic phase of the case, but he refused to divulge any details of either of the statements made by the suspect or his name.

As a result of these confessions, Ashe stated, government agents delving into the case are now conducting an extended search for two other men believed to have been members of the asserted criminal band.

The confession was obtained, he said, after a bitter quarrel among the prisoners in their cell during which three of them announced that they would refuse to be made "the goat" for the asserted crimes charged to them.

The accused attorney and his three fellow-prisoners faced United States Commissioner Turney twice yesterday. They were arraigned the first time on a charge of illegal possession of $16,000 worth of United States bonds taken from a Nebraska bank and the second time on a charge of violating the Harrison Narcotic Act through the possession of forty ounces of narcotics.

At the first arraignment, Meadow's bail was fixed at $25,000 and that of David L. Lerner, Charles R. Sweeney and Fred T. Keller, the other three prisoners, at $10,000 each.

They were arraigned the second time in the afternoon on a complaint signed by Federal Narcotic Agent De Spain charging them with the illegal purchase and possession of drugs. At this time, after a heated argument, Commissioner Turney set Meadows's bail at $10,000 and that of the others at $5000 each.

Meadows, after the last arraignment, threw up his hands helplessly and declared that he might have been able to raise $25,000 or $30,000 for bail but that the total of $35,000 was way "over his head."

Meadows has engaged William Thomas Helms as attorney and Lerner has engaged Claire Woolwine. The other two have not yet obtained legal representatives. Helms argued against the $25,000 bond proposed by U. S. Dep. Dist.-Atty. Neville.

Meadows's wife and father were in the commissioner's rooms when secret service agents brought the man from jail and Meadows embraced his wife and sought to comfort her. They have two children. Mrs. Lerner met her husband outside the courtroom.

Lerner and Sweeney were somewhat stolid in their attitude before the court and investigators, but Meadows and Keller were briskly active.

Keller was known as Meadows's chauffeur. The men are reported to have spent considerable time around Meadows's offices.

The athletic activities of Meadows are said to have included a tryout once as infielder for the Detroit Americans and pitcher for the Portland Beavers. He played last summer with teams in Hollywood and played baseball and football with teams of the University of Southern California. He is said to be a cousin of "Spec" Meadows, pitcher for the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Mrs. Lerner said she and her husband formerly were on the Orpheum vaudeville circuit as Lerner and Lerner, but that about three years ago they left the stage and since that time have been making a living "the best way we could." She said they have been here two or three years.

All the prisoners lived in Hollywood. Sweeney and Keller were said to have come from somewhere in the Northwest.

Secret service agents said Meadows was believed to have once been a deputy prosecutor in Kentucky. He has practiced here before the courts, investigators said, but, without legal authority. If this be true, it was pointed out, Meadows may face contempt-of-court proceedings.

William Ashe, chief of the local branch of the Federal secret service, Assistant Captain of Detectives Cato and Detective Lieutenants department, made the arrests in the case Thursday night.

ARRESTS FURNISH FIRST TRACE OF BONDS

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

OMAHA, May 1.—The Richland (Neb.) bank robbery, in connection with which Rush Meadows and three others were arrested in Los Angeles yesterday, was perpetrated December 6, 1920. Officers of the bank said the news from Los Angeles was the first trace of the bonds they had received since the robbery.

Two men forced entrance to the bank through a window while a third remained on guard outside. The vault door was dynamited and practically everything of value taken. The robbers escaped in an automobile which they had parked on the outskirts of town. Richland is a town of 150 persons, 100 miles west of Omaha. The robbers secured bonds worth $21,200.

WIDOW OF OIL FIELD WORKER GETS VERDICT

Hazel Myer, widow of Frank S. Myer, was given a verdict of $15,000 damages against the Federal Drilling Company by a jury in Judge Burnell's court yesterday as the result of an accident on Telegraph Road in which Myer sustained injuries that were asserted to have caused his death. According to Mrs. Myer's complaint, Myer, an oil-field worker, was riding on a truck that collided with another machine as the result of the alleged negligent operation of a third car, owned and operated by the defendant.

GIRL GIVES SLAYING CLEW

Banker's Sister Tips Officials On Suspect In Mrs. Unternahrer Clubbing Death

A visit to the scene of the murder of Mrs. Louise Unternahrer near Culver City in custody of Detective Stevens last night having failed to shake the protestations of innocence of Edwin A. Benedict, held as a suspect, investigators turned their attention to a possible clew furnished by the sister of a Culver City bank official.

The new angle to the case concerns a strange man, declared by the woman to have attempted to attack her after giving her a lift on the boulevard near Culver City. When she repulsed his advances, she said, he warned her that she was "just like all the other women he had given rides," and that the next time he got a woman in his car he would kill her if she did not yield.

EDWIN BENEDICT

When the woman read of the slaying of Mrs. Unternahrer, the threat of the stranger became vivid in her memory and she communicated with authorities. The name of the man was furnished Detective Lieutenant Stevens last night and he announced he would take the man into custody for questioning.

Meanwhile investigators are checking on statements made by Benedict and his room-mate, Frank E. Bass. Benedict was placed in the Culver City jail last night after he had been taken to the scene of the crime and to Venice. Benedict is described by officers as a former bootlegger.

Benedict and Bass were picked up at Culver City yesterday morning by Deputys Sheriffs Dewar, Modle and Catlin.

According to Deputy Sheriff Dewar, several weeks ago Benedict announced he intended to seek a location in Culver City and that he had a "red-headed sweetie" there. He was quoted as making threats against her, according to the officer. The day before the murder he arrived in Culver City. He had no money, Dewar says, and borrowed a Ford coupe from a friend, in which he was seen riding in Culver City that evening. He appeared at his rooms at midnight, it was said, and immediately began preparations to move out. The next day he paid several bills he owed, the officer declares, and then told friends if anybody inquired for him he was "out of town." He had a roll of several hundred dollars, the officer said he was informed.

Mrs. Unternahrer was found near Culver City. She had been clubbed to death and her jewelry, which she usually carried upon her person, could not be found.

JEWEL CARMEN WINS $60,682 COURT AWARD

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, May 1.—Jewel Carmen, motion-picture actress, was awarded $60,682 by a jury in the Supreme Court here today in her suit against the Fox Film Corporation. Miss Carmen charged that the defendant company had conspired with the Frank A. Keeney Pictures Company to prevent her appearance in the latter's films, even though she held a Keeney contract.

LUMBERMEN HOLD FROLIC

Lumbermen from all parts of California to the number of 400 assembled last night in the Ship Cafe on the Venice Pier for a stag banquet and frolic to promote good fellowship among representatives of the lumbering fraternity. E. W. Bookstaver was master of ceremonies and a four-hour program of songs, dances and vaudeville numbers was staged, concluding with an after-midnight entertainment. The lumbermen chartered the Ship for the evening.

STATUTORY CRIME CHARGED

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WILMINGTON, May 1.—R. C. Andre, 42 years of age, was arrested here today in his home at 1626 Rubidoux street, charged with a statutory offense against his granddaughter. The girl, who is only 15 years of age, was sent to Juvenile Hall, Los Angeles. Andre, an oil worker, was arrested by Officers Thomas and Griffith on a complaint from the District Attorney's office.

DEBUT FOR GLEE CLUB

The Y.M.C.A. Glee Club, under the direction of Dudley Warner Fitch, will make its 1925 debut Sunday in the public auditorium of the Ambassador.

The concert, which is sponsored by the Wilshire Congregational Church, will consist of quartet and chorus numbers mingled with instrumental and vocal solos.

District Split on Phone Shift for La Canada

Differing opinions as to the desirability of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company's proposal to establish a separate telephone exchange in La Canada Valley were expressed before the State Railroad Commission here yesterday at a hearing called by Commission President Brundige to consider the company's plan.

It is the company's proposal to serve La Crescenta, Verdugo City, Montrose, La Canada and Flintridge through an independent exchange, and abandon the service now rendered by the Pasadena Home Telephone Company to La canada and Flintridge. Representatives of the Women's Thursday Club of La Canada and its Chamber of Commerce and the Pasadena Merchants' Association opposed the plan, contending that the two communities virtually are a part of Pasadena, and the establishment of an independent exchange would set up an arbitrary boundary. Petitions signed by the majority of telephone subscribers of these two communities protesting the change also were presented.

The Montrose and La Crescenta chambers of commerce, the Verdugo City Association of Commerce and Verdugo Hills Merchants' Association presented favorable evidence of the plan.

Confirmation of Betty Blythe's Capture Lacking

The purported capture of Betty Blythe, screen actress, by fierce Bedouins in Arabia, as announced by her press agent in London, yesterday remained unconfirmed through any official source. It was learned here from Paul Scardon, husband of Miss Blythe.

Skepticism over the genuineness of the kidnaping has arisen because her husband was not notified by associates of Miss Blythe.

The press dispatches did not reveal that any authorities were appealed to in an effort to liberate the supposed captive of the supposed sheiks.

NINTH STREET BOOST ASSOCIATION FORMED

Organization of the West Ninth-street Improvement Association was effected last night at a meeting at the Ninth and Hoover-street school, attended by nearly 100 taxpayers. The object of the association is to get behind the improvement and widening of Ninth street from Figueroa street west. James A. Williams, 912 Carondelet street, was elected temporary chairman, and W. McKay secretary. Permanent organization will be effected at a meeting next Friday.

WAMPAS BABY STAR IS BACK AFTER TOUR

Ina Gregory, Wampas baby star of 1925, returned yesterday after a personal appearance tour of the East and mid-West that took up two and one-half months' time. Her return was hastened by an offer of a contract by one of the leading producers, she said. She is considering the offer, but has not signed so far.

NARCOTIC SUSPECT HELD

Federal narcotic agents yesterday arrested W. T. Kaesser, under Federal indictment in Georgia for asserted violation of the Harrison Act. Kaesser is said by the officers to have been supplying addicts with narcotics. Bond was set at $5000, which was provided in Georgia. Kaesser waived examination before United States Commissioner Turney and he will return to Georgia next week.

BETTER HOMES WEEK SET

Better Homes Week will be observed in Los Angeles and throughout the nation from the 11th to the 18th inst., under the direction of the Better Homes in America Association. Dr. Marian Tracie Whiting is chairman of the local committee arranging plans for the observance of the week.

RABBI TALKS ON SOULS OF LITTLE ONES

Says Spiritual Welfare is Essential Concern, at Health Week Meeting

Any scheme of education that fails to take account of the soul is a false education, Rabbi Edgar F. Magnin told wives and mothers attending the celebration of National Child Health Week arranged by Dr. J. D. Dunshee in the auditorium of the Broadway Department Store yesterday afternoon.

The speaker developed the thought in discussing the soul of the child, although he laid emphasis on the importance of a sound body built up by nutritious food, exercise and health habits.

The amusement feature of the afternoon was the appearance of a dozen little children under the direction of Mrs. Barbara Davier of the Southwest Museum, who presented a lively program of songs, fairy tales, recitations, and duets on the violin and marimba.

A number of songs were offered by Mrs. Gertrude Auld Thomas, accompanied by Miss Alpha Alta Crenshaw at the piano.

Other speakers were Mrs. Kate Brew Vaughn, Dr. E. Van Norman Emery, Dr. Ellen Studmuller and Dr. Rita Gray.

The final program of National Child Health Week will be presented tomorrow, and among the speakers will be Karl Howenstein, managing director of the Otis Art Institute, who will talk on child creativeness; Dr. H. Douglas Eaton, Dr. William Happ, Mrs. Charles S. Gray and Rev. B. F. Ryland.

Spanish War Veterans to Hold Parley

The twenty-second annual encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans of California will open with formal ceremonies at the Municipal Auditorium, Ocean Park, on the morning of the 11th inst. The formal opening will be preceded by a sacred and patriotic program to be given on the night of the 10th inst. at the Municipal Plaza in Santa Monica.

The veterans will be welcomed at the opening session by Frank A. Helton of McArthur Camp, No. 25, and will be given the freedom of Santa Monica and Venice by the mayors of these two cities. In the afternoon the delegates will be taken to Peace Hill at Pacific Palisades and will dedicate the hill. A parade, reception, ball and a general festival is scheduled in the evening.

The second day's session will open with a business meeting and in the afternoon the crack drill teams of the various California camps will give an exhibition. The annual dinner will follow in the evening, after which Ocean Park night will be celebrated with a festival. The final session on the third day will be devoted to business, a visit to the Soldiers' Home at Sawtelle and in the evening a grand parade at Santa Monica.

Corner Lease Involves Sum of $1,500,000

Involving a total rental of $1,500,000, the northeast corner of Hollywood Boulevard and Garfield Place has been leased for ninety-nine years to a New York syndicate by Mrs. Corinne W. Haynes.

The property fronts 140 feet on Hollywood Boulevard and 150 feet on Garfield Place. It is now occupied by thirteen tenants and because of the existing leases no improvements are contemplated at this time.

STORM DRAIN WORK MAY BE CURTAILED

City Engineer Van Norman was requested yesterday by Councilman Sanborn to ascertain if the proposed Boyle Heights Storm Drain No. 3 could not be deferred a reasonable time, as the Hollenbeck Heights district is now overburdened with public improvements. In case this could not be done he requested that only a small part of the work be completed.

MURDER CLEW AT CAFETERIA

Place Watched for Suspect in Babcock Case

Queer Actions Cause Man to be Denied Admittance

Police, Lacking Motive, Lay Death to Maniac

A Hollywood cafeteria, at which the suspect is reported to have attempted to gain admission twice yesterday, was watched by the police last night in the hope of taking into custody the man most wanted in connection with the death last Tuesday afternoon of Mrs. Mary E. Babcock, believed beaten to death in her home at 1202 South Alvarado street.

The man attempting to enter the cafeteria, the detectives were informed, answers the description of the itinerant grass-cutter whose actions about the Alvarado neighborhood on the day of Mrs. Babcock's death pointed toward him as the most logical suspect. He is known to have visited several houses near the Babcock residence and his strange actions indicated that he may have been mentally unbalanced.

His description tallies with that of the person attempting to enter the cafeteria, but to whom admittance was refused because of his appearance and actions, which were made more noticeable by a continued muttering in an undertone, the police were told.

The police are doubly anxious to apprehend this man, as no motives for anyone killing the aged woman have yet been uncovered, and the detectives are forced to the conclusion that either she was killed by a maniac, or received the three skull fractures and eight broken ribs that caused her death as the result of a fall from the kitchen sink, a theory that is considered untenable until every other possible clew is checked.

Chief of Detectives Home and Assistant Captain of Detectives Bean, head of the homicide squad, after a further investigation yesterday were inclined to the theory that the woman met her death by accident, agreeing with Dep. Dist.-Atty. Dunnahoo, whose opinion to the same effective was published exclusively in The Times yesterday morning.

The body of Mrs. Babcock is at the undertaking parlors of Reed Brothers, 721 West Washington street, and no funeral arrangements have been made pending the arrival of her two married daughters from Washington, expected today.
